Holocaust Testimonies The Ruins Of Memory:

Holocaust Testimonies Lawrence L. Langer, 1991 An analysis of the unique ways in which oral testimony of survivors contributes to our understanding of the Holocaust sheds light on the forms and functions of memory as victims relive devastating experiences of pain humiliation and loss

The Work of Memory Alon Confino, Peter Fritzsche, 2002 Coming to terms with a troubled past is the mark of the modern condition But how does memory operate This powerful collection of original essays probes this question by focusing on Germany where historical trauma and political turbulence over the past century have deeply scarred modern memory and identity Tracing the role of memory in German history between the Reformation and reunification contributors show how memory has a history and the presence of the past has historical context With scholarly zeal and keen insight these essays draw on ghost stories and the postwar fiction of Heinrich Böll among other memory sites escorting the reader through the streets of Alt Hildesheim and the grocery aisles of East Germany By historicizing memory this volume surpasses the efforts of previous memory scholarship in confronting Germany's National Socialist past Standard approaches to memory in modern Germany have explored how the past represents social relations and is commemorated in literature art and personal narrative In taking memory out of the museum and beyond the monument The Work of Memory investigates the ways memory forms social relations and is integral to the construction of identities communities and policies Profound and provocative The Work of Memory contributes to a much needed anthropology of memory in modern Germany

The End of Memory Miroslav Volf, 2021-01-12 Winner of the Christianity Today Book Award in Christianity and Culture How should we remember atrocities Should we ever forgive abusers Can we not hope for final reconciliation even if it means redeemed victims and perpetrators spending eternity together We live in an age that insists that past wrongs genocides terrorist attacks bald personal injustices should never be forgotten But Miroslav Volf here proposes the radical idea that letting go of such memories after a certain point and under certain conditions may be a gift of grace we should embrace Volf's personal stories of persecution and interrogation frame his search for theological resources to make memories a wellspring of healing rather than a source of deepening pain and animosity Controversial thoughtful and incisively reasoned The End of Memory begins a conversation that we avoid to our great detriment This second edition includes an appendix on the memories of perpetrators as well as victims a response to critics and a James K A Smith interview with Volf about the nature and function of memory in the Christian life

Acts of Memory Mieke Bal, Jonathan V. Crewe, Leo Spitzer, 1999 A theoretically grounded interdisciplinary study of cultural memory in sites ranging from Chile Bolivia and South Africa to Germany and the US

Documentary Testimonies

Bhaskar Sarkar, Janet Walker, 2009-12-04 This volume examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action The essays gathered here analyze questions regarding the usefulness and legitimacy of documentary testimony What is the value of the historical archive the televised public hearings or activist online videos constitute Is it made part of the official record or dismissed as renegade or ephemeral To what extent can documentary bring about social change How do the documentary testimonies compensate for or account for the frailty of memory

The Repressed Memory Epidemic Mark Pendergrast, 2017-10-13 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the concept of repressed memories It provides a history and context that documents key events that have had an effect on the way that modern psychology and psychotherapy have developed Chapters provide an overview of how human memory functions and works and examine facets of the misguided theories behind repressed memory The book also examines the science of the brain the reconstructive nature of human memory and studies of suggestibility It traces the present day resurgence of a belief in repressed memories in the general public as well as among many clinical psychologists psychiatrists social workers body workers and others who offer counseling It concludes with legal and professional recommendations and advice for individuals who deal with or have dealt with the psychotherapeutic practice of repressed memory therapy Topics featured in this text include The modern diagnosis of Dissociative Identity Disorder DID once called MPD The Satanic Panic of the 1980s and its relation to repressed memory therapy The McMartin Preschool Case and the Day Care Sex Panic A historical overview from the Great Witch Craze to Sigmund Freud's theories spanning the 16th to 19th centuries An exploration of the cultural context that produced the repressed memory epidemic of the 1990s The repressed memory movement as a religious sect or cult The Repressed Memory Epidemic will be of interest to researchers and clinicians as well as undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of psychology sociology cultural studies religion and anthropology

The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory Stephen D. Smith, 2022-12-30 The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory The Crisis of Testimony in Theory and Practice re considers survivor testimony moving from a subject object reading of the past to a subject subject encounter in the present It explores how testimony evolves in relationship to the life of eyewitnesses across time This book breaks new ground based on three principles The first draws on Martin Buber's I Thou concept transforming the object of history into an encounter between subjects The second employs the Jungian concept of identity whereby the individual internal identity and the persona external identity reframe testimony as an extension of the individual They are a living subject rather than merely a persona or narrative The third principle draws on Daniel Kahneman's concept of the experiencing self which relives events as they occurred and the remembering self which reflects on their meaning in sum Taken together these principles comprise a new literacy of testimony that enables the surviving victim and the listener to enter a relationship of trust Designed for readers of Holocaust history and literature this book defines the modalities of memory witness and testimony It shows how encountering the individual who lived through the past changes how testimony is understood and therefore what it can come to mean Cultural Memory and Western Civilization Aleida

