Inventing Transgender Children and Young People Heather Brunsell-Evans, Michele Moore, 2019-10-08 The essays in this volume are written by clinicians psychologists sociologists educators parents and de transitioners Contributors demonstrate how transgender children and young people are invented in different medical social and political contexts from specialist gender identity development services to lobby groups and their school resources gender guides and workbooks from the world of the YouTube vlogger to the consulting rooms of psychiatrists from the pharmaceutical industry to television documentaries and from the developmental models of psychologists to the complexities of intersex medicine Far from just investigating how they are invented the authors demonstrate the considerable psychological and physical harms perpetrated on children and young people by transgender ideology and offer tangible examples of where and how adults should intervene to protect them Seriality and Texts for Young People M. Leonard Bernstein touched millions of lives as composer conductor teacher and activist He frequently visited homes around the world through the medium of television particularly through his fifty three award winning Young People's Concerts 1958-1972 which at their height were seen by nearly ten million in over forty countries Originally designed for young viewers but equally attractive to eager adults Bernstein's brilliance as a teacher shined brightly in his televised presentations And yet despite the light touch of the maestro the innocence of his audience and the joyousness of each show's topic the turbulence of the times would peek through In this first in depth look at the series Alicia Kopstein Penk's Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts illustrates how the cultural social political and musical upheavals of the long sixties impacted Bernstein's life and his Young People's Concerts Responding to trends in corporate sponsorship censorship and arts programming from the Golden Age of Television into the 1970s the Young People's Concerts would show the impact of and reflect the social and cultural politics of the Cold War Vietnam the Civil Rights and Women's Movements and the Counterculture Bernstein cheerfully bridged classical and popular tastes juxtaposing the Beatles with Mozart even as he offered personal televised pleas for peace and unity At the same time the concerts reflect Bernstein's troubled relationship as a professional musician with the dominance of atonality and his quest to nurture American music Anyone who enjoys the oeuvre of Leonard Bernstein has watched his Young People's Concerts or is passionate about the history of the long sixties will find in Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts a story of all three captured in this monumental study

Dearborn Independent, 1927 The Jazz Scene Eric Hobsbawm, 2014-11-20 From 1955-65 the historian Eric Hobsbawm took the pseudonym Francis Newton and wrote a monthly column for the New Statesman on jazz music he had loved ever since discovering it as a boy in 1933 the year Adolf Hitler took power in Germany Hobsbawm's column led to his writing a critical history The Jazz Scene 1959 This enhanced edition from 1993 adds later writings by Hobsbawm in which he meditates further on why jazz is not only a marvellous noise but a central concern for anyone concerned with twentieth century society and the twentieth century arts All the greats are covered in passing Louis Armstrong Billie Holiday while further space is given to Duke Ellington Ray Charles Thelonious Monk Mahalia Jackson and Sidney Bechet Perhaps Hobsbawm s tastiest comments are about the business side and work ethics where his historian s eye strips the jazz scene down to its commercial spine Kirkus Reviews Working with Youth Violence Tamara Blakemore,Louise Rak,Chris Krogh,Shaun McCarthy,Graeme Stuart,2023-12-01 Relevant for experienced and emerging social work and human service practitioners alike this book explores the uniquely challenging yet seemingly ubiquitous issue of youth violence It provides an authentic and accessible discussion of the theories and evidence that inform practice with youth violence alongside the voices of practitioners and the young people they work with These voices are drawn from work with the Name Narrate Navigate NNN program for youth violence NNN provides a trauma informed culturally safe preventive intervention for young people who use and experience violence and specialist training for the workers who support them The program embraces creative methods as a bridge between contemporary evidence on trauma and violence and Aboriginal healing practice The dual focus of the program is informed and interconnected by action research involving Aboriginal Elders and community members practitioners and key service stakeholders including young people with a lived experience of violence This book is ideal for use in professional cross disciplinary programs such as criminology sociology social work and psychology across post secondary vocational and university sectors Kid Stuff Diane Ravitch,Joseph P. the complex intersections of music fashion violence race relations and neighborhood activism Drawing upon overlooked evidence Pagan concludes by reconstructing the murder scene and proposes a compelling theory about what really happened the night of the murder Event Tourism in Asian Countries Shruti Arora,Anukrati Sharma,2022-03-23 Events including
