Hoc In Volumine Haec Continentur:

Poets Laureate in the Holy Roman Empire John Flood, 2011-09-08 Petrarch's revival of the ancient practice of laureation in 1341 led to the laurel being conferred on poets throughout Europe in the later Middle Ages and the Early Modern period. Within the Holy Roman Empire Maximilian I conferred the title of Imperial Poet Laureate especially frequently and later it was bestowed with unbridled liberality by Counts Palatine and university rectors too. This handbook identifies more than 1300 poets laureated within the Empire and adjacent territories between 1355 and 1804 giving wherever possible a sketch of their lives, a list of their published works and a note of relevant scholarly literature. The introduction and various indexes provide a detailed account of a now largely forgotten but once significant literary sociological phenomenon and illuminate literary networks in the Early Modern period. A supplementary Volume 5 of Poets Laureate in the Holy Roman Empire A Bibliographical Handbook will be published in June 2019.

The Poetics of Aristotle and the Tractatus Coislinianus O.J. Schrier, 2018-07-17 The bibliography of Aristotle's Poetics by Cooper and Gudeman, most welcome in 1928, has now become antiquated even for the period it covers. The present one registers all editions, translations, commentaries and studies bearing on the Poetics or the major concepts that have been associated with it correctly or incorrectly from 1481 up till 1996. Moreover, a survey is given of the medieval translations and commentaries written in the Orient and in Europe. Special attention has been given to the reviews. The oldest one registered dates from 1697. The second book of the Poetics, being lost, publications related to the Tractatus Coislinianus which partly rests on Poetics II have been included. There are seven indices. Especially those on passages and subjects should prove to be useful instruments. In the author's text Greek nouns and adjectives have been transliterated.

The catalogue is presented in alphabetical order by author surnames with place, printer, date and library locations for each publication. An extensive introduction explores the state of bibliography in Renaissance rhetoric today.
