One Hundred Years of Argonauts Chris Hann, Deborah James, 2024-06-01 Malinowski's Argonauts of the Western Pacific was a major contribution to anthropological theory and method while simultaneously establishing the sub field of economic anthropology. Even a century after its publication Malinowski's pioneering work remains critical for anthropology in a postcolonial age. This volume uses ethnographic studies from around the world to contextualize the work politically and intellectually examining its gestation and influence from multiple perspectives. It critically explores the meaning of economy for Malinowski from his formation in the Austro-Hungarian Empire to his path-breaking fieldwork in Melanesia and ensuing career in London.

One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year. On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress (ANC) of South Africa, the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent, celebrated its one hundredth anniversary. This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large. There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year. One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars. Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources, the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history. By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary, the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms. Collectively, the book's chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994. By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century-long history, One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research. The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics. This volume is informative. This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC: Debating Liberation, Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, from 20-23 September 2011.

The Shakespearean International Yearbook Graham Bradshaw, Tom Bishop, Clara Calvo, 2017-05-15 This eighth volume of The Shakespearean International Yearbook presents a special section on European Shakespeares proceeding from the claim that Shakespeare's literary craft was not just native English or British but was filtered and fashioned through a Renaissance awareness that needs to be recognized as European and that has had effects and afterlives across the Continent. Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair. The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK Spain Switzerland and South Africa Canada The Netherlands India Portugal Greece France and Hungary In addition to the section on European Shakespeares this volume includes essays on the genre of romance issues of character and other topics

And Justice For All Stephen Ellmann, 2020-07-15 And Justice For All Arthur Chaskalson and the Struggle for Equality in South Africa is a biography of a remarkable life lived in service both to law and to the struggle for social change and justice The social change it describes is the victory over apartheid which was won on several fronts and through the efforts of people in many nations but an important one of those fronts lay in the courts of South Africa itself Arthur Chaskalson enters the historical record in 1963 when he and a team of talented lawyers represented Nelson Mandela in the historic Rivonia Trial Chaskalson organized legal and non profit organizations and served as the first president of South Africa's Constitutional Court which would eventually lead to the deconstruction of apartheid legislation In exploring his life and career we appreciate more clearly the roles lawyers can play in social change and the achievement of a just social order and at the same time we gain insight into the combination of upbringing experience and character that shapes a man first into a cause lawyer and then into a path breaking and foundation laying judge

A Short History of South Africa Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass's passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today

Colour, Confusion & Concessions (Second Edition) Melanie Yap, Dianne Leong Man, 2024-07-17 Colour Confusion and Concessions the history of the Chinese in South Africa is a detailed and descriptive chronological account providing a comprehensive record of the Chinese in southern Africa from the earliest times to the 21st century This NEW digital edition of the 1996 original contains a foreword and updated preface summarising developments within the Chinese community in South Africa in the first two decades of the new millennium Additional material outlines two landmark court cases the community's unprecedented challenge of the SA Government's application of the Employment Equity Act and the Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment Act in 2008 and the Hate Speech case before the Equality Court between 2017 and 2022 A Chinese translation of this work is in the pipeline

Triangle of One Hundred Years Wars JJ Klaas,2023-10-15 The book Triangle of One Hundred Years Wars provides an incredibly gripping and riveting South African historiography chronologically articulated through an endogenous lens by a native South African It chronicles a record reflective of the fundamental historical events within the southern part of Africa The narrative delineates the adroitness of the visionary leadership of amaXhosa given the successes and failures on the protracted wars etched in the Eastern Cape region Dr Jongi Joseph Klaas has a Bachelor of Pedagogics from the University of Fort Hare South Africa a Masters Degree from the from the University of Oklahoma in the United States of America and Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology from the University of Cambridge United Kingdom In 2015 he published Memoirs of Relentless Pursuit Currently he is working on the battlefields of the African wars of resistance When I wrote House of Phalo more than 40 years ago I could never have expected that we would have to wait so long for an African perspective Professor Jeff Peires The book itself is a victory it is a reward to those heroes who fought wars of resistance Ms Vathiswa Nhanha Librarian at Cory Library Rhodes University Jongi Klaas redefines the telling of history his stories have a soul they live in you Professor Ncedile Saule An Inherent Obsession for Collecting H. British Royal Visits and Black Loyalism in Twentieth-century Southern Africa Hilary Sapiro,2024-10-31 Exploring the entwined histories of British royal visits to Southern Africa in the twentieth century this book analyses the clashing voices of dissent and cheering crowds that accompanied royal tours providing insight into the shifting nature of Black loyalism Originating in the Indigenous empire loyalism of eighteenth century Canada Black loyalism encompassed loyalty to the British crown and a shared ideology of rights and entitlements which positioned the crown as a source of protection against white settler rapacity colonial violence and racial oppression However expressions of monarchical devotion were often double edged and addressed the fundamental contradiction of a crown that was both the source of rights and complicit in colonial conquest appropriation and misrule It was on royal occasions such as jubilees coronation celebrations and especially royal visits when the sovereign was literally amongst their more distant subjects that loyalist sentiment was rekindled reinvented and made directly relevant to the concerns of the day By analysing change and continuity in Black perspectives towards both the British and Indigenous African monarchy during these visits this book offers a fruitful way into examining an array of Black Southern African discourses on governance political values and cultural identities across the region It argues that the refashioning of British imperial monarchy in the twentieth century was profoundly shaped by African initiatives and re imaginings and provides valuable reading for those researching imperialism popular attitudes to the British monarchy in the twentieth century and the diverse politics and identities of southern Africa      South African Homelands as Frontiers Steffen Jensen, Olaf Zenker, 2018-02-02 This book explores what happened to the homelands in many ways the ultimate apartheid disgrace after the fall of apartheid The nine chapters contribute to understanding the multiple configurations that currently exist in areas formerly declared homelands or Bantustans Using the concept of frontier zones the homelands emerge as areas in which the future of the South African postcolony is being renegotiated contested and remade with hyper real intensity This is so because the many fault lines left over from apartheid its loose ends so to speak between white and black between different ethnicities between rich and poor or differentiated by gender generation and nationality between traditions and modernities or between wilderness and human habitation are particularly acute and condensed in these so called communal areas Hence the book argues that it is particularly in these settings that the postcolonial promise of liberation and freedom must face its test As such the book offers highly nuanced and richly detailed analyses that go to the heart of the diverse dilemmas of post apartheid South Africa as a whole but simultaneously also provides in condensed form an extended case study on the predicaments of African postcoloniality in general This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies      The Man Who Founded the ANC Bongani Ngqulunga, 2017-06-19 In 1912 just over a year after returning from his studies at Columbia and Oxford the thirty year old Pixley ka Isaka Seme succeeded where others had failed in forming a political organisation that represented all black South Africans Seme also established a national newspaper became one of the pioneering black lawyers in South Africa bought land from white farmers for black settlement at the time when opposition to it was gaining momentum became an adviser and confidant to African royalty and was considered a leading visionary for black economic empowerment And yet when he became president general of the ANC in the 1930s he brought it to its knees through sheer ineptitude and an authoritarian style of leadership On more than one occasion he was found guilty for breaching the law which partly led to him being struck off the roll of attorneys This book discusses in detail Seme s extraordinary life tracing it back to his humble beginnings at Inanda Mission to his triumphs and disappointments across the continents in his public and private life When Seme died in 1951 he was bankrupt and his political standing had suffered greatly And yet he was praised as one of the greatest South Africans ever to have lived For all this he has largely been forgotten This biography brings the remarkable life of this extraordinary South Africa back to public consciousness      Visualising China in Southern Africa Rui Assubuji, Ying Cheng, Patricia Hayes, Malcolm Corrigan, Binjun Hu, Romain Dittgen, T Tu Huynh, Esther Esmyol, Nicola Kritzing, Philip Harrison, Mark Lewis, Khangelani Moyo, Stary Mwaba, Marcus Neustetter, Kristin NG-Yang, Gemma Rodrigues, Shuo Wang, Yan Yang, Lifang Zhang, 2023-03 Engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production the essays in this volume are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture With China s rise as the new superpower its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic geopolitical and cultural shifts Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture however is a neglected field Visualising China in Southern Africa is a ground breaking volume that addresses this deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture Richly illustrated the collection includes scholarly chapters photo essays interviews and artists personal accounts organised around four themes material flows orientations and transgressions spatial imaginaries and biographies Some of the artists photographers filmmakers curators and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba Hua Jiming Anawana Haloba Gerald Machona Nobukho Nqaba Marcus Neustetter Brett Murray Diane Victor William Kentridge Kristin NG Yang Kok Nam Mark Lewis the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa Wu Jing Henion Han and Shengkai Wu

