Too Funny for Words David Kalat, 2019-04-26 American silent film comedies were dominated by sight gags stunts and comic violence With the advent of sound comedies in the 1930s were a riot of runaway heiresses and fast talking screwballs It was more than a technological pivot the first feature length sound film The Jazz Singer 1927 changed Hollywood Lost in the discussion of that transition is the overlap between the two genres Charlie Chaplin Buster Keaton and Harold Lloyd kept slapstick alive well into the sound era Screwball directors like Leo McCarey Frank Capra and Ernst Lubitsch got their starts in silent comedy From Chaplin's tramp to the witty repartee of His Girl Friday 1940 this book chronicles the rise of silent comedy and its evolution into screwball two flavors of the same genre through the works of Mack Sennett Roscoe Arbuckle Harry Langdon and others

The Cinema of Tony Richardson James M. Welsh, John C.

Tibbetts, Professor John C Tibbetts, 1999-08-12 Critically surveys the films of Tony Richardson one of Britain's most inventive directors of stage and screen Film and Sexual Politics Kylo-Patrick R. Hart, 2009-01-14 Film and Sexual Politics A Critical Reader features a variety of noteworthy critical essays that explore the evolution representation and social construction of sex gender and sexual orientation from the early days of cinema to the early twenty first century This collection investigates the complex relations between film form style and sexual politics past and present as well as the ideological and social ramifications of those relations for the lived realities of individuals in the United States over the course of the twentieth century and beyond Contrary to popular perceptions of films as relatively simplistic forms of entertainment the essays in this collection demonstrate clearly how the act of producing meaning through the use of cinematic verbal and visual signs is far from a simple process with negligible historical consequences This book offers insightful and satisfying reading to established and emerging scholars who explore film history theory and criticism as well as to all readers with a general interest in film history and the effects of cinema on individuals and popular culture The range of films analyzed includes Being John Malkovich Citizen Kane Elizabeth Female Perversions From Here to Eternity Gidget The Incredible Shrinking Man Jackass the Movie The Matrix Maurice My Own Private Idaho Porcile The Road to Ruin and Wilde Exiles in Hollywood Gene Phillips, 1998-07 The book deals with five European film directors who were forced to remain in exile in the wake of the rise of Hitler and who subsequently enriched the American motion picture industry with a reservoir of new talent that had been nurtured in Europe The directors treated are Fritz Lang William Wyler Otto Preminger Fred Zinnemann and Billy Wilder Framed Orit Kamir, 2006-01-19 Theorizes the emerging field at the intersection of law and film through a detailed feminist analysis of masterpiece films about law from around the world Bride of Frankenstein Shane Denson, 2025-09-09 Reactivating the familiar classic for contemporary audiences Picturing Argentina: Myths, Movies, and the Peronist Vision Currie K. Thompson, 2014-05-28 Although Juan Domingo Peron's central role in Argentine history and the need for an unbiased assessment of his impact on his nation's cinema are beyond dispute the existing scholarship on the subject is limited In recent decades Argentina has witnessed a revival of serious film study some of which has focused on the nation's classical movies and in one case on Peronism None of this work has been translated into English however This is the first English language book that offers an extensive assessment of Argentine cinema during first Peronism It is also the first study in any language that concentrates systematically on the evolution of social attitudes reflected in Argentine movies throughout those years and that assesses the period's impact on subsequent filmmaking activity By analyzing popular Argentine movies from this time through the prism of myth second order communication systems that present historically developed customs and attitudes as natural the book traces the filmic construction of gender criminality race the family sports and the military It identifies in movies the development and evolution of mindsets and attitudes that may be construed as Peronist By framing its consideration of films from the Peron years in the context of earlier and later ones it demonstrates that this period accelerates and sometimes registers backward looking responses to earlier progressive mythic shifts and it traces the development in the 1950s of a critical mindset that comes to fruition in the new cinema of the 1960s Picturing Argentina Myths Movies and the Peronist Vision is an important book for Latin American studies film studies and history collections The Road to Reno Jane M.
