Jeanpierre Pincemin:

Jean-Pierre Pincemin Jean Pierre Pincemin, 1987 Contemporary French Art: Eleven studies Michael Bishop, 2008 Ben Vautier Niki de Saint Phalle François Morellet Louise Bourgeois Alexandre Hollan Claude Viallat Sophie Calle Bernard Pagès Jean Pierre Pincemin Annette Messager Gérard Titus Carmel eleven major French artists of the last forty years or so examined in the light of their uniqueness and their rootedness the specificities of their differing and at times overlapping plastic practices and the swirling and often highly hybridised conceptions entertained in regard to such practices Thus does analysis range from discussion of the feisty Fluxus inspired free spirited funkiness of Ben Vautier's work to the various modes of transcendence of trauma and haunting fear generated by the exceptional gestures of Niki de Saint Phalle and Louise Bourgeois to the al lyrical formalism yet imbued with irony and ludicity of François Morellet through to the serene intensities of Alexandre Hollan's vies silencieuses the infinite signatures of Claude Viallat's adventure in the sheer joy of a poe in of self reflexive coloration the powerfully elegant and muscular disarticulations of Bernard Pagès sculpture the great sweep through art's history implied by Jean Pierre Pincemin's chameleon like gestures the vast swirling programme of socio psychological analysis the arts of Annette Messager and Sophie Calle offer in their radically distinctive manners the obsessively serialised oeuvre of Gérard Titus Carmel allowing a burrowing deep into the opaque logic of a real though dubious presence to the world Peter Briggs : Brouillon general R Siva Kumar, Erin

Manning, 2016-12-20T00:00:00+01:00 Over a two year period from 2016 to 2018 four French museums Musée des Beaux Arts d'Angers Musée de l'Hospice Saint Roch d'Issoudun La Citadelle de Belfort La Piscine in Roubaix are joining forces to present Peter Briggs work All four museums are multidisciplinary and all focus a part of their exhibition programme on the art of today and often on artists whose singularity sets them apart from contemporary movements Contemporary French Art 2 Michael Bishop, 2011-05 Gérard Garouste Colette Debl Georges Rousse Geneviève Asse Martial Raysse Christian Jaccard Joël Kermarrec Danièle Perronne Daniel Dezeuze Philippe Favier Daniel Nadaud after the eleven essays of Contemporary French Art 1 devoted to major artists from Ben Vautier and Niki de Saint Phalle to Annette Messager and Gérard Titus Carmel the present volume pursues its interrogations of the what the how and the why of contemporary plastic production of some of France's finest practitioners If as ever such production can reveal elements of an interweaving of individualized preoccupations and modes endless specificities demarcate and affirm originalities that pure theory and its leveling anonymity may obscure Thus is it that Gérard Garouste is alone in that obsession with indianness and classicalness that Colette Debl's gesture is drawn implacably to the unseenness of female representation that Georges Rousse plunges photography into the realm of matter's poetic sacredness that Geneviève Asse traverses a pure seemingness of abstraction to attain to an intimacy of silence that Martial Raysse's hygiene of vision may endlessly renew and hybridize itself Christian Jaccard too will explore with uniqueness an art of materiality at the frontier of metaphysics Joël Kermarrec will offer us the inimitable exquisite traces of surging desire and deception Dani le Perronne s boxes and stringings her paintings and her sheetings will unfold a psychic infinity at the heart of form And if Daniel Dezeuze seeks namelessness and pure structuration the latter yet surge forth via works that relentlessly identify a gesture so distant we may feel from the at once sobering and ceremonial microproliferations of a Philippe Favier or the tense but genial articulations of Daniel Nadaud s sculptural imagination

Philippe Grandrieux Greg Hainge, 2017-02-23 Philippe Grandrieux is one of cinema's only living true radicals and feted as one of the most innovative and important film makers of his generation His consistently controversial work remains however relatively unknown outside of the international art film festival circuit In this volume the first book length study of the work of Grandrieux in any language Greg Hainge provides an overview and critical analysis of Grandrieux's entire career during which he has produced works for television video installations photography performance pieces documentary films short films and prize winning feature films As well as providing an overview the book argues that a critical appraisal of his work necessarily leads us to problematize many of the critical orthodoxies that have been formed in recent times to reject the concept of a haptic cinema and to supplant this instead with the idea of a sonic cinema

Sam Gilliam Jonathan P. Binstock, 2005-12-05 A fresh intelligent and insightful assessment of Sam Gilliam's lifetime achievements as an artist Binstock accomplishes this through his penetrating critical examination of Gilliam's artistic development innovations and the complexities of his contribution both as an abstract and African American artist Valerie J Mercer author of Explorations in the City of Light Sam Gilliam A Retrospective which gives focus and definition to an artist critical to our understanding of how contemporary painting has evolved in this country is a highly welcome publication Leslie King Hammond Dean of Graduate Studies Maryland Institute College of Art Sam Gilliam A Retrospective is a thorough and serious assessment of a magisterial career Meticulously examining Gilliam's ideas aesthetics influences artistic process and impact on other artists it illuminates his brilliance and the important role played by his work in the recent history of American painting Maurice Berger Fellow The Vera List Center for Art Politics The New School Finally a comprehensive study of one of our most significant artists Jonathan Binstock's erudite account of Sam Gilliam's innovations in the world of art fills a considerable void in our understanding of painterly abstraction. The art works themselves cerebral, sentient and fascinating consummate the inquiry and make this book a visual delight. Richard J. Powell, John Spencer Bassett, Professor of Art and Art History, Duke University. Binstock's writings on Sam Gilliam's art over the past four decades have placed the artist in the forefront of contemporary American art. In this new book he recounts Gilliam's rise to an artist of international prominence and offers a concise history of contemporary art in Washington. A must read. David D. Driskell, author of Two Centuries of Black American Art. This comprehensive text celebrates one of America's hidden national treasures. Gilliam's steadfast and unswerving commitment as an artist shines through his works as in this account of them by Jonathan Binstock. What emerges here is a full on profile of an artist and a black American. Lowery Stokes Sims, President, The Studio Museum in Harlem.

Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-19. This book is for art market researchers at all levels. A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues: auction, commercial gallery, etc. Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research. Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works, two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies. Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail. In recent years, art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets; a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources. Finally, provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers, collectors, artists and other art market stakeholders. The Rough Guide to France Rough Guides, 2016-03-01.
