Jazz From The Beginning:

Jazz From The Beginning Garvin Bushell, 1998-08-22 Jazz clarinetist saxophonist and bassoonist Garvin Bushell 1902-1991 performed with many of the twentieth century's greatest jazz musicians from Fletcher Henderson Fats Waller and Cab Calloway to Eric Dolphy Gil Evans and John Coltrane during his remarkable career that spanned from 1916 to the 1980s. Although best known as a jazz soloist and sideman Bushell also played oboe and bassoon with symphony orchestras and was a highly regarded instructor of woodwinds. In Jazz from the Beginning Bushell vividly recounts his musical experiences featuring candid assessments of the legends with whom he performed as well as eye-opening accounts of the early days of jazz and the racism that he encountered on the road. Based on a series of interviews conducted by jazz scholar Mark Tucker, these memoirs provide a colorful account of Bushell's extraordinary life and career as well as an important record of seventy years of America's musical history.

Early Jazz Gunther Schuller, 1986 This classic study of jazz by renowned composer, conductor, and musical scholar Gunther Schuller was widely acclaimed on its first publication in 1968. The first of two volumes on the history and musical contribution of jazz, it takes us from the beginnings of jazz as a distinct musical style at the turn of the century to its first great flowering in the 1930s. Schuller explores the music of the great jazz soloists of the twenties: Jelly Roll Morton, Bix Beiderbecke, Bessie Smith, Louis Armstrong, and others, and the big bands and arrangers: Fletcher Henderson, Bennie Moten, and especially Duke Ellington, placing their music in the context of the other musical cultures and languages of the 20th century and offering original analyses of many great jazz recordings. Now reissued in paperback, Early Jazz provides a musical tour of the early American jazz world for a new generation of scholars, students, and jazz fans.

Jazz Historiography Daniel Hardie, 2013-12-11 Jazz has been around for over a hundred years, but how much do we know about its history and how much of what we think we know is true? Beginning in the so-called Jazz Age of the 1920s, jazz history was recounted and interpreted by admiring authors and record collectors both in the United States and elsewhere. However, since the early 1990s, some historians have come to doubt the validity of the conventional narrative of the story of jazz and some of its most hallowed traditions. In Jazz Historiography: The Story of Jazz History Writing, Daniel Hardie uncovers the course of jazz history writing from early Jazz Age American and French publications to academic texts in the 2000s and seeks answers to questions about the accuracy of those accounts and the influence they have had on our understanding of jazz history, even the impact they might have had on the course of jazz history itself. How much, for example, did the work of jazz historians influence the course of the New Orleans Revival? Was the appearance of bebop in the 1940s a revolutionary response to oppression experienced by Afro-American musicians in a commercialized popular music industry, or was it an attempt to mirror the development of classical music of the time? How has the development of university jazz studies influenced the writing of jazz history?
