Pluriversal Literacies Romeo Garcia, Ellen Cushman, Damián Baca, 2024-01-02 Decolonial projects can end up reinforcing dominant modes of thinking by shoehorning understandings of Indigenous and non Western traditions within Eurocentric frameworks The pluralization of literacies and the creation of so called alternative rhetorics accepts that there is a totalizing reality of rhetoric and literacy This volume seeks to decenter these theories and to engage Indigenous contexts on their own terms starting with the very tools of representation Language itself can disrupt normative structures and create pluriversal possibilities The volume editors and contributors argue for epistemic change at the level of the language and media that people use to represent meaning The range of topics covered includes American Indian and Indigenous representations literacies and rhetorics critical revisionist historiography and comparative rhetorics delinking colonial literacies of cartographic power and modernity northern and southern hemispheric relations and theorizations of from oceanic border spaces      National Galleries Simon Knell, 2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism
