Argentine Serialised Radio Drama in the Infamous Decade, 1930-1943 Lauren Rea, 2016-04-15 In her study of key radio dramas broadcast from 1930 to 1943 Lauren Rea analyses the work of leading exponents of the genre against the wider backdrop of nation building intellectual movements and popular culture in Argentina During the period that has come to be known as the infamous decade radio serials drew on the Argentine literary canon with writers such as Hector Pedro Blomberg and Jos Andr s Gonz lez Pulido contributing to the nation building project as they reinterpreted nineteenth century Argentina and repackaged it for a 1930s mass audience Thus a historical romance set in the tumultuous dictatorship of Juan Manuel de Rosas reveals the conflict between the message transmitted to a mass audience through popular radio drama and the work of historical revisionist intellectuals writing in the 1930s Transmitted at the same time Gonz lez Pulido s gauchescue series evokes powerful notions of Argentine national identity as it explores the relationship of the gaucho with Argentina s immigrant population and advocates for the ideal contribution of women and the immigrant population to Argentine nationhood Rea grounds her study in archival work undertaken at the library of Argentores in Buenos Aires which holds the only surviving collection of scripts of radio serials from the period Rea s book recovers the contribution that these products of popular culture made to the nation building project as they helped to shape and promote the understanding of Argentine history and cultural identity that is widely held today

Lines of Geography in Latin American Narrative Aarti Smith Madan, 2017-08-17 This book looks to the writings of prolific statesmen like D F Sarmiento Estanislao Zeballos and Euclides da Cunha to unearth the literary and political roots of the discipline of geography in nineteenth century Latin America Tracing the simultaneous rise of text writing map making and institution building it offers new insight into how nations consolidated their territories Beginning with the titanic figures of Strabo and Humboldt it rereads foundational works like Facundo and Os sert es as examples of a recognizably geographical discourse The book digs into lesser studied bulletins correspondence and essays to tell the story of how three statesmen became literary stars while spearheading Latin America s first geographic institutes which sought to delineate the newly independent states Through a fresh pairing of literary analysis and institutional history it reveals that words and maps literature and geography marched in lockstep to shape national territories identities and narratives
