Holocaust In Hebrew Literature From Genocide To Rebirth:

The Holocaust in Hebrew Literature, from Genocide to Rebirth Alan J. Yuter, 1983 Literature of the Holocaust Alan Rosen, 2013-11-14 During and in the aftermath of the dark period of the Holocaust writers across Europe and America sought to express their feelings and experiences through their writings This book provides a comprehensive account of these writings through essays from expert scholars covering a wide geographic linguistic thematic and generic range of materials Such an overview is particularly appropriate at a time when the corpus of Holocaust literature has grown to immense proportions and when guidance is needed in determining a canon of essential readings a context to interpret them and a paradigm for the evolution of writing on the Holocaust The expert contributors to this volume who negotiate the literature in the original languages provide insight into the influence of national traditions and the importance of language especially but not exclusively Yiddish and Hebrew to the literary response arising from the Holocaust The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance Sexual Violence Against Jewish Women During the Holocaust Sonja Maria Hedgepeth, Rochelle G. Saidel, 2010 The first book in English to specifically address the sexual violation of Jewish women during the Holocaust

Fragments of Hell Dvir Abramovich, 2019-06-03 In this compelling and engaging book Dvir Abramovich introduces readers to several landmark novels poems and stories that have become classics in the Israeli Holocaust canon Discussed are iconic writers such as Aharon Appelfeld Dan Pagis Etgar Keret Yoram Kaniuk Uri Tzvi Greenberg and Ka Tzetnik and their attempts to come to terms with the unprecedented trauma and its aftereffects Scholarly yet deeply accessible to both students and to the public this illuminating volume offers a wide ranging introduction to the intersection between literature and the Shoah and the linguistic stylistic and ethical difficulties inherent in representing this catastrophe in fiction Exploring narratives by survivors and by those who wrote about the European genocide from a distance each chapter contains a compassionate and thoughtful analysis of the author's individual opus accompanied by a comprehensive exploration of their biography and the major themes that underpin their corpus The rich and sophisticated discussions and interpretations contained in this masterful set of essays are sure to become essential reading for those seeking to better understand the responses by Hebrew writers to the immense tragedy that befell their people The Shriek of Silence David Patterson, 2014-07-15 In the Holocaust novel silence is always a character and the word is always its subject matter So writes David Patterson in this profound and original study of more than thirty important writers Contrary to existing views he argues the Holocaust novel is not an attempt to depict an unimaginable reality or an ineffable horror It is rather an endeavor to fetch the word from silence and restore it to meaning to resurrect the human soul to regenerate the relation between the self and God the self and other the self and itself This book is less a critical study in the usual sense than an impassioned meditation on the deeper sources of the Holocaust novel Among the authors examined are Elie Wiesel Arnost Lustig Aharon Appelfeld Katzetnik 135633 Primo Levi Yehuda Amichai Piotr Rawicz A Anatoli Saul Bellow I B Singer Anna Langfus Rachmil Bryks and Ilse Aichinger The Shriek of Silence is a first in several respects the first to examine the Holocaust novels in their original languages the first to articulate a theoretical basis for its approach and the first phenomenological investigation one that attempts to penetrate the process of creation for these novelists Organized along conceptual lines the book examines the word in exile the themes of death of the father and the child transformations of the self and the implications of the reader Its philosophical foundations are Rosenzweig Buber Neher and Levinas Its critical approach is shaped by Bakhtin The novelists of the Holocaust in witnessing through their words regain their voices and in so doing are reborn By probing the depths of their struggle Patterson s study draws us too toward a higher understanding perhaps even our own rebirth

Methodology in the Academic Teaching of the Holocaust (Studies in Judaism) Zev Garber, Alan L. Berger, Richard Libowitz, 1988-05-31 A companion volume to Methodology in the Academic Teaching of Judaism UPA 1987 this book seeks to address the central issues of human life and meaning in the post Holocaust world Though representing a variety of disciplines and religious backgrounds the authors are united by a fundamental recognition that after the Holocaust the entire enterprise of being human has been called into serious question Co published with Studies in Judaism

Suffering as Identity Esther Benbassa, 2020-05-05 Reaching from biblical times to the present day Esther Benbassa s prize winning exploration of Jewish identity is both epic and comprehensive She shows how in the Jewish world the representation and ritualization of suffering have shaped the history of both the people and the religion Benbassa argues that the nineteenth century gave rise to a Jewish lachrymose historiography and that Jewish history was increasingly seen to be a vale of tears a development that has become even more pronounced since the Holocaust The treatment of the Holocaust in the State of Israel now has the form of a civil religion In principle within reach of everyone the duty of memory and the uniqueness of the genocide have mitigated for many Jews the loss of other traditions The Israeli government invokes the memory of the Holocaust to neutralize threats to its interests ensuring that suffering continues to be a central part of Jewish identity and positioning the State of Israeli as a redemptive force

