Holistic Curriculum:

The Holistic Curriculum John P. Miller, 2007-01-01 Holistic education is concerned with connections in human experience connections between mind and body between linear thinking and intuitive ways of knowing between academic disciplines between individual and community and between the personal self and the transpersonal Self that all spiritual traditions believe exist beyond the ego First published in 1988 The Holistic Curriculum examines the philosophical psychological and social foundations of holistic education provides an outline of its history and discusses practical applications for this type of learning in the classroom This revised and expanded second edition concisely describes how holistic thinking integrates spiritual and scientific perspectives drawing on romantic humanistic and other radical alternatives to the atomistic worldview of the modern age The role of the teacher the issue of accountability and strategies for implementing the Holistic Curriculum are also discussed Holistic Curriculum, Third Edition John P.

Miller, 2019-04-16 Originally published in 1988 The Holistic Curriculum addresses the problem of fragmentation in education through a connected curriculum of integrative approaches to teaching and learning John P Miller author of more than seventeen books on holistic education discusses the theoretical foundations of the holistic curriculum and particularly its philosophical psychological and social connections Tracing the history of holistic education from its beginnings this revised and expanded third edition features insights into Indigenous approaches to education while also expanding upon the six curriculum connections subject community thinking earth body mind and soul This edition also includes an introduction by leading Indigenous educator Greg Cajete as well as a dialogue between the author and Four Arrows author of Teaching Truly about the relationship between holistic education and Indigenous education Seven Curricular Landscapes Clifford Mayes, 2003 Seven Curricular Landscapes offers a holistic presentation and critique of what the author considers to be the seven major types of curricula This book which is suitable for both upper division and graduate education courses differs from previous holistic approaches in that it closely considers the holistic implications of postmodernism adds new categories and terms to the holistic repertoire includes the latest developments in transpersonal theory examines the Existentialist curriculum as a spiritual phenomenon and discusses the curricular implications of both Eastern and Western spirituality

Holistic Teacher Education Rupert Clive Collister, 2021-11-03 This collection brings together approaches to the teacher education and preparation curriculum that may be described as holistic It also discusses teacher education curricula that are reconstructionist and reconceptualist in nature seeking to shift the trajectory of society through teacher education The book serves as an introductory text for the field of holistic curriculum studies and will open it up to a wider audience

Teaching from the Thinking Heart John P. Miller, Michele Irwin, Kelli Nigh, 2014-07-01 Forward by Nel Noddings This book includes papers written by teachers and how they engage holistic education in their classrooms The papers come from a course taught by Jack Miller at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto entitled The

Holistic Curriculum This is a rich and diverse collection of papers showing how holistic education can be brought into public education despite the pressures of testing and other accountability measures Although most of the teachers teach in public schools there are also examples from teachers working in private and post secondary settings This book can inspire other teachers who are looking for ways to teach the whole person in a more connected manner There are very few texts in the field of holistic education that include the voices and practices of teachers particularly those working in public schools Many of the examples of holistic education in practice come from Waldorf Montessori Reggio Emilia and alternative schools A unique feature of this book is the many different voices of teachers describing their work in the classroom they talk about their successes the challenges and even a few failures The Holistic Curriculum ,1993 A Holistic Educator's

Journey John P. Miller,2021-08-01 This memoir describes the journey of John Jack Miller The book explores how his personal journey is related to the work he has done in holistic education contemplative education and spirituality in education In holistic education the personal and professional are connected Professor Miller s journey includes events books teachers and the many factors in his life that have contributed to his work which includes more than 20 books and extensive travel around the world An example of the relationship between the personal and the professional is that Jack began meditating in 1974 and this practice has provided the foundation for much of his teaching and writing Professor Miller s book The Holistic Curriculum first published in 1988 along with the publication of the Holistic Education Review have been seen as the beginning of holistic education as a field of study Since his journey has been connected with so many other holistic educators this book can serve as one perspective on how the field has unfolded over the past 35 years Besides this historical perspective the book includes a chapter on his meditation practice as well his beliefs There is also a chapter on his teaching and how he attempts to embody holistic education in his classroom Praise for A Holistic Educator's Journey Rarely does a field builder allow us the opportunity to journey into the life long journey leading to the formation of the work With bold transparency Miller shares his enormously rich professional and personal journey of seven decades with an open hand He shows us the terrane of his inner and outer life Lisa Miller Author The Spiritual Child Teachers College Columbia University Whether in the classroom writing books keynoting or being a friend Jack Miller s life journey exemplifies his multi dimensional embracing of the way of nature and accepting of the mysterious Always acknowledging the Indigenous roots of holistic education he managed to bring parts of the Indigenous worldview into schools in ways that accommodated all cultures This book gives testimony to his great contribution to understanding why we must return to our interconnected way of being Four Arrows Author Sitting Bull's Words for a World in Crises Conference proceedings. New perspectives in science education Pixel,2014 Total Learning for the Whole Child Joanne Hendrick,1980 Happiness Factories: A success-driven approach to holistic Physical Education Phil Mathe,2022-11-25 Happiness Factories explores the ideas concepts and arguments behind an expanded focus in physical education beyond just the physical It attempts to discuss the value and benefits of identifying other aspects whether we call these holistic strands character traits life skills or something else that we can introduce into our curriculum design to identify other areas that our subject potentially touches on and influences Taking the reflections and thoughts of PE educators leaders and academics from across the world Happiness Factories will seek to offer reflections and practical ideas for adapting PE provision to widen the impact for all pupils regardless of their specific contexts and the book argues that a physically rich dynamic and context driven curriculum approach will expand opportunities for success for all in turn inspiring future generations of PE pupils to strive for greater engagement understanding and progression in all aspects of PE Happiness Factories is the story of the author s career in PE reflecting on the lessons he has learned with the successes and failures along the way It presents an alternative view of what modern meaningful PE can look like and encourages all PE teachers regardless of their unique context to reflect on their own practice and the emphasis of the provision they give to their pupils
