Strategic Perspectives on the Reconstruction and Diachronic Interpretation of Stereotypical Theolinguistic Matrices in Religious-Popular Discourse Olesya Cherkhava, Yan Kapranov, Maksym W. Sitnicki, Bożena Iwanowska, 2025-04-14

This monograph delves into the complex relationship between language religion and culture focusing on how religious discourse evolves and adapts across English German and Ukrainian contexts By reconstructing theolinguistic matrices the frameworks that encode religious beliefs this work reveals how key concepts like faith righteousness and repentance are communicated preserved and transformed over time Combining comparative linguistics with cognitive semantic approaches the volume offers strategic insights into the metaphorical and archetypal structures underlying religious language bridging ancient traditions with modern communicative contexts Strategic Perspectives on the Reconstruction and Diachronic Interpretation of Archetypal Theolinguistic Matrices in Religious-Popular Discourse

Olesya Cherkhava, Yan Kapranov, Maksym W. Sitnicki, Bożena Iwanowska, 2025-04-14 This monograph investigates the interplay of linguistics theology and cognitive science by analyzing the evolving theolinguistic matrices within religious and popular discourse Focusing on English German and Ukrainian it traces the diachronic interpretation of key religious concepts righteousness faith and repentance within Indo European and Nostratic frameworks Through comparative historical methods and cognitive matrix analysis the authors reveal how these archetypal matrices shape theological communication across cultures The work offers deep insights into the construction of religious meaning engaging scholars in linguistics theology and cultural history to explore the relationship between language faith and identity Language in Educational and Cultural Perspectives Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk, Marcin Trojszczak, 2023-10-26 This book comprises 20 chapters that have been divided into two distinct parts language in educational contexts and language in cultural contexts The contributions included in this book are the outcome of the conference Contacts and Contrasts that was held in Konin Poland in 2021 C C2021 The contributions featured in the first part of the part of the book focus on various issues in the field of applied linguistics in particular language education second and foreign language learning as well as translator training The second part of this edited collection features chapters devoted to a range of issues at the intersection of semantics historical and contact linguistics as well as literature Human Language Technologies - The Baltic Perspective A.

Utkā, J. Vaičėnienė, J. Kovalevskaitė, 2020-09-30 Human language technology is the study of the methods by which computer programs or electronic devices can analyze produce modify or respond to human texts and speech It consists of natural language processing and computational linguistics on the one hand and speech technology on the other This book presents the proceedings of the 9th International Conference Human Language Technologies The Baltic Perspective Baltic HLT 2020 organised in Kaunas Lithuania on 22 and 23 September 2020 This biennial conference offers researchers a platform to share knowledge on recent advances in human language processing for the Baltic languages as well as promoting interdisciplinary and international cooperation in human language technology research within and beyond the Baltic States In addition to the traditional topics of natural language processing and language technologies this year's conference featured a special session on resource and tool development for teaching and learning the less resourced Baltic languages This year 42 submissions were received each of which was evaluated by two reviewers resulting in a total of 34 papers being accepted for presentation and publication The book is divided into four sections speech and text analysis 9 papers machine translation and natural understanding 6 papers tools and resources 14 papers and language learning resources 5 papers Providing a fascinating overview of current research in the field from a primarily Baltic perspective the book will be of interest to all those whose work involves human language technology

The Latvian Language in the Digital Age Georg Rehm,Hans Uszkoreit,2012-08-30 This white paper is part of a series that promotes knowledge about language technology and its potential It addresses educators journalists politicians language communities and others The availability and use of language technology in Europe varies between languages Consequently the actions that are required to further support research and development of language technologies also differ for each language The required actions depend on many factors such as the complexity of a given language and the size of its community META NET a Network of Excellence funded by the European Commission has conducted an analysis of current language resources and technologies This analysis focused on the 23 official European languages as well as other important national and regional languages in Europe The results of this analysis suggest that there are many significant research gaps for each language A more detailed expert analysis and assessment of the current situation will help maximise the impact of additional research and minimize any risks META NET consists of 54 research centres from 33 countries that are working with stakeholders from commercial businesses government agencies industry research organisations software companies technology providers and European universities Together they are creating a common technology vision while developing a strategic research agenda that shows how language technology applications can address any research gaps by 2020

Dometi ,1991 Final Particles Sylvie Hancil,Alexander Haselow,Margje Post,2015-04-24 This volume brings together sixteen in depth studies of final particles in various languages of the world offering a rich variety of approaches to this still relatively underresearched class of elements The volume is of interest to typologists to experts in syntax and the analysis of spoken language and to linguists studying the form and function of final particles in single languages Final particles offers an overview of the different types of final particles found in typologically distinct languages different methodological approaches to the study of final particles and of typical grammaticalization pathways that these elements have taken in different languages
