Haircut And Stories:

Bad Haircut Tom Perrotta, 2012-12-11 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Leftovers Darkly tender simply written tales about growing up in the Garden State in the 1970s The New York Times Book Review The ten rich stories here span from 1969 to 1980 and are linked by a single protagonist Buddy an adolescent suburban New Jersey boy who is truly seeing his world for the first time and already finding it both mysterious and lacking Whether he s discovering that his mother actually knows and has a history with the man inside the battered foam hot dog costume feeling the first glimmer that sex might actually be possible for him or finding himself swept along on a prank gone very wrong Buddy is a recognizable and relatable American boy in this collection by the author of Tracy Flick Can t Win Mrs Fletcher and The Abstinence Teacher among other novels Bad Haircut explores the themes that have fascinated Perrotta throughout his career suburban rituals and mores sports and religion the cheerful cheesiness of American consumer life public tests of manliness and the moral dilemmas faced by ordinary people parents and teenagers alike So sharp and sure in its description of growing up Because this set of stories like those of J D Salinger are so based in the kind of truth that spans generations no reference to a particular decade is needed Hartford Courant More powerful than any coming of age novel I ve read recently The Washington Post These well made unpretentious stories are as tight as brick bungalows plain and serviceable on the outside radiant within full of life s sorrow and wonder Booklist

Talk in a Hair Salon Rachel Heinrichsmeier,2020-01-14 The ageing of the world s populations particularly in Western developed countries is a well documented phenomenon and despite many positive images of later life in the media and public discourse later life is frequently depicted as a time of inevitable physical and cognitive decline Against this background Heinrichsmeier presents the results of her two year sociolinguistic study examining how a group of older women of different ages negotiated their way through their own and others expectations of ageing and constructed different kinds of older and other identities for themselves Through vivid and nuanced analysis of their chat and practices in a small village hair salon Heinrichsmeier reveals these women s subtle and skilful manipulation of stereotypes of ageing and the impact of the evolving talk on their identity constructions Her study which provides numerous short extracts of talk in both the hair salon and interview along with more detailed case studies highlights the importance of such apparently trivial sites for both studying older people s identity work and as loci for positive identity constructions and well being in later life This book will be of particular interest to graduate students and scholars working in sociolinguistics discourse analysis conversation analysis and gerontological studies as well as those interested in approaches integrating ethnography and language Ghostly Guardian
