Hollywood Daughters 1 Star Baby:

Star Babies Raymond Strait, 2016-11-20 Being the child of a celebrity is a strange but wonderful experience and STAR BABIES explores this glamorous and sometimes tragic world. It's all here in this book: the fabulous birthday parties, the limousine treatment to school, the lemonade stand set up and supplied by the butler, the Christmas sprees to clean out the toy department. And behind this facade is a history of family trees shattered by the world's. Your father and I are going to get a divorce. strings of schools and adventures with drugs and sex. Shared is a blind adoration for a famous parent tempered by desperate craving for love and attention. These children were the first generation to plant before the moviegoing public the image of Hollywood as a family town. Maternity became marketable and photos of stars with their wholesome families were worth their weight in gold. Image. In Hollywood it is everything. Extraordinary in their candor and diversity, these stories reveal all of their dreams and the delusions that money can buy. No moviegoer should be without this intimate and unique portrait of life behind the silver screen. Includes the children of Mario Lanza, Judy Garland, and Sid Luft. Pat Boone, Tom Mix, Dorothy Lamour, David O. Selznick, Lou Costello, Jack Albertson, Lloyd Bridges, Gordon and Sheila MacRae, Jose Ferrer, and Rosemary Clooney. Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition. Volume one examines the film as film, volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film, volume three draws on the history of film, and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors, sources, and historical information, as well as an index of authors, titles, and film personalities. Hollywood's Children Diana Serra Cary, 1997 Diana Serra Cary's well-wrought empathetic narrative presents the underside of the glittering stage and screen world: frightened children, merchants who buy and sell childhood as a commodity, rapacious stage mothers and fathers whose ambition and avarice make them willing to sacrifice their children to fulfill their own dreams. The first part of the book mines a lode of new information recounting stories of the precursors to Hollywood's child stars and their ambitious parents: the spectacular 1853 stage debut of four-year-old Cordelia Howard, the rise of red-haired Lotta Crabtree in California's Gold Rush camps, and the travails and triumphs of the hoydenish Elsie Janis as she ad libbed her way to stardom. Cary as Baby Peggy, Hollywood's pioneer child star, the youngest in theatrical history, has lived her subject surviving a childhood filled with an enormous workload, some real physical danger, and emotional trauma. She weaves her own story of being her family's chief breadwinner with similar tales involving famous movie children she knew and worked with: Jackie Coogan, Shirley Temple, Mickey Rooney, and Judy Garland among many others. The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry Anthony Slide, 2014-02-25 The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry is a completely revised and updated edition of Anthony Slide's The American Film Industry, originally published in 1986 and recipient of the American Library Association's Outstanding Reference Book award for that year. The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald, 2011-11-11 The obits It's the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who've made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who s who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There s David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe s to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it s a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who ve shaped the world

Dickens Adapted John Glavin, 2017-03-02 From their first appearance in print Dickens s fictions immediately migrated into other media and particularly in his own time to the stage Since then Dickens has continuously apparently inexhaustibly functioned as the wellspring for a robust mini industry sourcing plays films television specials and series operas new novels and even miniature and model villages If in his lifetime he was justly called The Inimitable since his death he has become just the reverse the Infinitely Imitable The essays in this volume all appearing within the past twenty years cover the full spectrum of genres Their major shared claim to attention is their break from earlier mimetic criteria does the film follow the novel to take the new works seriously within their own generic and historical contexts Collectively they reveal an entirely other Dickensian oeuvre which ironically has perhaps made Dickens better known to an audience of non readers than to those who know the books themselves
