flakes of the snow which trembled in the air they took him into the dining room where a blazing fire a late dinner and the warm and smiling welcome of Agnes greatly solaced the wayfarer Harry had met him in Stirling and driven him out but Harry's carriage though it could be closed was not so comfortable on a December night as in the bright sunshine of a July day Cuthbert made hurried inquiries after Martha and Rose in answer to which Agnes began a most animated account of an unexpected call from young Mr Dunlop to say that his sister would be very happy to come with him to Agnes's party Little Mrs Muir Allenders had only ventured at the last moment to invite the baronet's daughter and then with but the faintest expectation that Miss Dunlop would come Agnes was greatly elated and Rose and Martha were with Mr Dunlop in the drawing room But on the peaceful countenance of Cuthbert Charteris there passed a momentary savageness At this moment it seemed to him in unconscious self estimation that he as the newly arrived guest and tried friend should be the principal person at Allenders whereas this young Mr Dunlop most probably a nobody as Cuthbert concluded with amiable liberality defrauded him of his welcome from the sisters and drew away Harry from his side It was true that Harry returned in ten minutes and that Martha and Agnes changed places but still Cuthbert involuntarily frowned Might not Rose in common courtesy have come to greet him Alas poor Rose for Cuthbert could not tell how she trembled at the bright fireside of the drawing room nor how the astonished Agnes threw shawls round her shoulders and wondered what could make her so cold Mr Charteris lingered long over his dinner Cuthbert to tell the truth was rather sullen and made by no means a brilliant appearance to Martha and Harry who sat with him while he refreshed himself He had a great inclination indeed to wrap himself up again in his travelling dress say a surly good bye at the drawing room door and betake himself home without delay but Cuthbert disconsolately comforted himself that it was only for one day and sat with all his attention concentrated on the sounds from the staircase doggedly assuring himself that no one would come And no one did come and Cuthbert was enraged at the fulfilment of his own prophecy By and bye he went up stairs attended by Harry who did not quite comprehend this singular mood to his own room and Rose heard his voice on the stair and trembled still more and more though young Mr Dunlop sat by and did all that in him lay to engage her attention But poor Rose felt a great inclination to steal away to her own room and cry for she in her turn thought it strange very strange that Cuthbert should linger so long and show so little wish to see her
