John Corigliano the Red Violin Caprices Violin:

The red violin caprices John Corigliano, 2001 String Solo The Red Violin Caprices duration ca 10 min are derived from John Corigliano's music for The Red Violin which received the 1999 Academy Award for Best Original Score The Caprices were composed especially for Joshua Bell These Caprices composed in conjunction with the score for Francois Girard's film The Red Violin take a spacious troubadour inspired theme and vary it both linearly and stylistically These variations intentionally evoke Baroque Gypsy and arch Romantic idioms as they examine the same materials a dark seven chord chaconne as well as that principal theme from differing aural viewpoints The Caprices were created and ordered to reflect the structure of the film in which Bussotti a fictional 18th century violin maker crafts his greatest violin for his soon to be born son When tragedy claims wife and child the grief stricken Bussotti in a gesture both ardent and macabre infuses the blood of his beloved into the varnish of the instrument Their fates thus joined the violin travels across three centuries through Vienna London Shanghai and Montreal passing through the hands of a doomed child prodigy a flamboyant virtuoso a haunted Maoist commissar and at last a willful Canadian expert whose own plans for the violin finally complete the circle of parent and child united in art John Corigliano
