Johannes Bobrowski Prosa Interpretationen:

Understanding Johannes Bobrowski David Scrase, 1995 In this critical introduction to the poetry and fiction of Johannes Bobrowski 1917 1965 David Scrase elucidates the literary subtleties of one of the most prominent writers to live and work in the German Democratic Republic Despite the fact that Bobrowski won such prestigious accolades as the Heinrich Mann Prize and Charles Veillon Prize and held an important position in the literature of postwar Germany very little English language scholarship has been published about his work Scrase fills this gap by exploring the heralded writer's novels poems and short stories Contending that Bobrowski's writing can be understood only by those who appreciate the ethos that pervaded East Prussia during the writer's childhood Scrase begins by reviewing the region's history and profiling the diverse ethnic and religious communities that Bobrowski encountered there In looking at a representative sampling of Bobrowski's work Scrase exposes the writer's attempts to come to terms with Germany's destructive role in eastern Europe Scrase offers close readings of selected Bobrowski poems most of which depict the landscape of Sarmatia its rural traditions and the daily tasks of its people He also reviews Bobrowski's two novels Levin's Mill and Lithuanian Pianos and explains how to read Bobrowski's short stories

Between Sarmatia and Socialism John P. Wieczorek, 2021-11-08 Interest in Johannes Bobrowski 1917 1965 has suffered from an impression of the complexity of his works and of the narrowness of his focus on The Germans and their Eastern European neighbours The current study re-examines aspects of Bobrowski's Sarmatian works especially their chronological development but places them within the wider context of the whole of his oeuvre It looks at the long period of development before he discovered his theme in the early 1950s and examines his development after Sarmatische Zeit and Schattenland Strme seeing the volume Wetterzeichen as moving increasingly away from the past and towards more contemporary issues His short stories and novels are related to the issues confronting him in East Germany and develop increasingly into responses to immediate poetic and social problems Far from being a remote and backward orientated Sarmatian Bobrowski emerges as a writer attempting to communicate with a society which he felt threatened to ignore basic human needs and aspirations The study makes use of material from Bobrowski's Nachla to present a figure looking for and offering patterns for orientation in his East German society but with renewed relevance for post unification Germany
