poems written during the rise of Portugal and Spain on the global stage often dealt with topics quite unimaginable to the likes of Virgil or Homer. These poems reveal the astounding opportunities for upward social mobility and self promotion afforded by broader access to print and the vast amount of knowledge and material wealth accrued through maritime exploration. Iberian poets of the period were quite cognizant of their ventures into uncharted territory and that awareness informed their literary journeys. The War Trumpet features nine substantial essays that expand our understanding of Iberian Renaissance epic poetry by posing questions seldom raised in relation to poems such as La Araucana. Os Lusadas, Carlo famoso, El Bernardo, Arauco Domado, Espejo de paciencia and Felicissima Victoria among others. Particularly compelling are questions concerned with early modern understandings of the natural world, the practice of poetic imitation, the discipline of cartography or the reception of Petrarchism in the newly established viceroyalties of the New World. Fostering a greater appreciation of the intersection between poetry, war and exploration, The War Trumpet sheds light on the transformative changes that took place during the period of Iberian expansion.

Heroes in Training Vicki Redden, 2004. The author introduces primaries to heroes from Bible times to modern times: boys, girls, cats, dogs, horses, even a pig named Priscilla. Each story helps kids learn to be God's hero.

Though Motoyasu finds Naofumi's plan to overcome their treacherous circumstances unbearable, he still proclaims, "I, Motoyasu Kitamura, shall guarantee victory no matter the odds." Let the second chapter of this epic redemption fantasy begin.

THE CREATOR DOESN'T DO MAINTENANCE Jerry D Eskes, IF MOTHER EARTH IS TO SURVIVE MANKIND HAS GOT TO GO. How could a race of beings that developed heated car seats as an essential comfort to their sorry asses ever be allowed to cohabitate with the wonder-filled world of Mother Nature? How could this selfish, self-serving race of beings ever have been granted the privilege of citizenship within such a fragile ecosystem as the natural world of planet Earth? A fragile ecosystem that man has now all but destroyed. Nature will probably not be able to survive mankind, and if nature fails, mankind fails. The simple solution is to save nature and to discard man. And that's an absurd statement, as nature should really include mankind, but man has lost his status in nature through his indifference. Nature is really everything, and man is really nothing in the great scheme of things, so the solution is a no-brainer, right? Man, if asked, would say that, of course, he wants to be saved, but in reality, he isn't yet ready to do what is needed to achieve this saving, to save himself from himself. Nature is the innocent party here, and everyone will be sympathetic to the innocent party, right? In the beginning, all living things were given the tools to live together on planet Earth and to live in perfect harmony, including mankind. All living things, including mankind, were given all of the Earth's resources to use to achieve this perfect life. The creatures, the plants and even early man were vastly enjoying this and they were all living the good life together. That is until God's new improved aware man came along and all of that just wasn't enough for him any longer. Mankind wanted more so much more than poor old Mother Earth could ever begin to deliver. Mankind just could not and would not work within any basic and reasonable restrictions. The Book of Job tells us that humans must live in harmony with nature and seek to learn from its wise and mysterious ways. But ask the beasts and they will teach you, the birds of the air and they will tell you, or the plants of the Earth and they will teach you, and the fish of the sea will declare to you. <https://www.google.com/search?q=the+book+of+job+tells+us+to+live+in+harmony+with+nature> Silva
