Enjoying the last rays
of sunshine.

Holding Onto Sunday:

The Watchman-examiner ,1924 Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World Sally A. Brown,2020-04-07 What can preachers do to help congregants navigate everyday life with the courage imagination and savvy it takes to testify in action and word to God's mercy and justice Christianity's witness depends on credible Christian lives carried out in ordinary settings of everyday life Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World helps preachers design sermons that equip believers to act with improvisational creative courage in the ordinary settings of their Monday to Saturday lives How can we who preach inspire the ordinary prophets of our time those who in Christ's name will act in great or small ways as agents of redemptive interruption Sally A Brown with her extensive experience both in parish ministry and training others for ministry shares preaching strategies that equip these ordinary prophets to take daring action Brown begins by reconsidering the power and limits of the missional model of Christian witness and argues that Christian witness today must be adaptive and therefore imaginative and improvisational She then turns to the connection between the sermons our listeners hear on Sunday and their capacity to timely inventive action in everyday situations Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World will inspire both preachers and those who listen to them to move from sanctuary to street week after week eager to discern and participate in the ongoing redemptive work of God already under way amid the ordinary scenes and settings of their Monday to Saturday lives The Church School Journal ,1880 Seduced Nelson George,1997-01-21 A smart funny and wonderfully resonant novel It's the 1980s and aspiring songwriter Derek Harper is a man easily seduced Not only do the Big Three money fame and women keep him running but Harper falls prey to subtler forms of seduction as well the ease of rationalizing bad behavior abdicating responsibility and keeping the whole world at arm's length All these issues are brilliantly interwoven with a behind the scenes look at the music industry particularly the evolution of rap Los Angeles Times Book Review Seduced is at its most compelling when author Nelson George delves into the differences between life in the projects and the middle class heaven of St Albans and how it evolved over thirty years George's style is well seductive luring the reader into a world that takes in the range of black experience funneled through the music industry St Petersburg Times Seduced shows Nelson George at the top of his game doing what he does best zinging the black music biz The road chapters alone have enough shrill wit stabbing satire and tight accuracy to parallel the life of anyone who's ever been out there during the Reagan stressed 80s Houston Chronicle In Seduced Nelson keeps it real This is a sex story a New York story and a music biz story rolled into one starring a humble beautifully average middle class dreamer who's not unlike a male version of a Terry McMillan heroine Tour How To Burn This Book Evan Witmer,2021-12-15 Step one of burning a book is finding a disagreeable premise within its interior to justify the act In order to simplify this process for the reader each short story in this collection is followed by a precise reason the short story should be immolated opined by the author's many critics Lucky Girl Noir is about a hard boiled cop solving the murder of a Lucky Girl one of many powered women born with probability consistently in their favor Burning this story would be a much needed win in the war against plagiarism Three Days West is an acid Western about a pair of turophile cowboys exploiting their otherworldly connection in frontier Colorado This story deserves burning for stealing the modesty of American pulp heroes Zantar is Tarzan but with aliens and raccoons Burning seems appropriate as it acts as a continuation of the author s insatiable hunger for theriocide Sea Creatures is a sapphic love story between a siren and a mermaid The story deserves to be burned for suggesting bras are a form of art Lizard People Take Orlando tells the story of Zaffre Davis a young grad student running for mayor of Orlando while keeping his double life as a scalie a secret Burning should be considered due to its depictions of the furry fandom as solely affiliating with Democrats The Spirit Realm is about the survivor of a mass party poisoning who wakes up to find he can talk to and interrogate bottles of alcohol Not a single character is represented by a bottle of absinthe a crime best punished by burning The Pimp That Slapped the Ripper is about the fall of Jack the Ripper at the hands of a violent young procurer who will protect her property at all costs The author s new softness has robbed the story of certain graphic historical details their omission begets burning Washed is the story of a man who loses all his memories when he takes a shower Burn this one to effectively eliminate the author s ugly stinky past An American Weekend is about a boy s considerably awful week and his preceding visitation by the embodiments of Friday Saturday and Sunday who guide him out of his funk Turn it to ashes this interpretation of the weekend reeks of upper class privilege Roadwork is about the daily struggles of a lemurtologist an exorcist working for the DMV whose job is to remove ghosts from the road after a horrific accident Tossing this story into the fire could fracture the ego of a hate filled author obsessed with smudging the good name of the DMV The Congregationalist ,1920 Blind Spots John Domenico,2009-12 What happens when you never stop questioning what you believe They say God works in mysterious ways John Domenico should know In his 50 plus years he s embarked on a seeker s journey that has taken him from steadfast Catholicism to born again Christianity to a unique kind of inclusive spirituality Blind Spots The Memoirs of a Baby Boomer on the Rocky Road towards Spiritual Awakening collects his insightful and often humorous thoughts reflections and critiques on all of them The result is a deliciously candid and frank book that will appeal to anyone who s ever struggled to understand his or her faith From early on it s clear Domenico marched to his own drummer As a child he learns to question his family s Catholic faith and finds plenty of trouble from the nuns and priests in Catholic school Subsequent to his experimentation in the 1960 s and 70 s Domenico settles down and after initial resistance discovers Pentecostalism But eventually he finds cracks in his latest belief system and he sets out for what will be the most spiritually fulfilling quest of all Interspersed are compelling asides on his personal life as well as the politics major events personalities and trends that have shaped the last half century Throughout it all Domenico s sensitivity and keen wit masterfully transform an ordinarily timeworn subject that under his care is crafted into a thought provoking rollicking ride that might just get you questioning your own deeply held beliefs Reader reviews It made me laugh it made me cry and it made me think so much I don't know what I believe anymore I loved it I think it should be required reading for everyone on the planet Domenico tells his story with painful rawness His courage is rivaled only by his masterful storytelling revealing much of who we all are in this provocative memoir
