Hockey Night In Canada:

Hockey Night in Canada Michael McKinley, 2012-10-30 Hockey Night in Canada has reached a great age and for television practically an immortal one because it made itself into something that Canada couldn't live without. It is this surge of emotion that connected us all each week and which connects us through the years to now. Hockey Night in Canada didn't just aim a camera at a game and observe what happened; it actively gave the country a prism through which it could see itself and its evolving diversity. We look where the eye of Hockey Night in Canada looks and it looks at us. We remember what it remembers. We feel what it feels. That is the dynamic that has made the show much more than a long-lived TV success; it is a cultural juggernaut. Ask fans where they saw their first hockey game and chances are it was on Hockey Night in Canada. Ask the players male or female what first got them into the rink and the answer will be the same: they wanted to be like the players on Hockey Night in Canada.

Hockey Night in Canada Richard Gruneau, David Whitson, 1994-01-01 The Best of Hockey Night in Canada Stephen Cole, 2004 Hockey Night in Canada has been a national institution since it premiered on CBC radio in 1931. Foster Hewitt's familiar "Hello Canada" ushered hockey fans into the era of television in 1952. This book captures the great rivalries, the stars, and classic commentary moments from the days of radio. One Game at a Time Harnarayan Singh, 2020-09-22 INSTANT NATIONAL BESTSELLER From the distinct and vibrant voice behind Hockey Night in Canada, Punjabi comes the story of pursuing a dream and defying the odds, reminding us all of hockey's power to unite. Bonino Bonino Bonino Ask a hockey fan if they have heard the wonderfully electric call of Nick Bonino's overtime-winning goal from the 2016 Stanley Cup Final and they will almost surely answer with a resounding yes. That's because video clips of the Hockey Night in Punjabi broadcast immediately went viral, amplifying the profile of Harnarayan Singh, the voice behind the call. Growing up in small-town Alberta, Harnarayan was like many other kids who dreamed about a life within the sanctum of the game they idolized. There was only one small difference: he didn't look like any of the other kids. And when he sat down on Saturday nights to tune in to Hockey Night in Canada with the rest of the nation, he couldn't ignore the fact that the broadcasters or analysts didn't look like him either. Undeterred, Harnarayan worked his way from calling imaginary hockey games with his plastic toy microphone as a child to funding secret flights from Calgary to Toronto every weekend in the early days of Hockey Night in Punjabi to making history as the first Sikh to broadcast an NHL game in English. Full of heart, humour, and bursting with personality and maybe a few family prayers for Wayne Gretzky, One Game at a Time is the incredible and inspiring story of how Harnarayan Singh broke through the longstanding barriers and biases of the sport he loves. But more than that, Harnarayan blends his unabashed love of hockey with a refreshing and necessary positive message about what it means to be a Canadian in the world, making him one of the most influential ambassadors of the game today.
