Visions and Revisions

Robert Burr, Barry Wallenstein, 2001-10-04 This anthology takes a unique approach to the process of poetry Each poem included in the book is followed by at least one earlier draft or version of that poem The reader is thus able to explore the development of the poet's vision and to make a variety of historical aesthetic and intellectual comparisons The poets represented have been chosen both on the basis of the aesthetic strength of their work and on the grounds of the availability of previous versions of their work The inclusion of a number of selections by poets ranging from Dickinson and Yeats to Larkin Plath and P K Page allows readers to focus in some depth on the work of these poets Though the anthology makes no claim to present a selection fully representative of different eras regions or poetic styles the inclusion of a miscellany as a final chapter adds a substantial measure of breadth to the anthology Each chapter includes brief commentary by the editors and questions follow each set of poems

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century