Assmann, 2011-11-14 This book provides an introduction to the concept of cultural memory offering a comprehensive overview of its history forms and functions German Memory Contests Anne Fuchs, Mary Cosgrove, Georg Grote, 2006

Since unification in 1990 Germany has seen a boom in the confrontation with memory evident in a sharp increase in novels films autobiographies and other forms of public discourse that engage with the long term effects of National Socialism across generations Taking issue with the concept of Vergangenheitsbewältigung or coming to terms with the Nazi past which after 1945 guided nearly all debate on the topic the contributors to this volume view contemporary German culture through the more dynamic concept of memory contests which sees all forms of memory public or private as ongoing processes of negotiating identity in the present Touching on gender generations memory and postmemory trauma theory ethnicity historiography and family narrative the contributions offer a comprehensive picture of current German memory debates in so doing shedding light on the struggle to construct a German identity mindful of but not wholly defined by the horrors of National Socialism and the Holocaust Contributors Peter Fritzsche Anne Fuchs Elizabeth Boa Stefan Willer Chloe E M Paver Matthias Fiedler J J Long Dagmar C G Lorenz Cathy S Gelbin Jennifer E Michaels Mary Cosgrove Andrew Plowman Roger Woods Anne Fuchs is Professor of modern German literature and Georg Grote is Lecturer in German history both at University College Dublin Mary Cosgrove is Lecturer in German at the University of Edinburgh Witness and Memory Ana

Douglass, Thomas A. Vogler, 2012-11-12 This is a collection within the anthropology of violence and witness studies a discipline inaugurated in the 1980s It accomplishes a tight focus while tackling seemingly disparate topics from Rigoberta Menchu to O J Simpson and from feminist poetry to Hiroshima Mon Amour With approaches ranging from anthropological and historical to literary and philosophical this collection is engaging in both subject matter and writing style Matters of Testimony Nicholas Chare, Dominic Williams, 2015-12-01 In 1944 members of the Sonderkommando the special squads composed almost exclusively of Jewish prisoners who ensured the smooth operation of the gas chambers and had firsthand knowledge of the extermination process buried on the grounds of Auschwitz Birkenau a series of remarkable eyewitness accounts of Nazi genocide This careful and penetrating study examines anew these Scrolls of Auschwitz which were gradually recovered in damaged and fragmentary form in the years following the camp's liberation It painstakingly reconstructs their historical context and textual content revealing complex literary works that resist narrow moral judgment and engage difficult questions about the limits of testimony Creating Memory and Cultural Identity in African American Trauma Fiction Patricia San José Rico, 2019-03-19 How do contemporary African American authors relate trauma memory and the recovery of the past with the processes of cultural and identity formation in African American communities Patricia San Jos analyses a variety of novels by authors like Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor and David Bradley and explores these works as valuable instruments for the disclosure giving voice and public recognition of African American collective and historical trauma

Tracing Silences Ana Dragojlovic, Annemarie Samuels, 2023-06-06 Silence is crucial to our social world Responding to the growing scholarly interest in social sciences and humanities for more in depth engagements with social silence this book explores what it means to trace silences and to include traces of silences in our scholarly representations What qualifies as silence and how does it relate to articulation to voice visibility and representation How can silences be sensed and experienced viscerally as well as narratively And how do we think with and interpret silences in the face of potential unknowability Grounded in ethnographic research in the Netherlands Israel Turkey China and Indonesia the chapters all contribute to a theorization of silence that embraces multivocality unintelligibility and uncertainty of interpretation As a collection of cutting edge scholarly work at the intersection of anthropology and history Tracing Silences argues for an in depth engagement with the unspeakable and unspoken through a range of modes and methods and in the historical social and political ways in which they emerge and are enacted in the particularities of people s lives This book will be of interest to scholars and students of history anthropology sociology political science and archival studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of History and Anthropology

Memory and Migration Julia Creet, Andreas Kitzmann, 2014-02-24 Memory plays an integral part in how individuals and societies construct their identity While memory is usually considered in the context of a stable unchanging environment this collection of essays explores the effects of immigration forced expulsions exile banishment and war on individual and collective memory The ways in which memory affects cultural representation and historical understanding across generations is examined through case studies and theoretical approaches that underscore its mutability Memory and Migration is a truly interdisciplinary book featuring the work of leading scholars from a variety of fields across the globe The essays are collaborative successfully responding to the central theme and expanding upon the findings of individual authors A groundbreaking contribution to an emerging field of study Memory and Migration provides valuable insight into the connections between memory place and displacement

