Graeae Plays 1 New Plays Redefining Disability:

Graeae Plays 1 Jenny Sealey, 2002 A unique and ground breaking collection of plays Disability Theatre and Modern Drama Kirsty Johnston, 2016-04-21 Bertolt Brecht's silent Kattrin in Mother Courage or the disability performance lessons of his Peachum in The Threepenny Opera Tennessee Williams limping Laura Wingfield in The Glass Menagerie and hard of hearing Bodey in A Lovely Sunday for Creve Coeur Samuel Beckett's blind Hamm and his physically disabled parents Nagg and Nell in Endgame these and many further examples attest to disability's critical place in modern drama This Companion explores how disability performance studies and theatre practice provoke new debate about the place of disability in these works The book traces the local and international processes and tensions at play in disability theatre and offers a critical investigation of the challenges its aesthetics pose to mainstream and traditional practice The book's first part surveys disability theatre's primary principles critical terms internal debates and key challenges to theatre practice Examining specific disability theatre productions of modern drama it also suggests how disability has been re envisaged and embodied on stage In the book's second part leading disability studies scholars and disability theatre practitioners analyse and creatively re imagine modern drama demonstrating how disability aesthetics press practitioners and scholars to rethink these works in generative valuable and timely ways New South African Plays Beverley Naidoo, Sibusiso Mamba, Mike Van Graan, James Whyllie, Rehane Abrahams, Ashwin Singh, 2019-04-02 A collection of six plays dealing with the new South Africa published in 2006 to celebrate 10 years of democracy post apartheid Plays about racial conflict the impact of AIDS power and corruption the legacy of the past and female identity Reprinted 2012 2019 The Plays The Playground by Beverly Naidoo it floats on a haunting echoing raft of traditional South African harmonies that make watching it a joyful experience as well as a thought provoking one Time Out Critics Choice Pick of the Year Taxi by Sibusiso Mamba Edinburgh fringe first winner a superbly written and produced play A fine piece of work that's refreshingly free of clichés Daily Mail Pick of the Week Green Man Flashing by Mike Van Graan This finely crafted drama tears at the heart and soul of our democracy and rips at the underbelly of corruption and political power through its astute writing Star Tonight Rejoice by James Whyllie the cruellest irony of all is left until the end the same one which has spelled the death of Rejoice And millions more Friends of BBC Radio 3 What the Water Gave Me by Rehane Abrahams tales that retrieve ancient magics and reveal contemporary terrors Cape Times To House by Ashwin Singh Finalist in the 2003 PANSAP Performing Arts Network of SA Festival of Reading of New Writing the country's foremost playwriting contest To House is an important piece of theatre in it people voice opinions that are uncomfortable and edgy The cathartic and therapeutic value of hearing these things said aloud in a public place is part of our essential healing process and proves once again that art has the ability to go where angels fear to tread Daily News Durban Theatre and Disability Petra Kuppers, 2017-11-10 This succinct and engaging text examines the complex relationship between theatre and disability bringing together a wide variety of performance examples in order to explore theatrical disability through the conceptual frameworks of disability as spectacle narrative and experience Accessible and affordable this is an ideal resource for theatre students and lovers everywhere

The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Women on Stage Jan Sewell, Clare Smout, 2020-04-29 This book brings together nearly 40 academics and theatre practitioners to chronicle and celebrate the courage determination and achievements of women on stage across the ages and around the globe The collection stretches from ancient Greece to present day Australasia via the United States Soviet Russia Europe India South Africa and Japan offering a series of analytical snapshots of women performers their work and the conditions in which they produced it Individual chapters provide in depth consideration of specific moments in time and geography while the volume as a whole and its juxtapositions stimulate consideration of the bigger picture underlining the challenges women have faced across cultures in establishing themselves as performers and the range of ways in which they gained access to the stage Organised chronologically the volume looks not just to the past but the future it challenges the very notions of history stage and even the definition of women itself

