Great War Modernism Nanette Norris, 2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American

European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time

Furey, Sarah Hammerschlag, Amy Hollywood, 2021-12-10 What brings religious scholars Constance Furey Sarah Hammerschlag and Amy Hollywood together in Devotion is a shared conviction that reading helps us live with and through the unknown For them the nature of reading raises questions fundamental to how we think about our political futures and modes of human relation Each essay suggests different ways to characterize the object of devotion and the stance of the devout subject before it Furey writes about devotion in terms of vivification energy and artifice Hammerschlag in terms of commentary mimicry and fetishism and Hollywood in terms of anarchy antinomianism and atopia They are interested in literature not as providing models for ethical political or religious life but as creating the site in which the possible and the impossible transport the reader enabling new forms of thought habits of mind and modes of life Ranging from German theologian Martin Luther to French Jewish philosopher Sarah Kofman to American poet Susan Howe this volume is not just a reflection on forms of devotion it is also an enactment of devotion itself The New Anthology of American Poetry Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, Thomas J.