Stealth Altruism Arthur B. Shostak, 2017-07-12 Though it has been nearly seventy years since the Holocaust the human capacity for evil displayed by its perpetrators is still shocking and haunting But the story of the Nazi attempt to annihilate European Jewry is not all we should remember Stealth Altruism tells of secret non militant high risk efforts by Carers those victims who tried to reduce suffering and improve everyone s chances of survival Their empowering acts of altruism remind us of our inherent longing to do good even in situations of extraordinary brutality Arthur B Shostak explores forbidden acts of kindness such as sharing scarce clothing and food rations holding up weakened fellow prisoners during roll call secretly replacing an ailing friend in an exhausting work detail and much more He explores the motivation behind this dangerous behavior how it differed when in or out of sight who provided or undermined forbidden care the differing experiences of men and women how and why gentiles provided aid and most importantly how might the costly obscurity of stealth altruism soon be corrected To date memorialization has emphasized what was done to victims and sidelined what victims tried to do for one another Carers provide an inspiring model and their perilous efforts should be recognized and taught alongside the horrors of the Holocaust Humanity needs such inspiration Literary Responses to Catastrophe Rubina Perroomian,1993 Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs,2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries include detailed biographical information as well as expert analytical interpretation Work entries discuss each work in detail and include a critical essay written by an expert in the field Value added features include chronologies further reading lists and nationality concentration camp and title indexes Encyclopedia of the Holocaust Israel Gutman,1995 Jewish Literature for Children Cheryl Silberberg Grossman,Suzy Engman,1985 The Shadow of Death Moshe Pelli,2008 The Shadow of Death Letters in Flames is an analytical study of eight major Jewish and Israeli writers who wrote about the experience of the Shoah Holocaust The book is divided into two main sections The first section The Holocaust Experience from Within analyzes literary works by the writers Aharon Appelfeld Elie Wiesel Primo Levi Katzetnik and Jerzy Kosinski who experienced the Holocaust firsthand The second section is devoted to After the Holocaust Experience from Without concentrating mainly on the literary analysis of works by writers who responded to the Holocaust after the event They are the Israeli writers Hanoach Bartov Hayim Gouri and Yehuda Amichai The book is literary oriented with a prominent focus on textual and literary analysis of major examples of Holocaust literature It purports to examine the texts under study and analyze them by pointing out literary devices that indicate the writers perception of the Holocaust and their attempt to convey the meaning and significance of the Holocaust to the modern reader Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 The Cumulative Book Index ,1984 A world list of books in the English language Samuel Joseph Agnon Isaac Goldberg,1996 Israel's Failed Response to the Armenian Genocide Israel W. Charny,2021-04-27 When the Turkish government demanded the cancellation of all lectures on the Armenian Genocide at Israel s First International Conference on the Holocaust and Genocide and that Armenian lecturers not be allowed to participate the Israeli government followed suit This book follows the author s gutsy campaign against his government and his quest to successfully hold the conference in the face of censorship A political whodunit based on previously secret Israel Foreign Ministry cables this book investigates Israel's overall tragically unjust relationship to genocides of other peoples The book also closely examines the figures of Elie Wiesel and Shimon Peres in their interference with the recognition of other peoples genocidal tragedies particularly the Armenian Genocide Additional chapters by three prominent leaders a fearless Turk who has paid a huge price in Turkish jails Ragıp Zarakolu a renowned Armenian American who was one of the earliest writers on the Armenian Genocide Richard Hovannisian and a Jew who was responsible for the selection of all the materials in the pathbreaking U S Holocaust Museum in Washington Michael Berenbaum provide added perspectives

Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff, 2022-12-06 In Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff traces the emergence of a new Jewish literature in Germany and Austria from 1990 to the present The rise of new generations of authors who identify as both German and Jewish and who often sustain additional affiliations with places such as France Russia or Israel affords a unique opportunity to analyze the foundational moments of diasporic literature Making German Jewish Literature Anew is structured around a series of founding gestures performing authorship remaking memory and claiming places Garloff contends that these founding gestures are literary strategies that reestablish the very possibility of a German Jewish literature several decades after the Holocaust Making German Jewish Literature Anew offers fresh interpretations of second generation authors such as Maxim Biller Doron Rabinovici and Barbara Honigmann as well as of third generation authors many of whom come from Eastern European and or mixed religion backgrounds These more recent writers include Benjamin Stein Lena Gorelik and Katja Petrowskaja Throughout the book Garloff asks what exactly marks a given text as Jewish the author's identity intended audience thematic concerns or stylistic choices and reflects on existing definitions of Jewish literature