Disability, Avoidance and the Academy David Bolt, Claire Penketh, 2017-07-14 Disability is a widespread phenomenon indeed a potentially universal one as life expectancies rise Within the academic world it has relevance for all disciplines yet is often dismissed as a niche market or someone else's domain This collection explores how academic avoidance of disability studies and disability theory is indicative of social prejudice and highlights conversely how the academy can and does engage with disability studies This innovative book brings together work in the humanities and the social sciences and draws on the riches of cultural diversity to challenge institutional and disciplinary avoidance Divided into three parts the first looks at how educational institutions and systems implicitly uphold double standards which can result in negative experiences for staff and students who are disabled The second part explores how disability studies informs and improves a number of academic disciplines from social work to performance arts The final part shows how more diverse cultural engagement offers a way forward for the academy demonstrating ways in which we can make more explicit the interdisciplinary significance of disability studies and by extension disability theory activism experience and culture

Disability Avoidance and the Academy Challenging Resistance will interest students and scholars of disability studies education studies and cultural studies

Counterculture UK - a celebration Mark Sheerin, Coco Khan, Susan Murray, Mark Edward, Penny Pepper, Paul Quinn, Hayley Foster Da Silva, Ellen Cheshire, Charlie Oughton, Simon Smith, Jack Bright, Ben Graham, Em Ayson, Tim Burrows, Tim Garrett, Bella Qvist, 2015-11-11 What is counterculture It s an alternative lifestyle The ideas that spread a revolution A movement that changes the world This new collection of essays celebrates the incredible originality of British post war culture British Art film theatre dance literature and music have attracted international recognition from the Angry Young Men to the Sex Pistols to Grayson Perry Now gaming the internet and social media enable creative communities to flourish and either fight for social justice or just be entertained Can we find the creative inspiration to succeed in a post capitalist future a wonderfully scholarly readable and useful treat on the perils of labelling culture Helen Lederer Comedienne It is the delinquents deviants and subversive Counterculturalists that embody the true grittiness of British Culture Subversive and volatile beings of anarchy freeing the masses from the commodification of commercialised expression Lurking in the margins Mark Edwards in Counterculture UK A Celebration expresses the liberated and reactionary nature of dance to mainstream culture through his euphoric exploration of free expression movement and identity A sensitive reflection of the youth within the northern powerhouse during socially and politically turbulent times that hyperextends itself to our present day discourses As dance is digitised through meme and viral media so to does the Counterculturalist constantly dancing their own revolution and liberating those who dare to be free in expression Kristian Gath QWERTY Theatre This is a good introduction to a diverse range of topics some of which of course will hold more interest than others but I think overall most are dealt with in a knowledgeable and capable way The writers know the subjects well enough that they can provide a clear overview as well as zoom in on the specific events or people who drove the movement or changes within the different fields and I like that we get different voices for each chapter There is nothing new or revolutionary in the book and the examples provided for most of the topics would be well known to the point of mainstream to most people but I still rather enjoyed reading the individual essays and seeing it in a context where the impact of certain events are shown on a variety of different stages The book can be used as a short starter to the different subjects If you want to delve deeper there is not much help in the book but as long as you are aware of that from the outset I doubt it will disappoint JBM 1776 Amazon 100 Reviewer I found it interesting when the author questioned the idea of whether counter culture declines when it becomes the culture and is therefore no longer pushing against anything I also enjoyed the way the author reminded the reader that the new technology of today s world really helps give space for people to explore their interests fantasies and share them with

