The Military Heroes of the Revolution with a Narrative of the War of Independence Charles J Peterson, PH., Charles J. (Charles Jacobs) Peterson, 2012-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

The Military Heroes of the Revolution Charles J. Peterson, 2017-07-18 Excerpt from The Military Heroes of the Revolution With a Narrative of the War of Independence The design of this work is to furnish brief analytical portraits of those military leaders who either from superior ability or superior good fortune have played the most prominent parts in the wars of the United States Each biography is made the frame as it were for a battle picture the combat chosen being that in which the hero of the memoir principally distinguished himself This has always appeared to the author the only true way to give a military portrait What would a sketch of Hannibal be without Cannes or one of Bruce without Bannockburn The battle in which a great hero distinguishes himself becomes a part of his biography His fame and sometimes even his character cannot be understood without it The author has desired accordingly to write a book which should not only tell when Warren was born where Putnam spent his youth or who were the ancestors of Greene and Wayne but to enshrine as far as his feeble pen has power the memory of those immortal heroes with Lexington Bunker Hill Eutaw and Stony Point About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Military Heroes of the Revolution with a Narrative of the War of Independence Charles J 1819-1887 Peterson,2015-11-18 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant      Some Heroes of the American Revolution James Davis Bailey,1924      MILITARY HEROES OF THE REVOLUT Charles J.
