Grace in Action Terry Carney, Christina Spahn, 1994 Love in Action Albert Vanhoye, 2013 This brief work revisits two conferences given by Cardinal Vanhoye during the first international meeting on charismatic renewal organized in Asia in May 2009 This meeting took place in South Korea in Kkottongnae the village of flowers in Korean where a new community has been established composed of all walks of life that exhibit an apostolic activity in numerous fields particularly the service of the poor The author analyzes the texts of Saint Paul on charisms and charity and shows how they must come together in the life of the Spirit He explains how to enter into a true putting into practice of the commandment of love given by God He touches on two points in particular the question of the link between charisms and love then on the link between love and action which permits him to clarify the place to give to works in the Christian life Finally in drawing from communion the strength to love he shows how to live the Eucharist that is continued in each of our days Perfecting Perfection Robert Webster, 2016-07-28 Henry D Rack is one of the most profound historians of the Methodist movement in modern times He has spent a lifetime researching and writing about the rise and significance of John Wesley and his Methodist followers in the eighteenth century and has also uncovered the historical significance of the Methodist Church in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Collected in Perfecting Perfection are thirteen essays honouring the life and scholarship of Dr Rack from a host of international scholars in the field The topics range from Wesley's view of grace in the eighteenth century to the dynamic intersection of the Methodist and Tractarian movements in the nineteenth century Ultimately the collection of essays offered here in honour of Dr Rack will be engaging and provocative to those considering Methodist Studies in the present and future generations Saved, Delivered, and Healed Tony Richie, 2022-08-30 Should a Christian doctrine of salvation be concerned with this life or the life to come With forgiveness of sins or deliverance of sinners With the saving of the soul or the healing of the body Should it focus on the person and work of Jesus Christ or on the presence and power of Holy Spirit To all these questions and more Tony Richie's Saved Delivered and Healed Introducing a Pentecostal Doctrine of Salvation answers Yes Then it proceeds to present from the Scriptures from Pentecostal theology and spirituality and from decades of pastoral and personal experiences and academic insights an energetic and holistic view of salvation grounded in the wisdom goodness and power of God Its constant focus is God's ultimate redemptive purpose in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit for the lives of real human beings living in the real world If you have ever wondered what Christian salvation actually means and how it actually works then this book is for you Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division , Many Gifts One Lord Harley H. Clemency Nabushawo, Idara Otu, 2020-12-15 Essays originating from the Pan African Catholic Congress on Theology Society and Pastoral Life held at Bigard Memorial Seminary Enugu Nigeria from 5-8 December 2019 Being in Action Paul T. Nimmo, 2011-02-24 This book investigates the way in which the actualistic ontology i.e. the fact that God and human agents are beings in act in a covenant relationship that underlies the Church Dogmatics of Karl Barth affects his conception of ethical agency. It analyses this effect along three paths of inquiry: knowing what is right (the noetic dimension), doing what is right (the ontic dimension) and achieving what is right (the telic dimension). The first section of the book explores the discipline of theological ethics as Barth construes it both in its theoretical status and in its actual practice. In the second section the ontological import of ethical agency for Barth is considered in relation to the divine action and the divine command. The final section of the book examines the teleological purpose envisaged in this theological ethics in terms of participation, witness and glorification. At each stage of the book the strong interconnectedness of theological ethics and actualistic ontology in the Church Dogmatics is drawn out. The resultant appreciation of the actualistic dimension which underlies the theological ethics of Karl Barth feeds into a fruitful engagement with a variety of critiques of Barth's conception of ethical agency. It is demonstrated that resources can be found within this actualistic ontology to answer some of the diverse criticisms and that attempts to revise Barth's theological ethics at the margins would have catastrophic and irreversible consequences for his whole theological project.

Grace in Action: Exegesis and Application of 2 Peter 3:18 Pastor Yves Gerard, Grace in Action: Exegesis and Application of 2 Peter 3:18 delves into the profound call to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This verse though simple in wording carries immense theological weight, urging believers toward a lifelong pursuit of spiritual maturity. Through careful exegesis, this book unpacks the context of Peter's final exhortation, exploring its implications in both personal faith and communal Christian living. What does it truly mean to grow in grace? Is it merely receiving God's unmerited favor, or does it demand a transformation of heart, mind, and action? This study bridges ancient wisdom with modern application, guiding readers through the depth of divine grace not as a passive gift but as an active force shaping our walk with Christ. Whether you are a scholar, a minister, or a believer seeking deeper understanding, this book will challenge you to live out grace dynamically. In a world desperate for authenticity, Grace in Action calls you to embody the grace you have received, illuminating a path of wisdom, faith, and unwavering devotion.