The Unknown Van Gogh Chris Schoeman, 2015-07-01 Much has been written about Vincent van Gogh and his tempestuous relationship with his brother Theo But few people know that there was a third Van Gogh brother Cornelis who was raised in the Netherlands but worked married and died in South Africa The son of a Protestant minister Cor spent his youth in a series of small Dutch towns with idyllic holidays walking in the countryside with his artist brother before troubles and tragedies beset the Van Gogh family In 1889 the twenty two year old Cor sailed to South Africa where he worked as an engineer on the gold mines and on the railways In the Anglo Boer War he joined the Boers first as a railway engineer and later on commando in the Free State where in 1900 he suffered a fate that echoed his famous brother s tragic end The Unknown Van Gogh recreates South Africa in the tumultuous last decade of the nineteenth century reconstructs the personal story of a young immigrant from letters and other archival documents and explores his relationship with his famous brother Vincent With new insights based on original research this book uncovers a figure who has been forgotten by history The Hidden Thread Irina Filatova, 2013-06-28 The Hidden Thread is a journey of revelation about the relationship between Soviet Russia and South Africa hidden for most of its length The story is told with insight and depth by Irina Filatova and Apollon Davidson who have had a decades long association researching and writing on Russian and South African politics and history This insightful work follows the often surprising twists and turns of the history of South Africa s relationship with Russia and its people which started in the eighteenth century and is still very much alive today The story evolves from the Russian volunteers who fought alongside the Boers in the Anglo Boer War to South Africans who participated in the Russian revolution and civil war from the Russian Jewish immigration to South Africa to the close involvement of the South African communists in the Communist International from the Soviet consulates in South Africa and the activities of South Africa s Friends of the Soviet Union Society during the Second World War to the vicissitudes of the Cold War and the hot war in Angola from the SACP and ANC s relations with the USSR to the volte face of perestroika and South Africa s transition and to today's business political cultural and sometimes criminal connections between Russians and South Africans

South Africa Nancy L. Clark, William H. Worger, 2016-06-17 South Africa The Rise and Fall of Apartheid examines the history of South Africa from 1948 to the present day covering the introduction of the oppressive policy of apartheid when the Nationalists came to power its mounting opposition in the 1970s and 1980s its eventual collapse in the 1990s and its legacy up to the present day Fully revised the third edition includes new material on the impact of apartheid including the social and cultural effects of the urbanization that occurred when Africans were forced out of rural areas analysis of recent political and economic issues that are rooted in the apartheid regime particularly continuing unemployment and the emergence of opposition political parties such as the Economic Freedom Fighters an updated Further Reading section reflecting the greatly increased availability of online materials an expanded set of primary source documents providing insight into the minds of those who enforced apartheid and those who fought it Illustrated with photographs maps and figures and including a chronology of events glossary and Who's Who of key figures this essential text provides students with a current clear and succinct introduction to the ideology and practice of apartheid in South Africa

A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery Anna Tietze, 2017-06-14 In South Africa with its highly contested and changing understandings of national identity its National Gallery is no less a contested space A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery considers questions of artistic and cultural identity from the late 19th century to the present day It explores how the gallery has understood its function and its public as a national gallery from 1930 and before that the chief gallery of the Cape Colony This question is investigated through a study of the gallery's administration collection and exhibition practices over the last 150 years What is understood by and expected of a national gallery varies considerably worldwide Should it regard itself as part of a broad international cultural discourse or should it be representative of a specifically national or even regional identity The gallery is a microcosm of the greater debate how the South African nation relates to the larger world and how if at all it understands the concept of a shared culture In the last 20 years Museum Studies have become a major part of the field of Cultural Studies There is a vast literature on what might be called the history museum but far less on the art museum or gallery To date there has been no large scale historical inquiry into the Iziko SANG the country's national gallery The absence of such a history marks a serious gap in the literature which this study aims to fill

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala, 2013-06-15 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg's MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum s opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa South African Digest ,1987

National Liberation Movements as Government in Africa Redie Bereketeab,2017-09-08 Africa is well known for the production of national liberation movements NLMs stemming from a history of exploitation colonisation and slavery NLMs are generally characterised by a struggle carried out by or in the name of suppressed people for political social cultural economic territorial liberation and decolonisation Dozens of NLMs have ascended to state power in Africa following a successful violent popular struggle either as an outright military victory or a negotiated settlement National Liberation Movements as Government in Africa analyses the performance of NLMs after they gain state power The book tracks the initial promises and guiding principles of NLMs against their actual record in achieving socio economic development goals such as peace stability state building and democratisation The book explores the various different struggles for liberation whether against European colonialism white minority rule neighbouring countries or for internal reform or regime change Bringing together case studies from Somalia Somaliland Uganda Ethiopia Eritrea South Sudan Namibia Angola Mozambique South Africa Zimbabwe and Algeria the book builds a comprehensive analysis of the challenges NLMs face when ascending to state power and why so many ultimately end in failure This is an ideal resource for scholars policy makers and students with an interest in African development politics and security studies The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes,Toyin Falola,2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world s most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa
