Gaehtgens,2018-07-10 As the site of royal coronations Reims cathedral was a monument to French national history and identity But after German troops bombed the cathedral during World War I it took on new meaning The French reimagined it as a martyr of civilization as the rupture between the warring states Despite a history of mutual respect the bombing of the cathedral caused all social scientific artistic and cultural ties between Germany and France to be severed for decades The resulting battle of words and images stressed the differences between German Kultur and French civilisation Artists and intelligentsia caricatured this entrenched cultural dichotomy influencing portrayals of the two nations in the international press This book explores the structure s breadth of meaning in symbolic art historical and historical arenas including competing claims over the origins of Gothic art and architecture as national style and issues of monument preservation and restoration It highlights how vulnerable art is during war and how the destruction of nation al monuments can set the tone for international conflict once again a timely and pressing issue Thomas W Gaehtgens articulates how these nations began to mend their relationship in the decades after World War II starting with the courageous vision of Charles de Gaulle and Konrad Adenauer and how the cathedral of Reims was eventually transformed into a site of reconciliation and European unification Le Siècle d'or du livre d'enfants : 1840-1940 Jean-Marie Embs,Philippe Mellot,1999-12-31T23:00:00+01:00 Un floril ge des ouvrages pour enfants publi s entre 1840 et 1940 qui ont rivalis par la qualit de leurs illustrations Avec un dictionnaire des principaux auteurs illustreurs diteurs imprimeurs graveurs ayant pris part cette aventure de l dition du livre pour enfants Un livre de r f rence notamment pour les collectionneurs Copyright Electre With Brush and Pen Robert Gillespie,2023-11-29 About the Book For more than 220 years visual artists have attempted to illustrate the political and military cataclysm that descended upon Europe between 1792 and 1815 In With Brush and Pen The First Century of Napoleonic Artists for the first time the oldest genre of historical art is brought to life through the works created by an international cast of artists Never before have so many examples of battle art uniform studies and maritime art been brought together in a single volume And for the first time the artists who created this feast for the eyes are the center of attention Long hidden in the shadows these men and women are now revealed The other half of the
