

County Governments

- Texas has the largest number (254) of county governments in the United States
 - Originally intended as an “arm” of state government, county governments also provide local services; but in Texas, the services provided are typically very limited—primarily road construction and police protection
 - In some states urban counties are major providers of urban services, such as fire protection; but in Texas, this is usually handled by city governments
- In Texas, 59% of the population lives in the 10 largest urban counties
