Governor Nelson A Rockefeller Empire State Art Collection And Plaza Memorials:

The Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller Empire State Plaza Art Collection and Plaza Memorials Dennis R. Anderson, Glenn D. Lowry, 2002 Nelson A Rockefeller one of the greatest art patrons of the recent past and as yet unheralded for the extraordinary legacy he left behind had an inspired vision for New York State's capital While governor of the state from 1959-1973 he undertook what was at the time the most ambitious public art project ever conceived one which set the standard for public funding in the arts The result of this ambitious project was an unrivaled collection of modern and contemporary art which boasts nearly 100 works of art all of which are in public view in Albany The collection includes work by Jackson Pollock Mark Rothko Helen Frankenthaler Donald Judd Ellsworth Kelly David Smith Robert Motherwell and many other important artists The beautifully illustrated volume which features six 4 page gatefolds includes expert essays by major scholars and curators including John Elderfield Robert Storr and Pepe Karmel all of The Museum of Modern Art Glenn Lowry current director of The Museum of Modern Art contributes a substantive essay on the collection and Rockefeller's extraordinary efforts to form it The second essay written by the collection's curator offers the first in-depth look at the politics surrounding the formation of the collection

The Encyclopedia of New York State Peter Eisenstadt, 2005-05-19 The Encyclopedia of New York State is one of the most complete works on the Empire State to be published in a half century In nearly 2 000 pages and 4 000 signed entries this single volume captures the impressive complexity of New York State as a historic crossroads of people and ideas as a cradle of abolitionism and feminism and as an apex of modern urban suburban and rural life The Encyclopedia is packed with fascinating details from fields ranging from sociology and geography to history Did you know that Manhattan's Lower East Side was once the most populated neighborhood in the world but Hamilton County in the Adirondacks is the least densely populated county east of the Mississippi New York is the only state to border both the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean the Erie Canal opened New York City to rich farmland upstate and to the west Entries by experts chronicle New York's varied areas politics and persuasions with a cornucopia of subjects from environmentalism to higher education to railroads weaving the state's diverse regions and peoples into one idea of New York State Lavishly illustrated with 500 photographs and figures 120 maps and 140 tables the Encyclopedia is key to understanding the state's past present and future It is a crucial reference for students teachers historians and business people for New Yorkers of all persuasions and for anyone interested in finding out more about New York State

Abstract Painting and the Minimalist Critiques Matthew L. Levy, 2019-05-07 This book undertakes a critical reappraisal of Minimalism through an examination of three key painters Robert Mangold David Novros and Jo Baer By establishing their substantive engagements with Minimalist discourse as well as their often overlooked artistic exchanges with their sculptor peers it demonstrates that painting crucially informed the movement's development serving not only as an object of critique but also as a crucible for its most central tenets It also poses broader disciplinary implications as it historicizes and challenges Minimalism's death of painting

Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 Capitol Story, Third Edition C. R. Roseberry, Diana S. Waite, 2014-12-05 A lavishly illustrated history of New York's Capitol and its recent renovation The New York State Capitol sits majestically at the head of Albany's State Street a masterpiece of civic architecture and decorative design Built between 1867 and 1899 it was the work of four architects Thomas Fuller Leopold Eidlitz Henry Hobson Richardson and Isaac Perry who labored under geologically difficult structurally challenging and politically exasperating conditions The building is also the product of hundreds of highly skilled masons and exceptional stone carvers It is a feat of architectural design and engineering expertise with superlatively executed interior features and finishes First published in 1964 and reissued in 1982 C R Roseberry's Capitol Story tells the fascinating story of the Capitol's design and construction This revised and expanded edition includes new information based on research done over the past twenty years and brings the story up to date with a new chapter on the extensive interior and exterior restorations that were completed in 2013 The book also includes scores of new specially commissioned full color photographs notes and an index Capitol Story will appeal to a wide audience young and old New Yorkers and visitors architecture and history buffs More importantly it will help build an educated constituency for the Capitol one that will understand and be prepared to preserve the building in the years to come C R Roseberry's Capitol Story published in 1964 gave us a marvelous history of the anguished thirty year building of the New York State Capitol a cavalcade of political clashes over its ever escalating cost rampant graft public scorn a battle royal among its eminent architects yet a project that overrode all fury and became the most grandiose capitol in America Now half a century later Diana S Waite has enhanced Roseberry's history meticulously detailing the Capitol's restoration after fire water aging and piecemeal changes marred its beauty and functionality The book is elegantly designed with exquisite new color photos by Gary David Gold a grand documentation of a great American work of art William Kennedy This third edition of Capitol Story brings the history of one of New York State's most important landmarks full circle from its tumultuous thirty year construction through a devastating fire in 1911 to its recently completed world class restoration Along the way we are treated to the stories of the politicians the architects the craftspeople and the preservationists that have created and preserved what many regard to be a state capitol like no other in the nation Every student of New York architecture and preservation should know this story Jay A DiLorenzo President Preservation League of New York State Capitol Story recounts the continuing saga of the people who planned designed built renovated and restored the New York State Capitol and Governor Nelson A Rockefeller Empire State Plaza Spanning more than 200 years this book succinctly traces the political economic artistic and innovative decisions made over time to create and maintain a government complex befitting New York State Recent scholarship contemporary photographs and a new chapter on restoration efforts bring this story to the present Tammi K Groft Executive Director Albany Institute of