History and Memory after Auschwitz Dominick LaCapra, 2018-09-05 The relations between memory and history have recently become a subject of contention and the implications of that debate are particularly troubling for aesthetic ethical and political issues Dominick LaCapra focuses on the interactions among history memory and ethicopolitical concerns as they emerge in the aftermath of the Shoah Particularly notable are his analyses of Albert Camus s novella The Fall Claude Lanzmann s film Shoah and Art Spiegelman s comic book Maus LaCapra also considers the Historians Debate in the aftermath of German reunification and the role of psychoanalysis in historical understanding and critical theory In six essays LaCapra addresses a series of related questions Are there experiences whose traumatic nature blocks understanding and disrupts memory while producing belated effects that have an impact on attempts to address the past Do some events present moral and representational issues even for groups or individuals not directly involved in them Do those more directly involved have special responsibilities to the past and the way it is remembered in the present Can or should historiography define itself in a purely scholarly and professional way that distances it from public memory and its ethical implications Does art itself have a special responsibility with respect to traumatic events that remain invested with value and emotion

Eduardo Halfon and the Itinerary of Memory Marilyn G. Miller, 2024-09-30 Arguably all of Guatemalan writer Eduardo Halfon's fictional works deal with quandaries of translation even in their original versions The award winning author of fifteen books claims to have lost his mother tongue when his family fled to the United States after his tenth birthday This displacement echoing the displacement of his four grandparents from different corners of the Jewish diaspora to Guatemala gives Halfon like his ancestors before him good reason to consider translation a natural environment for his creative work and for life itself Indeed Halfon's uncanny ability to translate his family's history into fictions that resonate across the globe with readers in Spanish English and several other languages helps explain why he has received numerous prizes in the United States Spain Guatemala and even France some as a Latin American author others as a Latino or Jewish author Marilyn G Miller has written the first study to focus exclusively on this important voice in Jewish Latin American letters Only after returning to Guatemala and regaining his command of Spanish through reading literature did Halfon begin to build his life as a writer and translator Nonetheless the author admits that one thing is stubbornly true and it's this every sentence that I write every verb or adjective that I painstakingly insert or remove every literary thought that I have while writing always begins and ends in English Halfon's translated works are never parallel texts however Thus translation and its side effects foreign words linguistic lacunae multilingual modes of perception offer us crucial keys to understanding the author's fictional world as a vehicle for retelling and surviving Jewish trauma and finding his own particular plurilingual voice

An Archive of the Catastrophe Jennifer Cazenave, 2019-05-31 Honorable Mention 2020 Best First Book Award presented by the Society for Cinema and Media Studies Claude Lanzmann's 1985 magnum opus Shoah is a canonical documentary on the Holocaust and in film history Over the course of twelve years Lanzmann gathered 230 hours of location filming and interviews with survivors witnesses and perpetrators which he condensed into a 91 2 hour film The unused footage was scattered and inaccessible for years before it was restored and digitized by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum In An Archive of the Catastrophe Jennifer Cazenave presents the first comprehensive study of this collection She argues that the outtakes pose a major challenge to the representational and theoretical paradigms produced by the documentary while offering new meanings of Shoah and of Holocaust testimony writ large They lend fresh insight into issues raised by the film including questions of resistance rescue refugees and above all gender Lanzmann's twenty hours of interviews with women make up a mere ten minutes of the finished documentary As a rare instance of outtakes preserved during the predigital era of cinema this unused footage challenges us to establish a new critical framework for understanding how documentaries are constructed and reshapes the way we view this key Holocaust film To view the book trailer on YouTube please go to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bBjUWyAn55g>

Commonplace Witnessing Bradford Vivian, 2017-06-13 Commonplace Witnessing examines how citizens politicians and civic institutions have adopted idioms of witnessing in recent decades to serve a variety of social political and moral ends The book encourages us to continue expanding and diversifying our normative assumptions about which historical subjects bear witness and how they do so Commonplace Witnessing presupposes that witnessing in modern public culture is a broad and inclusive rhetorical act that many different types of historical subjects now think and speak of themselves as witnesses and that the rhetoric of witnessing can be mundane formulaic or popular instead of rare and refined This study builds upon previous literary philosophical psychoanalytic and theological studies of its subject matter in order to analyze witnessing instead as a commonplace form of communication and as a prevalent mode of influence regarding the putative realities and lessons of historical injustice or tragedy It thus weighs both the uses and disadvantages of witnessing as an ordinary feature of modern public life

Trauma and the Memory of Politics Jenny Edkins, 2003-07-31 In this interesting study Jenny Edkins explores how we remember traumatic events such as wars famines genocides and terrorism and questions the assumed role of commemorations as simply reinforcing state and nationhood Taking examples from the World Wars Vietnam the Holocaust Kosovo and September 11th Edkins offers a thorough discussion of practices of memory such as memorials museums remembrance ceremonies the diagnosis of post traumatic stress and the act of bearing witness She examines the implications of these commemorations in terms of language political power sovereignty and nationalism She argues that some forms of remembering do not ignore the horror of what happened but rather use memory to promote change and to challenge the political systems that produced the violence of wars and genocides in the first place This wide ranging study embraces literature history politics and international relations and makes a significant contribution to the study of memory
