Morefield, 2011-07-13 Faith and Spirituality in Masters of World Cinema Volume II continues the work presented in the first volume of this title published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing in 2008 It provides informed yet accessible articles that will give readers an introduction to masters of world cinema whose works explore the themes of human spirituality and religious faith Volume II contains essays dealing with canonical directors notably absent from the first entry of the series such as Godard and Kurosawa while also including examinations of contemporary auteurs who are still actively working for example Andersson and von Trier While retaining a truly international emphasis it includes essays about directors from the United States Canada Iran Sweden India Denmark Italy Mexico Australia and Japan Volume II also acts as an important contribution to canon formation illustrating the complexity and variety in the films of those who are truly the masters of world cinema Built solidly around close formal readings of selective films the essays in Volume II also demonstrate familiarity with film history and bring insight from such varied disciplines as New Testament Studies Clinical Psychology Art History and Medieval History It also seeks to broaden the understanding of faith and spirituality examining how the meaning of such terms changes as the cultures that produce the art that defines them continues to evolve

Artistic Visions and the Promise of Beauty Kathleen M. Higgins, Shakti Maira, Sonia Sikka, 2017-03-06 This volume examines the motives behind rejections of beauty often found within contemporary art practice where much critically acclaimed art is deliberately ugly and alienating It reflects on the nature and value of beauty asking whether beauty still has a future in art and what role it can play in our lives generally The volume discusses the possible end of art what art is and the relation between art and beauty beyond their historically Western horizons to include perspectives from Asia The individual chapters address a number of interrelated issues including art beauty and the sacred beauty as a source of joy and consolation beauty as a bridge between the natural and the human beauty and the human form the role of curatorial practice in defining art order and creativity and the distinction between art and craft The volume offers a valuable addition to cross cultural dialogue and in particular to the sparse literature on art and beauty in comparative context It demonstrates the relevance of the rich tradition of Asian aesthetics and the vibrant practices of contemporary art in Asia to Western discussions about the future of art and the role of beauty      Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04
