Jerusalem Neighborhoods:

Jerusalem and Its Environs Ruth Kark, Michal Oren-Nordheim, 2001 It covers the construction of institutional complexes the introduction of significant changes in Jerusalem's administration the creation of new planning frameworks the planning of new settlements around the city the concentration of large tracts of agricultural land by Jerusalem's Arab effendis and the development of the Arab and Jewish villages in the rural hinterland BOOK JACKET Jerusalem Chanoch Shudofsky, Hanokh Shudafski, 2008 An easy to use guide of the 200 neighborhoods in Jerusalem including their history and their many name changes Jerusalem Anne B. Shlay, Gillad Rosen, 2015-07-08 Jerusalem has for centuries been known as the spiritual center for the three largest monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam Yet Jerusalem's other worldly transcendence is far from the daily reality of Jerusalem a city bombarded by conflict The battle over who owns and controls Jerusalem is intensely disputed on a global basis Few cities rival Jerusalem in how its divisions are expressed in the political sphere and in ordinary everyday life Jerusalem The Spatial Politics of a Divided Metropolis is about this constellation of competing on the ground interests the endless set of claims struggles and debates over the land neighborhoods and communities that make up Jerusalem Spatial politics explain the motivations and organizing around the battle for Jerusalem and illustrate how space is a weapon in the Jerusalem struggle These are the windows to the world of the Israel Palestine conflict Based on ninety interviews years of fieldwork and numerous Jerusalem experiences this book depicts the groups living in Jerusalem their roles in the conflict and their connections to Jerusalem's development Written for students scholars and those seeking to demystify the Jerusalem labyrinth this book shows how religion ideology nationalism and power underlie patterns of urban development inequality and conflict In Jerusalem Lis Harris, 2019-09-17 An entirely fresh take on the Israeli Palestinian conflict that examines the life shaping reverberations of wars and ongoing tensions upon the everyday lives of families in Jerusalem An American secular diasporic Jew Lis Harris grew up with the knowledge of the historical wrongs done to Jews In adulthood she developed a growing awareness of the wrongs they in turn had done to the Palestinian people This gave her an intense desire to understand how the Israelis history led them to where they are now However she found that top down political accounts and insider assessments made the people most affected seem like chess pieces What she wanted was to register the effects of the country's seemingly never ending conflict on the lives of successive generations Shuttling back and forth over ten years between East and West Jerusalem Harris learned about the lives of two families the Israeli Pinczowers Ezrahis and the Palestinian Abuleils She came to know members of each family young and old religious and secular male and female As they shared their histories with her she looked at how each family survived the losses and dislocations that defined their lives how in a region where war and its threat were part of the very air they breathed they gave children hope for their future and how the adults understanding of the conflict evolved over time Combining a decade of historical research with political analysis Harris creates a living portrait of one of the most complicated and controversial conflicts of our time      The Palestinians Cheryl Rubenberg, 2003 A forceful penetrating critique of the Oslo Accords and their devastating aftermath

Neighborhood Self-Management Hillel Schmid, 2012-12-06 Over the past two decades Western countries have witnessed changes in the governance of local authorities During that period governmental authority and traditional governmental functions have gradually shifted to local authorities at the municipal level In keeping with this trend the governments have attempted to diminish their role in the provision of social human and communal services and encouraged nongovernmental organizations to penetrate the arena of services previously supplied by the government In the community domain neighborhood organizations that encourage citizen involvement and participation in policymaking and decisions concerning their life and well being have gained increasing influence In this regard the emergence of the community council and its development as a unique entity in the municipal arena is particularly noteworthy The community council reflects an advanced stage in the development of community and voluntary organizations that lacked the organizational and professional infrastructure know how and technologies as well as the competence to cope with the powerful governmental and municipal establishment The community council reflects the developed civic consciousness of the city's residents who demand responses to their changing and heterogeneous needs In this context neighborhood residents have sought to establish a powerful and influential organization that serves them and represents their interests vis a vis the municipal and governmental authorities

