Ashmolean Museum, Anne Stevens, 1986     British Wood-engraved Book Illustration, 1904-1940 Joanna Selborne, 1998 Twentieth century British wood engraved book illustration up to the beginning of the Second World War was among the most versatile and inventive of the graphic arts In a climate of typographical renaissance various wood engravers made a significant impact on the appearance of the printed page transforming good books into works of art and influencing modern standards of book production This book reveals the methods by which these pioneering artists broke with nineteenth century illustrative practices The author surveys the subject in relation to the cultural and historical background and within the context of mainstream developments in the visual arts placing emphasis on the working relationship of illustrators with both private presses and commercial publishers Detailed study of unpublished material including art school records publishers and print societies archives and artists correspondence throws new light on the work and practices of the more innovative wood engravers     Short Stories, Scraps and Shavings, by Bernard Shaw; with Wood Engravings by John Farleigh

Man Talking: Selected Essays of Shao Xunmei, 1929-1939 Paul Bevan, Susan Daruvala, 2023-07-19 Shao Xunmei poet essayist publisher and printer played a significant role in the publication and dissemination of journals and pictorial magazines in Shanghai during the 1920s and 1930s His poetry has been translated by several prominent scholars through the years but remarkably few of his essays have received the same attention and this is the first collection of his prose writings to be published in English Shao has been described by a phalanx of scholars as the most seriously underestimated modern cultural Chinese figure This collection of his writings joins several recent publications that aim to raise Shao's literary and historical profile It will appeal to a broad swathe of readers interested in the transnational and transcultural dimensions of twentieth century experience that have become so important for contemporary scholarship The essays in this book some of which were selected by the writer s daughter Shao Xiaohong include long essays such as One Man Talking and A Year in Shanghai as well as several shorter essays on subjects as diverse as the caricatures of Miguel Covarrubias woodblock printing and pictorial magazines all of which were published in Shao s own magazines Although his essays may be less well known than those of other writers of the same period without his unique and valuable contribution the literary artistic and poetic worlds of twentieth century Shanghai would have been very different indeed
