Jeremiah Covenant Bible Studies:

The Covenant Motif in Jeremiah's Book of Comfort Tiberius Rata, 2007 The Covenant Motif in Jeremiah's Book of Comfort Textual and Intertextual Studies of Jeremiah 30-33 examines Jeremiah's promise of a new covenant that God will interiorize his law into people's hearts. This in-depth syntactic, semantic, and pragmatic study of selected texts in Jeremiah 30-33 comprises the foundation for a superb biblical theology of the new covenant. God's pledge that this covenant is not like the one I made with your fathers is explored in relation to the Abrahamic, Mosaic, and Davidic covenants. Tiberius Rata makes a theologically and hermeneutically balanced incursion into Old Testament texts used in the New Testament and provides a springboard for further discussion on difficult yet important issues such as the Lord's Supper and the future of Israel.

Jeremiah Matthew S. Harmon, 2016-07-18 The Knowing the Bible series is a resource designed to help Bible readers better understand and apply God's Word. These 12-week studies lead participants through books of the Bible and are made up of four basic components: 1. reflection questions help readers engage the text at a deeper level; 2. Gospel Glimpses highlight the gospel of grace throughout the book; 3. Whole Bible Connections show how any given passage connects to the Bible's overarching story of redemption culminating in Christ; and 4. Theological Soundings identify how historic orthodox doctrines are taught or reinforced throughout Scripture. With contributions from an array of influential pastors and church leaders, these gospel-centered studies will help Christians see and cherish the message of God's grace on every page of the Bible. Appointed to be a prophet before he was born, Jeremiah faithfully preached God's Word in the face of confusion, opposition, and persecution. When instructed, he brought the message of God's righteous judgment against sin to the nation of Israel but not without reminding them of God's covenant faithfulness. In this 12-week study, Matthew Harmon highlights key biblical themes, clarifies crucial doctrines, and draws personal applications from the book of Jeremiah, reminding us of the truth that God's proclamation of judgment is always intended to spur his people to seek salvation in and through him. Adult Bible assessment of the book of Jeremiah enables the reader to rediscover many of the most profound and relevant features of Jeremiah's message and of the agonies and fears of those to whom it was first given. The picture that emerges of the prophet is an intensely moving one, often at variance with the conventional image of earlier popular reconstructions. Having witnessed the loss of most of the treasured and revered religious support of his day, Jeremiah discovered that the only secure foundation of hope is in God.

Interpretation: A Bible Commentary for Teaching and Preaching is a distinctive resource for those who interpret the Bible in the church. Planned and written specifically for teaching and preaching needs, this critically acclaimed biblical commentary is a major contribution to scholarship and ministry.

Fall theme: Covenants With God. Genesis Exodus Numbers 1 Samuel 2 Samuel Nehemiah Jeremiah Ezekiel 1 Corinthians Titus. This fall, lessons in Adult Bible Studies follow the theme Covenants With God and consider the major covenants God made with people on behalf of the earth and the human community. Beginning with Noah, God promised benevolence toward creation. God made similar commitments with Abram, Phinehas, and Ezekiel. Ultimately, the covenant forms the foundation for the coming Messiah and salvation for the world. The student book writer is Rosanne Osborne. The writer for the teacher book is Tim Bryan.

Signs of God's Covenants: The four lessons in this unit, drawn from Genesis and Ezekiel, celebrate four signs of God's covenant: Promising to renew the cycle of seasons, God created the rainbow as a permanent reminder of the covenant with every living thing. Circumcision was the sign of the covenant with Abraham, and the sabbath was the sign of the covenant with Israel at Mount Sinai. The last sign is the Spirit-filled heart. Called Into Covenant With God. This five-lesson unit looks at the images of the reign of the resurrected Christ from the Letter to the Hebrews. These lessons help us understand Jesus as the imprint of God, the owner of a household, the great high priest, a priest forever, and the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.

An Everlasting Covenant: The final unit this quarter develops four lessons drawn from Numbers 1 Samuel, Jeremiah, Hebrews, and 1 Corinthians. These lessons examine the components of the covenant God made with the priest Phinehas and the divine promise to Israel through the prophet Jeremiah. The unconditional divine promises were to maintain a perpetual priesthood, forgive the unfaithful, and establish a new covenant with Israel. God sealed this covenant of pure grace through Christ as mediator and by writing the Law in the hearts of God's people.

Developed for use with the student book based on the Uniform Series, this leader resource provides a wealth of information, planning ideas, and lesson guides for each of the 13 lessons in the quarter. This resource includes detailed study of the biblical text, suggestions for developing lessons, teaching options, maps, and charts. The prophet's heart of compassion, his unwavering commitment and his unshakeable belief in God's faithfulness offer a powerful example for us to follow today. What does Jeremiah's perseverance teach us about remaining faithful in difficult circumstances? How can we like Jeremiah continue to speak truth and trust in God's promises even when the road is hard? A Prophet's Burden is a reminder that God calls us to be faithful in our assignments even when the results are not what we hope for. Perseverance rooted in trust in God's sovereignty is the key to enduring hardship and fulfilling His will. Step into A Prophet's Burden, Jeremiah's Call to Persevere and be inspired by the example of a man who faithfully endured the weight of God's call, never wavering in his commitment to speak truth to a lost world. When we persevere in God's calling even in hardship, He will bring His plans to completion.