others I wonder where that will take us in the future Gemma Raishbrook Amazon 50 Women in Theatre Katie Mitchell, Lynn Nottage, Marsha Norman, Jude Kelly, Winsome Pinnock, 2024-10-21 Since 1660 when actresses first began performing on the English stage women have forged bright careers in theatre while men called the shots Four hundred years of women playwrights from Aphra Behn to Caryl Churchill yet plays by women make up less than a quarter of staged productions in the UK leading to a lack of central roles for women At a time when many theatres have closed their doors and others are looking to re open will they choose to move with the times or fall back on the safety of a tired repertoire With an overview of influential women in post war theatre and 25 exclusive interviews with leading women theatre makers this book inspires us to create a truly equal and inclusive theatre today Interviews with Denise Gough Vicky Ireland Jude Kelly Bryony Lavery Katie Mitchell Marsha Norman Lynn Nottage Winsome Pinnock Emma Rice Daryl Roth and many more Beyond Victims and Villains Victoria Lewis, 2006 First major anthology of dramatic work dealing with disabilities Warrior Square Nick Wood, 2004 Winner of The Brother Grimm Prize Berlin The exciting story of a brother and sister s escape to England Persecuted for being different Andrea and Riva are forced to flee their homeland and now they must learn to live in a country very different from their own Staging Motherhood J. Komporaly, 2006-10-31 Focusing on post 1956 British women playwrights this book questions to what extent transformations in women s lives have impacted on theatre Contributing to a range of discourses including gender studies cultural studies and theatre and performance studies this timely volume is crucial to our understanding of women s drama in this period The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003 The Routledge Companion to the Anthropology of Performance Lauren Miller, David Syring, 2023-11-30 The Routledge Companion to the Anthropology of Performance provides a cutting edge comprehensive overview of the foundations epistemologies methodologies key topics and current debates and future directions in the field It brings together work from the disciplines of anthropology and performance studies as well as adjacent fields Across 31 chapters a diverse range of international scholars cover topics including Ritual Theater Storytelling Music Dance Textiles Land Acknowledgments Indigenous Identity Visual Arts Embodiment Cognition Healing Festivals Politics Activism The Law Race and Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality Class Religion Spirituality and Faith Disability Leisure Gaming and Sport In addition the included Appendix offers tools exercises and activities designed by contributors as useful suggestions to readers both within and beyond academic contexts to take the insights of performance anthropology into their work This is a valuable reference for scholars and upper level students in anthropology performance studies and related disciplines including religious studies art philosophy history political science gender studies and education South Asian Disability and Deaf Theatres Kanta Kochhar-Lindgren, 2025-01-28 South Asian Disability and Deaf Theatres investigates translocal intimacies in relation to twenty first century transnational South Asian disability theatres in order to lay out new possibilities for accessible theatres The book provides a theoretical and methodological framework for thinking through the relationships between disability

translocal intimacies and visceral ethnography It presents new and innovative approaches to rethinking bodily cultural spatial and performance practices in relation to disability and disability rights that cut across national sociocultural and artistic boundaries The author presents a consideration of some of India s specific theatre examples such as Mahesh Dattani s Tara Manjula Padmanabhan s Harvest Shyambazar Blind Opera House s Brihannala Jana Sanskriti s The Wasteland A Journey and First Drop Change Foundation s Playback Theatre Through analyses of specific performances and theatre groups and theoretical explorations of visceral ethnography disability theatres decolonising initiatives and disability as method this book furthers the project of creating the conditions for a radically accessible and open door theatre for both the present and the future The first book to cover theatre and Disability Studies in India it shows that disability literature and theatres assist in delineating ways of reworking the politics of intimacy and belonging within and across differences The book makes an important contribution to the broad field of theatre performance and Disability Studies as well as Feminist Studies and South Asian Studies

Applied Shakespeare Adelle Hulsmeier, 2023-11-30 This book speaks to those interested in where and why Shakespeare s work is used to capture the transformative intentions of different areas of Applied Theatre practice Prison Disability Therapy representing a foundational study which considers subsequent histories and potential challenges when engaging with Shakespeare s work This is grounded in a case study analysis of three salient British Theatre Companies The Education Shakespeare Company prison the Blue Apple Theatre Company Disability and the Combat Veteran Players therapy

At the Intersection of Disability and Drama John Michael Sefel, Amanda Slamcik Lassetter, Jill Summerville, 2021-04-02 Cripples ain t supposed to be happy sings Anita Hollander balancing on her single leg and grinning broadly This moment from her multi award winning one woman show Still Standing captures the essence of this theatre anthology Hollander and nineteen other playwright performers craftily subvert and smash stereotypes about how those within the disability community should look think and behave Utilizing the often conflicting tools of Critical Disability Studies and Medical Humanities these plays and their accompanying essays approach disability as a vast intersectional demographic which ties individuals together less by whatever impairment difference or non normative condition they experience and more by their daily need to navigate a world that wasn t built for them From race gender and sexuality to education dating and pandemics these plays reveal there is no aspect of human life that does not in some way intersect with disability
