Citizen Participation in Non-profit Governance Sondra Z. Koff, 2017-09-08 Nonprofit organizations their governing structures boards of directors and their newest constituency members who represent the public at large are the subject of this book In recent years new mechanisms have been developed to link citizens with government and with diverse policy making entities Earlier it was assumed that citizens had little interest in policy deliberations and responsibility for public needs was best left to the experts Many citizens now believe that they have a legitimate right to influence how power is exercised in public organizations Koff constructs a demographic profile of public members their activities and their opinions about board membership She also catalogues the perspectives of executive directors about public members identifies specific problems related to public participation and suggests strategies to help resolve them How effectively these bodies perform and how well they respond to the public are in part determined by the talents and activities of their members All of these members especially public members need appropriate tools to be able to perform in a superior fashion Despite the importance of governing bodies to an organization's performance there has been little examination of board members in general and specifically of public members This is the first book length study on the subject

Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Barry Dym, Harry Hutson, 2005-01-04 Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations is about exemplary leadership as found in both corporate and nonprofit organizations Taking a fresh approach to the study of leadership the authors perform research in nonprofits both to understand and appreciate their complexities and to reach conclusions about the nature of leadership in any context including for profit and governmental entities Features and Benefits Case studies of nonprofit leadership that affirm public minded mission driven leaders and acknowledge their contributions Critical review of literature on leadership that encourages diversity in leadership models and approaches Chapters on leadership constructs such as fit dynamics readiness and flow that provide useful insights and methods to enable success Overarching concept of alignment that reframes leadership as an active process where the awareness of and response to the interplay of multiple relevant factors matters more than charisma pedigree or power Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations is an ideal core text for graduate courses in nonprofit leadership It could be used as a supplementary text in graduate courses in organization development and leadership as well as courses in community development human ecology and human services In addition practitioners managers and nonprofit organizational