The Middle East Peace Process J. Ginat, Edward Joseph Perkins, Edwin G. Corr, 2002 Political stability is a crucial precondition for peace in the Middle East In The Middle East Peace Process Vision versus Reality Joseph Ginat Edward J Perkins and Edwin G Corr have assembled a comprehensive overview of the complex peace negotiations taking place among Middle Eastern nations to resolve the Israeli Palestinian conflict and forge normal relations between Arab nations and Israel More than thirty academics and practitioners probe discuss and engage themselves with issues concerning the peace process The volume focuses first on the Oslo Agreement and the Palestinian Track then addresses Israeli relations with Egypt Jordan Lebanon Syria and Iraq and concludes with an examination of relations between Israelis and Palestinians in Jerusalem The Middle East Peace Process is the result of the Center for Peace Studies conference The Peace Process in the Middle East cosponsored by the International Program Center at the University of Oklahoma and the University of Haifa in Israel The volume features a foreword by HRH Prince El Hassan bin Talal of Jordan and a preface by David L Boren President of the University of Oklahoma

On Our Own in Jerusalem's Old City Vicki Andree, 2013-05-22 Join two born again Christians exploring the Old City of Jerusalem without a tour group Experience the excitement of discovering the Hebraic roots of our Christian faith Visit archaeological sites and museums that strengthen our faith Discover Jewish holidays and learn their significance to Jesus and to us Read about thriving churches in the Old City Mingle with citizens of the Old City Learn how to shop the souk and communicate with vendors Hear the call of ancient stones from the Holy Land Worship with us as we meet with God in churches synagogues mosques tombs tunnels ramparts and at the Western Wall      Israel / Palestine Alan Dowty, 2017-08-31 What explains the peculiar intensity and evident intractability of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Of all the hot spots in the world today the apparently endless clash between Jews and Arabs in the Middle East seems unique in its longevity and resistance to resolution Is this conflict really different from other ethnic and nationalist confrontations and if so in what way In this fully revised and expanded fourth edition of his highly respected introductory text Alan Dowty demystifies the conflict by putting it in broad historical perspective identifying its roots and tracing its evolution up to the current impasse His account offers a clear analytic framework for understanding transformations over time and in doing so punctures the myths of an age old conflict with an unbridgeable gap between the two sides Rather than simply reciting historical detail this book presents a clear overview that serves as a road map through the thicket of conflicting claims Updated to include recent developments such as the clashes in the Gaza Strip and the latest diplomatic initiatives the new edition presents in full the opposed perspectives of the two sides leaving readers to make their own evaluations of the issues The book thus expresses fairly and objectively the concerns hopes fears and passions of both sides making it clear why this conflict is waged with such vehemence and how for all that the gap between the two sides has narrowed over time      Cities in Transition Rita Schneider-Sliwa, 2006-01-23 This book was written with the aim of showing that even in the era of globalization developments appearing in cities are not subject to almost unconditional global forces Rather universal forces are decisive eventualities in the process of urban restructuring often influencing its course and speed yet developments and particularities within a city strongly influence the course of events and the extent to which negative characteristics of globalization might occur Berlin Brussels Hanoi Ho Chi Minh City Hong Kong Jerusalem Johannesburg Moscow St Petersburg Sarajevo and Vienna Using these important cities the special relationship between global and local regional forces is analyzed The case studies were selected based on their political and cultural context and the fact that their social and political fabric was subject to major changes in the recent past How global processes manifest themselves locally depends to a great extent on how development processes and endogenic potentials are initiated locally in order to cope with the new global economic and societal conditions      Policy Making in Israel Ira Sharkansky, 2010-11-23 All governments face problems and are judged by their ability to solve them and the policies they develop in doing so Compared with other Western democracies Israel has faced a devastating number of problems of unusual severity in a relatively short time war terrorism heavy immigration unsettled boundaries economic stresses internal disputes about ethnicity and religion and the lingering scars of the Holocaust and other persecutions Sharkansky's analysis of the Israeli government's routines and methods for coping with such an array of difficulties from simple to complex to intractable offers general insights into how governments make policy in a democracy      The Craft of Political Analysis for Diplomats Raymond F. Smith, 2011 Until the recent unauthorized release of thousands of classified State Department cables public attention was rarely drawn to the frequently outstanding political analysis done by American diplomats abroad The existing literature on diplomacy has heretofore been limited to memoirs of former diplomats and analyses of international affairs by diplomats academics and think tanks The Craft of Political Analysis offers a fresh approach one that provides a context for interpreting this embassy reporting and a guide to understanding the work that went on behind the scenes to produce it Author Raymond F Smith combines a practitioner s personal view of what is required to do good diplomatic political analysis with his understanding of the social conflict and change that informed his work for the State Department Smith clearly explains everything the Foreign Service candidate or professional as well as the interested layman needs to know about crafting political analysis including how to write for the analyst s intended audience how to make best use of the intellectual and analytical tools of the trade what happens when the analyst s views differ from government policy and why political analysis risks becoming irrelevant even though it is still urgently needed In addition The Craft of Political Analysis for Diplomats features two case studies using legally declassified cables not included in the Wikileaks release The first is built around four highly restricted Embassy Moscow cables on the collapse of the Soviet Union the second includes two cables on the Arab Israeli conflict that received the State Department s highest award for political analysis Selected for the Diplomats and Diplomacy Series of the Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training ADST and DACOR an organization of foreign affairs professionals

