John Neff On Investing:

John Neff on Investing John Neff, 2001-04-13 John Neff is a life long contrarian proving time and again over the past three decades that bucking the system can pay off big During his illustrious career as a money manager Neff flew in the face of conventional wisdom by consistently passing over the big growth stocks of the moment in favor of inexpensive under performing ones and he usually won During his thirty one years as portfolio manager for Vanguard's Windsor and Gemini II Funds he beat the market twenty two times through every imaginable stock market climate while posting a 57 fold increase in an initial stake When Windsor closed its doors to new investors in 1986 it was the largest mutual fund in the United States Now retired from mutual fund management Neff is finally ready to share the investment strategies that earned him international recognition as the investor's investor and made him the one to whom other money managers come to manage their money In John Neff on Investing Neff delineates for the first time the principles of his phenomenally successful low price approach to investing and he describes the strategies techniques and investment decisions that earned him a place alongside Warren Buffett and Peter Lynch in the pantheon of modern investment wizards Packed with solid advice and guidance for anyone who aspires to using Neff's unique brand of value investing John Neff on Investing offers invaluable lessons on using price earnings ratios as a yardstick to zeroing in on undervalued stocks interpreting earnings histories and anticipating new market climates A narrative of Neff's early days My Road to Windsor reveals the extraordinary mindset and humble circumstances that shaped his winning investment philosophy By reproducing excerpts from his personal investment diaries this book offers a unique opportunity to watch Neff in action over the years A faithful quarter in quarter out chronicle of a life on Wall Street the diaries provide unprecedented insights into the thinking behind some of his best and worst investment decisions while tracing the evolution of his innovative investment style The first book to fully reveal the long heralded investment strategies of a Wall Street genius John Neff on Investing is must reading for investors brokers traders and bankers of every kind JOHN NEFF until his retirement in 1995 was Senior Vice President and Managing Partner of the Wellington Management Company the Windsor Fund's investment advisor S L MINTZ is New York Bureau Chief of CFO Magazine a publication of the Economist Group dedicated to the latest financial thinking and how it is being implemented in today's markets His other books include Beyond Wall Street Wiley 1998 and Five Eminent Contrarians The Guru Investor John P. Invest Like a Dealmaker outlines an approach to investing that is far removed from what most investors have been conditioned to believe but which has produced consistent profits for its practitioners decade after decade. While the concepts covered are not well known by the average investor, they are well appreciated by Wall Street insiders and dealmakers, particularly those who think about stocks as whole companies as things with real assets and cash flows that exist in the real world. How to Win as a Stock Market Speculator Alexander Davidson, 2005-11-03 City expert Alex Davidson reveals the secrets of making money as a stock market speculator. The Value Connection Marc H. Gerstein, 2003-10-07 A market beating method for finding success in trading stocks. Value is a concept that frequently eludes investors, especially when it comes to stocks. In many cases, successfully identifying value can make the difference between picking a winner and getting burned. The Value Connection offers a systematic and doable method investors can use to take advantage of value in the stock market. Based on author Marc Gerstein's Value Connection method, this book will show investors how to find potentially attractive value connections, analyze specific situations to see if the value connection is sound, buy the best value connected opportunities, and sell stocks for which the value connection has weakened. The proven four-step method outlined, which allows investors to understand the relationship between a company and its stock, will help any investor screen the stock market for the best values out there. Real world examples make understanding this revolutionary investing method easy. Marc H. Gerstein, New York, NY, is the Director of Investment Research at Multex. Prior to that, he was in the research and editorial department at Value Line. Over the course of two decades, he analyzed stocks across a wide variety of industries and sectors, including household products, specialty retail, restaurants, mining, energy, hotel, gaming, homebuilding, airlines, railroads, and media. Gerstein appears periodically on CNN, Bloomberg TV, and is often quoted in USA Today, CBS MarketWatch, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Daily News, and Money Online. He is also the author of Screening the Market. 0-471-21559-7 The Stock Market Course George A.
