Tony Richardson James M. Welsh, John C. Tibbetts, Professor John C Tibbetts, 1999-08-12 Critically surveys the films of Tony Richardson one of Britain's most inventive directors of stage and screen Brigitte Bardot Barnett Singer, 2013-03-11

Actress and sex symbol Brigitte Bardot had a stunning career in France and America in the mid 20th century Since the 1970s she has dedicated her life to the welfare and protection of animals with much personal involvement In this book the author makes the case that far from being a pretty face or a spotlight grabber Bardot was an accomplished actress and has always been an intelligent sensitive individual Chapters acquaint readers with her Paris childhood and her rebellious coming of age in a Catholic bourgeois family who disapproved when she appeared on the cover of Elle magazine and was offered a screen test The book examines her years in film with careful analysis of her films and also covers her tumultuous personal life including suicide attempts and the beginnings of her interest in animal protection Final chapters detail her efforts in worldwide animal welfare activism including the work of her own international foundation A History of the French New Wave Cinema

Richard Neupert, 2007-04-20 The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cinéma especially François Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave

In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agnès Varda. With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking.

The Body in Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave Films Francesca Minnie Hardy, 2023-10-30 This original study examines the representation of the body in French New Wave films through discussion of a series of films by Jean-Luc Godard perhaps the central figure of the French New Wave. Through analysis of bout de souffle, Une femme est une femme, Le Mépris and Alphaville alongside discussion of some of Godard's lesser known French New Wave films the book explores the interrelation between bodies, books and bathrooms that they facilitate. In so doing it aims to destabilise the French New Wave's myth of male exceptionalism and denaturalise the gender dynamic most commonly viewed at its heart, revealing that the women who make up a fundamental part of its fabric are not textually trapped by Godard's authorial presence. Instead their corporeality disrupts any purported authorial and national ownership of their bodies. Given the enduring popularity and visibility of the French New Wave and of Jean-Luc Godard in universities and journals The Body in Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave Films will appeal to scholars in the disciplines of French and film studies as well as to undergraduate and postgraduate students of these disciplines.

French New Wave and Beyond: A Journey Through the Cinema of Jean Renoir Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-18 Jean Renoir and François Truffaut were two of the most important and influential filmmakers of the 20th century. Their work revolutionized the art of cinema and their films continue to be enjoyed and studied by audiences around the world. This book is a comprehensive exploration of the lives, careers and legacies of these two great filmmakers. It examines their shared love of cinema, their passion for telling stories that are both entertaining and thought-provoking, and their belief that film could be a powerful force for social change. The book begins with a discussion of the birth of the French New Wave, a cinematic movement that Renoir and Truffaut were both instrumental in shaping. It then provides a detailed analysis of Renoir's early films which were influenced by the French Impressionist movement and his later films which explored themes of love, war and social injustice. The book also examines Truffaut's early masterpieces such as The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim as well as his later films which often dealt with themes of childhood, adolescence and the search for meaning in life. In addition to discussing the individual achievements of Renoir and Truffaut, the book also explores their relationship with each other. Truffaut was a great admirer of Renoir's work and he often cited Renoir as a major influence on his own filmmaking. The book examines the ways in which Truffaut's films were influenced by Renoir's and it also discusses the personal and professional relationship between the two filmmakers. This book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of cinema, the work of Renoir and Truffaut or the French New Wave movement. It is a celebration of two great filmmakers who left an indelible mark on the world of cinema. If you like this book, write a review.