Regional Development and Planning for the 21st Century Allen G. Noble, Frank J. Costa, Robert B. Kent, 2019-10-28 Regional Development and Planning for the 21st Century examines a number of related themes including the traditional approach of local and regional planning initiatives developed within the context of national goals the current decline of bipolar political and ideological blocs political decentralization and concurrent economic centralization including the growth of multinational corporations devolution of centralized planning powers to regions and localities and the rise and acceptance of sustainable development concepts The book is divided into five parts addressing 1 adjustments to political economic and social change 2 the problems of urban housing and housing and health 3 adjustments to environmental change development policies and sustainability 4 the problem of rapid urban growth and mega cities 5 adjustments of changing urban networks The contributors are from several countries worldwide and the chapters examine the issues at a global level Beyond Memory Pauline Kaldas, Khaled Mattawa, 2020-03-06 This anthology brings together the voices of both new and established Arab American writers in a compilation of creative nonfiction that reveals the stories of the Arab diaspora in styles that range from the traditional to the experimental Writers from Egypt Lebanon Libya Palestine and Syria explore issues related to politics family culture and racism Coming from different belief systems and cultures and including first and second generation immigrants as well as those whose identities encompass more than a single culture these writers tell stories that speak to the complexity of the Arab American experience The Object of Jewish Literature Barbara E. Mann, 2022-07-26 A history of modern Jewish literature that explores our enduring attachment to the book as an object With the rise of digital media the death of the book has been widely discussed But the physical object of the book persists Here through the lens of materiality and objects Barbara E Mann tells a history of modern Jewish literature from novels and poetry to graphic novels and artists books Bringing contemporary work on secularism and design in conversation with literary history she offers a new and distinctive frame for understanding how literary genres emerge The long twentieth century a period of tremendous physical upheaval and geographic movement witnessed the production of a multilingual canon of writing by Jewish authors Literature s objecthood is felt not only in the physical qualities of books bindings covers typography illustrations but also through the ways in which materiality itself became a practical foundation for literary expression

