

The background of the book cover is a reproduction of Gustave Moreau's painting 'Diomède dévoré par ses chevaux'. The painting depicts a dramatic scene where a man, Diomedes, is being consumed by his own horses. The horses are shown in a state of intense, almost supernatural energy, with their mouths open as if devouring their master. The scene is set in a dark, cavernous space with stone walls. The overall tone is dark and macabre, characteristic of Moreau's Symbolist style.