The first full-length authoritative and detailed story of the iconic actor's life to go beyond the Hollywood scandal sheet reporting of earlier books, this account offers an appreciation for the man and his acting career and the classic films he starred in, painting a portrait of an individual who took great risks in his acting and career. Although Lee Marvin is best known for his icy tough guy roles such as his chilling titular villain in The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance or the paternal yet brutally realistic platoon leader in The Big Red One, very little is known of his personal life, his family background, his experiences in WWII, his relationship with his father, family, friends, wives and his ongoing battles with alcoholism, rage and depression occasioned by his postwar PTSD. Now, after years of research, interviews with family members, friends and colleagues and complete with rare photographs and illustrative material, Hollywood writer Dwayne Epstein provides a full understanding and appreciation of this acting titan's place in the Hollywood pantheon in spite of his very real and human struggles. The Caregiver Samuel Park, 2019-07-09 From the critically acclaimed author of This Burns My Heart comes a luminous mother-daughter saga. Entertainment Weekly about a young woman who is forced to flee 1980s Brazil for California and in doing so unearths the hidden life of her enigmatic mother. Mara Alencar's mother Ana is her moon, her sun, her stars. Ana, a struggling voice-over actress, is an admirably brave and recklessly impulsive woman who does everything in her power to care for her little girl in perilous 1980s Rio de Janeiro. With no other family or friends, her own age, Ana eclipses Mara's entire world. They take turns caring for each other in ways big and small. But who is Ana really? As she grows older, Mara slowly begins to piece together the many facets of Ana's complicated life: a mother, a rebel and always an actress. When Ana becomes involved with a civilian rebel group attempting to undermine the city's cruel Police Chief, their fragile arrangement begins to unravel. Mara is forced to flee the only home she's ever known for California, where she lives as an undocumented immigrant, caregiving for a dying woman. It's here that she begins to grapple with her turbulent past and starts to uncover vital truths about her mother, herself and what it means to truly take care of someone. A lovely and heartbreaking People story that is simultaneously dreamlike and visceral. The Atlantic. The Caregiver is a beautiful testament to Samuel Park's extraordinary talents as a storyteller that reads in some moments like a thriller and in others like a meditation on what it means to be alive A ferocious page turner with deep wells of compassion for the struggles of the living and the sins of the dead Kirkus Reviews starred review The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike Cinema '62 Stephen Farber, Michael McClellan, 2020-03-13 Lawrence of Arabia The Miracle Worker To Kill a Mockingbird The Manchurian Candidate Gypsy Sweet Bird of Youth The Longest Day The Music Man What Ever Happened to Baby Jane and more Most conventional film histories dismiss the early 1960s as a pallid era a downtime between the heights of the classic studio system and the rise of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese and Altman in the 1970s It seemed to be a moment when the movie industry was floundering as the popularity of television caused a downturn in cinema attendance Cinema 62 challenges these assumptions by making the bold claim that 1962 was a peak year for film with a high standard of quality that has not been equaled since Stephen Farber and Michael McClellan show how 1962 saw great late period work by classic Hollywood directors like John Ford Howard Hawks and John Huston as well as stars like Bette Davis James Stewart Katharine Hepburn and Barbara Stanwyck Yet it was also a seminal year for talented young directors like Sidney Lumet Sam Peckinpah and Stanley Kubrick not to mention rising stars like Warren Beatty Jane Fonda Robert Redford Peter O Toole and Omar Sharif Above all 1962 the year of To Kill a Mockingbird and The Manchurian Candidate gave cinema attendees the kinds of adult artistic and uncompromising visions they would never see on television including classics from Fellini Bergman and Kurosawa Culminating in an analysis of the year's Best Picture winner and top grossing film Lawrence of Arabia and the factors that made that magnificent epic possible Cinema 62 makes a strong case that the movies peaked in the Kennedy era The films of Luc Besson Susan Hayward, Philip Powrie, 2019-01-25 This fascinating collection looks at the career and films of Luc Besson one of the most acclaimed figures in international cinema Contributions have been assembled from all over the world and their different approaches reflect this geographical diversity Films covered range from Besson's first feature La Dernier Combat to the international blockbusters The Fifth Element and Joan of Arc The essays range from looking at costume design to musical scores and the final chapter offers a transcript of a previously unpublished interview with the man himself He is the only French director to have crossed over successfully during the 1990s into the blockbuster spectacular we associate with Hollywood cinema and yet this is only the second book in English on this major international director The films of Luc Besson will make fascinating reading for anyone interested in the career and films of the master of spectacle François Truffaut and Friends Robert Stam, 2006 Drawing on Jules and Jim and other films by François Truffaut the author provides an in depth examination of the multifaceted relationship between Truffaut and Henri Pierre Roche the French writer and art collector The book also moves beyond Truffaut's films to explore the intertwined lives and works of other famous artists and intellectuals
