A Century of NHL Memories Jim Hynes, Phil Pritchard, Lanny McDonald, 2017-09-30
Foreword by Lanny McDonald NHL hockey is a game of shared memories that can bind a family a city or an entire country Each era has them individual moments that become etched on the collective consciousness from the time they occur and passed down through generations The greatest of these memories are caught on film and become all the richer for it In the hockey universe the single most important repository of memories is the Hockey Hall of Fame where along with the artifacts and memorabilia are more than 3 three million images that have been amassed over the decades and safeguarded as a national treasure The Hall s Photographic Collection includes nearly 1000 glass plate negatives and thousands of original photos many of which have never been published or seen until now A Century of NHL Memories celebrates the league s centennial by throwing open the doors to the Hall of Fame s photo archives and unveiling some of its treasures Snapped by legends of photojournalism like Lou and Nat Turofsky and Frank Prazak and selected for their beauty and originality or both these 130 or so photos cast hockey s heroes in a different light take you into the heart of the action or reveal as much about the charm of an era as the game on the ice Some will teach you something you didn t already know Others will make you smile Delving into the Hockey Hall of Fame s collection was a dream come true for the hockey fans that published A Century of NHL Memories a rare privilege indeed The biggest challenge ultimately was making the final selection from among so many great photos Enjoy the memories Photo geeks and I mean that in a loving way will love this book and its attention to detail Greg Oliver SIHR November 1 2017 Phenomenal photography and crisp commentary make A Century of NHL Memories simply a sensational book Kevin Shea Hockey historian and author November 2 2017 As the NHL s centennial year is coming to a close yet another celebratory book is hitting the stores shelves This may be the best one yet Joe Pelletier s Hockey Book Reviews com October 5 2017 Magnificent a beautiful walk through some remarkable hockey history Dave Stubbs National Hockey League columnist and historian September 27 2017
