Rock Stars wear White Socks too! Dannette Genasci, 2014-05-30 Trevor Riggs has already had a dream of a lifetime that not many get to do. Stand up on that stage and sing to those out in the audience screaming his name. But times had changed. You can't stop growing older. Michelle looked at this man that she had met the day before. Alone except for family, no security around. She had remembered that he had retired from that circus of Rock and Roll a few years earlier. Trev stirred his tea. Well, just FYI that's just one part. That part now days is little and circumstantial. There's a lot more to me than just that one part. I'm bones, organs and flesh. I'm as human as anyone else. I possess no super powers, no more wearing spandex. They laughed. People tend to not see that. That's why it's so hard to meet anybody. They get hung up so bad on that one part. His thoughts suddenly drifted. I remember back on how magical it was. If I had it to do over I wouldn't change a thing. He hesitated. I want them to love me for me, not for who I used to be. Will Trevor get back to the normalcy he longs for

The Man Who Saw Too Much John Little, 2010-11-01 This is the story of David Brill, one of the very best of Australian cameramen past and present. He is in the same company as Damien Parer and Neil Davis. Over the past forty years he has covered wars and disasters all over the world. He filmed the fall of Saigon. He was in Moscow during the collapse of communism. He has covered countless other conflicts and natural disasters in Asia, Africa and North and South America. He has been single-mindedly dedicated to the pursuit of his craft to get the story, get the film, always to preserve and present the human dimension, no matter how large or mindless the conflict or event. David Brill has paid a high price for this uncompromising style. He has two failed marriages and at times has been overcome by demons such as alcohol. This biography is also a great adventure story, a journey through war zones and various hell holes of the world. And it is an inside look at what makes some people follow a profession where their life is on the line as a standard feature of their day

No Hope for the Hopeless at Kings Park Jason Medina, 2013-07-05 In this first book by Jason Medina we are given fabulously three intertwined stories that for the most part take place at the Kings Park Psychiatric Center a currently abandoned state hospital which was once home to thousands of insane and tortured souls The first of these tales takes place in the 1960s when the hospital used to be known as the Kings Park State Hospital It focuses around a suicidal adolescent girl named Amanda who is committed to the hospital's old adolescent cottages Over the next few years she experiences both the joys of friendship and the sorrows of loneliness as she struggles to adjust to her new life In the second story we are given a new version of an old Long Island urban legend about a murderous woman known only as Mary Hatchet Ever since Mary was committed to the hospital at the tender age of eleven after the brutal murders of her parents her thoughts and motive have remained a mystery Almost a decade later a twenty-two year old Mary has gained the attention of two doctors who make it their mission to get into her mind at the risk of unleashing the demon she struggles to keep inside The final story takes place long after the hospital has been abandoned When a man wakes up with amnesia on the shore of the Long Island Sound near the decayed structures of the old hospital he begins a long journey that will take him back in time to his earliest forgotten memories and through a series of dreams and flashbacks until he remembers everything By that time he may wish he stayed with amnesia
