Hers 2 Brilliant New Fiction By Lesbian Writers:

Hers Terry Wolverton, 1995 A collection of work from some of the finest lesbian authors currently writing in America Authors include Carol Maso Sarah Schulman Michelle T Clinton and Rebecca Brown Greatest Hits, 1988-2001 Terry Wolverton, 2002 Me as Her Again Nancy Agabian, 2008 Literary Nonfiction Biography Middle Eastern Studies In this memoir Nancy Agabian tells stories of growing pains family tensions and buried pasts In a narrative that braids together different times and places and shifts between comic and dramatic registers Agabian tells us how as a child she learns to juggle roles in response to competing pressures to fit in as an American while maintaining her Armenian heritage At home she struggles with her grandmother's old ideologies arguments between her parents and heated discussions about race and sexuality In her twenties Agabian moves to Hollywood and becomes a performance artist and begins to discover herself sexually dating both men and women After hiding her autobiographical shows from her relatives she finally decides to confront her family history and takes a trip to Armenia with her artist aunt during which she finds she must reckon with painful family histories involving displacement and genocide With Her Machete in Her Hand Catrióna Rueda Esquibel, 2009-09-15 With the 1981 publication of the groundbreaking anthology This Bridge Called My Back Writings by Radical Women of Color Cherr e Moraga and Gloria Anzald a ushered in an era of Chicana lesbian writing But while these two writers have achieved iconic status observers of the Chicana o experience have been slow to perceive the existence of a whole community lesbian and straight male as well as female who write about the Chicana lesbian experience To create a first full map of that community this book explores a wide range of plays novels and short stories by Chicana o authors that depict lesbian characters or lesbian desire Catri na Rueda Esquibel starts from the premise that Chicana o communities theories and feminisms cannot be fully understood without taking account of the perspectives and experiences of Chicana lesbians To open up these perspectives she engages in close readings of works centered around the following themes La Llorona the Aztec Princess Sor Juana In s de la Cruz girlhood friendships rural communities and history and Chicana activism Her investigation broadens the community of Chicana lesbian writers well beyond Moraga and Anzald a while it also demonstrates that the histories of Chicana lesbians have had to be written in works of fiction because these women have been marginalized and excluded in canonical writings on Chicano life and experience Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard, 2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works Short Story Index, 2004 The Writers Directory, 2013

Girlfriends, 1998 Princess Freak Nancy Agabian, 2000 A collection of poetry performance texts and fiction by Los Angeles performance artist and poet Nancy Agabian Beyond Baroque Books Phoebe, 1998 Contemporary Authors, 1998 Q & A Queer And Asian David L. Eng, Alice Y. Hom, 1998-08-24 What does it mean to be queer and Asian American at the turn of the century The writers activists essayists and artists who contribute to this volume consider how Asian American racial identity and queer sexuality interconnect in mutually shaping and complicating ways Their collective aim in the words of the editors is to articulate a new conception of Asian American racial identity its heterogeneity hybridity and multiplicity concepts that after all underpinned the Asian American moniker from its very inception Q A approaches matters of identity from a variety of points of view and academic disciplines in order to explore the multiple crossings of race and ethnicity with sexuality and gender Drawing together the work of visual artists fiction writers community organizers scholars and participants in roundtable discussions the collection gathers an array of voices and experiences that represent the emerging communities of a queer Asian America Collectively these contributors contend that Asian American studies needs to be more attentive to issues of sexuality and that queer studies needs to be more attentive to other aspects of difference especially race and ethnicity Vigorously rejecting the notion that a symmetrical relationship between race and homosexuality would weaken lesbian gay and queer movements the editors refuse to believe that a desirably queer world is one in which we remain perpetual aliens queer houseguests in a queer nation Feminist Bookstore News, 1999 Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff, 1999-08 A Directory of American Poets and Fiction Writers Poets and Writers, Inc. Staff, 2003 Resource THE DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN POETS FICTION WRITERS is a required resource for any arts or presenting organization looking for literary readers as well as for all publishers seeking to solicit work from the best American writers In addition writers can use the book to find the right writing mentor and connect with other writers When I directed my first arts program the Directory delivered the addresses and phone numbers of writers I loved but couldn't find How many writers and audiences are robbed without the information between these covers Cornelius Eady co founder and co director Cave Canem and author of Brutal Imagination The Publishers Weekly,
