HMS Pepperpot! Ed Gordon,1985      U-Boat Attack Logs Daniel Morgan,Bruce Taylor,2011-11-09 During the Second World War over 250 Allied warships from a dozen navies were sent to the bottom by German U boats This ground breaking study provides a detailed analysis of every sinking for which source material survives from both the Allied and the German sides resulting in detailed treatment of the fate of 110 vessels with the remainder summarised in an extensive appendix Uniquely each entry is built around a specialist translation of the relevant segment of the war diary log of the U boat in question taken directly from the surviving originals remarkably this represents the first large scale publication of the U boat war diaries in any language The book offers a wealth of new information not only with respect to the circumstances of the sinkings from both the Allied and German perspectives but also to the technical environment in which they lived as well as the fate of the crews The entries include background details on the vessels concerned and the men involved with a selection of rare and carefully chosen photos from archives and collections around the world Each entry is itself a compelling narrative but is backed with a list of sources consulted including documents published works and websites A decade in the making this is probably the most important book on the U boat war to be published for many a year      Very Special Ships Arthur C Nicholson,2015-11-15 Very Special Ships is the first full length book about the Abdiel class fast minelayers which were considered the fastest and most versatile to serve in the Royal Navy during World War II This book spans the scope of the class from alpha to zulu as they operated in many roles most famously as blockade runners to Malta transporting items as diverse as ammunition condensed milk gold and VIPs To provide a complete picture of this important class of ships Very Special Ships examines the origin and history of the minelayers describes the design and construction of each ship in the class details the operational history of the ships during World War II and concludes with the post war careers of the surviving ships      The Encyclopedia of Weapons of World War II Chris Bishop,2002 The encyclopedia of weapons of world war II is the most detailed and authoritative compendium of the weapons of mankind s greatest conflict ever published It is a must for the military enthusiast and all those interested in World War II      The Littorio Class Ermingo Bagnasco,Augusto de Toro,2011-07-18 An important work for anyone interested in warship design the naval side of World War II in the Mediterranean or modern Italian history New York Military Affairs Symposium For its final battleship design Italy ignored all treaty restrictions on tonnage and produced one of Europe s largest and most powerful capital ships comparable with Germany s Bismarck class similarly built in defiance of international agreements The three ships of the Littorio class were typical of Italian design being fast and elegant but also boasting a revolutionary protective scheme which was tested to the limits as all three were to be heavily damaged in the hard fought naval war in the Mediterranean Roma had the unfortunate distinction of being the first capital ship sunk by guided missile These important ships have never been covered in depth in English language publications but the need is now satisfied in this comprehensive and convincing study by two of Italy s leading naval historians The book combines a detailed analysis of the design with an operational history evaluating how the ships stood up to combat It is illustrated with an amazing collection of photographs many fine line plans and colored artwork of camouflage schemes adding up to as complete a monograph on a single class ever published Among warship enthusiasts battleships enjoy a unique status As the great success of Seaforth's recent book on French battleships proves that interest transcends national boundaries and this superbly executed study is certain to become another classic in the field A very impressive piece of work History of War An essential book for all naval history enthusiasts Firetrench The Royal Navy in World War II Derek G. Law, 2003 The Royal Navy in World War II is a comprehensive annotated bibliography of all monographs describing the role of British Dominion and minor allied forces in the naval war against the Axis This second edition contains 1 400 more entries than its predecessor and although mainly concerned with the Royal Navy it does offer extensive coverage on the Dominion Navies of Australia Canada India and South Africa as well as the minor allied navies of the occupied European countries Coverage of the US Navy's involvement in the Atlantic and Caribbean Theaters is also included A wonderful reference for historians librarians and navy buffs The Royal Navy in World War Two Derek G. Law, 1988 World War II at Sea Myron J. Smith, 1990-02 Be Grateful: Brighton College's Fallen 1939-45 David Turner, 2019-10-31 A roll call and history of the ex students of Brighton College who fell in the Second World War Eighty years on from the beginning of the Second World War it is easy to forget that for a time democracy the rule of law and even everyday values of tolerance and kindness were in danger of being snuffed out in Europe Given the sacrifices made we must not forget the people who fought to protect these virtues particularly those who laid down their lives for this cause To this end all Fourth Form pupils at Brighton College have researched an individual Old Brightonian who died in or as a result of the war The list includes former masters pupils and one German old boy who was doubtless a good man but fighting for a bad cause What emerges in this book a companion to a volume on the fallen of the Great War already published is a collection of extremely varied personal histories Where possible this book recalls the family lives of each man in addition to his war service The quality of research has been high and pupils have also excelled at storytelling finding the excitement and humour in each life as well as the poignancy The 170 fallen Old Brightonians of the Second World War nurtured by the College but cut off in their prime have been honoured by the current crop of Brightonians several generations below them Strangling the Axis Richard Hammond, 2020-06-25 This is a major reassessment of the causes of Allied victory in the Second World War in the Mediterranean region Drawing on a unique range of multinational source material Richard Hammond demonstrates how the Allies ability to gain control of the key routes across the sea and sink large quantities of enemy shipping denied the Axis forces in North Africa crucial supplies and proved vital to securing ultimate victory there Furthermore the sheer scale of attrition to Axis shipping outstripped their industrial capacity to compensate leading to the collapse of the Axis position across key territories maintained by seaborne supply such as Sardinia Corsica and the Aegean islands As such Hammond demonstrates how the anti shipping campaign in the Mediterranean was the fulcrum about which strategy in the theatre pivoted and the vital enabling factor ultimately leading to Allied victory in the region

Naval Battles of the Second World War Leo Marriott, 2022-05-31 The Second World War was a truly global conflict and maritime power played a major role in every theatre of operations Land campaigns depended on supplies transported by sea and victory or defeat depended on the outcome of naval battles So Leo Marriott's highly illustrated two volume account of the struggle sets naval actions in the wider strategic context as well as giving graphic accounts of what happened in each engagement This first volume concentrates on the Royal Navy's confrontation with the ships and submarines of the German Kriegsmarine during the Battle of the Atlantic the Arctic convoys and the struggle across the Mediterranean against the Italian navy to supply the opposing armies in North Africa The Battle of the River Plate the pursuit of the Bismarck the PQ17 convoy to the Soviet Union and Operation Pedestal the most famous convoy sent to relieve Malta are among the episodes described in vivid detail and illustrated with a selection of striking photographs This concise but wide ranging introduction to the naval war emphasizes the sheer scale of the conflict in every sea and shows the direct impact of each naval battle on the course of the war

The Sonarman's War H.G. Jones, 2014-01-10 This memoir is an intimate and sometimes irreverent account of one man's coming of age during World War II Born a North Carolina farmboy Jones served as a U S Navy sonarman aboard a wooden submarine chaser operating from Africa and Sicily during the Allied invasions at Anzio and Southern France He also served as sonarman and yeoman on two fleet mine sweepers in the Okinawa Formosa and China operations This memoir is drawn not only from memory but from the author's surviving diaries from the conflicts daily logs of the three ships upon which he served and the secret reports of military commanders and other official records
