

The background of the book cover is a grayscale photograph of a misty, atmospheric landscape. A lone figure stands in the distance, centered horizontally, looking out over a body of water or a flat, open area. The mist is thick, creating a sense of mystery and isolation. The overall tone is somber and reflective.

Half Remembered:

A Half Remembered Song Alan Jones, 2016-01-07 Those bewildered faces were an image he had contrived to forget since that day but Tom remembered it now on his return to the spot The rain had stopped and the clouds were stretched to reveal blue sky beyond He had rerun the events of that appalling day over and over as from his shelter he watched the weather clear until the lake was bathed in a bright sunlight A Half Remembered Song follows a teacher's quest to recover his reputation lost in the unsolved mystery of the disappearance of a schoolboy on a fishing trip to Ireland As the story of the boy's death unfolds Tom Ellison's fall from grace spirals out of control His only hope is that a mysterious cryptic postcard might help to reveal the secret behind the tragedy Tom's return to the scene of his worst nightmare triggers off a series of unexpected twists including an attempt on his own life and the death of Mary Mahon the woman who might hold the secret to his search With Mary's death comes added pressure on Timothy Hanlon to come forward and admit his part in the events on the shores of Lake Descarr A Half Remembered Song is a dark mystery that explores the accountability of being a teacher acting in loco parentis A fast paced and absorbing tale this book will appeal to fans of thriller novels