Can We Talk About Israel? Daniel Sokatch, 2021-10-19 National Jewish Book Award finalist An essential and accessible introduction to one of the most complex controversial topics in the world from a leading expert on Israel and the Israeli Palestinian conflict When it comes to Israel and Palestine it can be hard to know what to say Daniel Sokatch gets it He heads the New Israel Fund an organization dedicated to equality and democracy for all Israelis Arab Jewish and otherwise The question he gets asked on an almost daily basis is Can t you just explain the Israel situation to me In like 10 minutes or less This book is his timely and much needed answer Can We Talk About Israel tells the story of that country and explores why so many people feel so strongly about it without actually understanding it very well at all Sokatch grapples with a century long struggle between two peoples that both perceive themselves as and indeed are victims And he explains why Israel and the Israeli Palestinian conflict inspires such extreme feelings why it seems like Israel is the answer to what is wrong with the world for half the people in it and what is right with the world for the other half As Sokatch asks is there any other topic about which so many intelligent educated and sophisticated people express such strongly and passionately held convictions and about which they actually know so little Complete with engaging illustrations by Christopher Noxon Can We Talk About Israel is an easy to read yet penetrating and original look at a subject we could all afford to better understand

The Making of Eretz Israel in the Modern Era Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 2020-03-09 Napoleon s invasion of the Middle East marks the beginning of the modern era in the region This book traces the developments that led to the making of a new and separate geographical political entity in the Middle East known as Eretz Israel and the establishment of the State of Israel within its bounds Thus its time frame runs from Napoleon s invasion of Eretz Israel Palestine in 1799 to the establishment of Israel in 1948 1949 Eretz Israel as the formal name of a separate entity in the modern era first appeared in the early translations into Hebrew of the Balfour Declaration while in the original document the country was referred to as Palestine During the period of Ottoman rule the territory that would in time be called Eretz Israel Palestine was not a separate political unit Among Jews use of Eretz Israel increased only after the beginning of Zionist aliyot Had the Zionist movement not arisen it is doubtful whether the development to which this study is devoted would have occurred The motivating force behind that process is without doubt the Zionist element That is why Jews are the major protagonists in this book

Land Expropriation in Israel Yifat Holzman-Gazit, 2016-04-22 Historically Israel s Supreme Court has failed to limit the state s powers of expropriation and to protect private property This book argues that the Court's land expropriation jurisprudence can only be understood against the political cultural and institutional context in which it was shaped Security and economic pressures the precarious status of the Court in the early years the pervading ethos of collectivism the cultural symbolism of public land ownership and the perceived strategic and demographic risks posed by the Israeli Arab population all contributed to the creation of a harsh and arguably undemocratic land expropriation legal philosophy This philosophy the book argues was applied by the Supreme Court to Arabs and Jews alike from the creation of the state in 1948 and until the 1980s The book concludes with an analysis of the constitutional change of 1992 and its impact on the legal treatment of property rights under Israeli law     The Late Great State of Israel Aaron Klein, 2009 In The Late Great State of Israel Aaron Klein author of the critically acclaimed Schmoozing with Terrorists draws upon years of experience living and working as a journalist based in Israel His book is an urgent clarion call to supporters of Israel around the world The great Mideast democracy faces catastrophe Klein shows how Israel is often its own worst enemy and how Hamas Hezbollah Iran and a variety of Palestinian terrorists threaten to end the Zionist dream once and for all He also exposes the important role that America and the news media have played in putting the Jewish nation in such a dangerous position Israel is in the fight of its life facing perils from inside and outside its borders Unless these perils are countered soon warns Klein the only remnant of the Jewish nation may be an epitaph The Late Great State of Israel     Local Communities and the Israeli Polity Efraim Ben-Zadok, 2012-02-01 This book represents the first systematic effort to analyze the role of local communities and regions in Israel's national politics Traditionally portrayed as either elitist and highly centralized or as pluralistic with very active interest groups Israeli politics have seldom accounted for local and regional forces The authors demonstrate the growing importance of these communities in the politics of the country Their analyses are based on the concept of spatial sector and eight sectors are covered The West Bank and Gaza Strip Arabs Israeli Arabs development towns renewal neighborhoods religious neighborhoods Gush Emunim settlements kibbutzim and moshavim and Jerusalem
