American Jewish Films Lawrence J. Epstein,2013-04-06 This is a thematic survey of American films with significant Jewish content that made an important statement about America Both familiar and lesser known films are included An introduction discusses why American Jews were attracted to films as audiences performers and business people and evaluates how films help audiences think about their lives The book then focuses on themes and representative and important films placing them in their cultural contexts One of the aspects of American Jewish life brought out by the films in general is the tensions between an American and a Jewish identity and between a Jewish identity and a broader human identity Other themes are assimilation and acculturation interfaith relations Israel marriage and family relations the role of women Jews and American politics and anti-Semitism including the Holocaust Cinema Arthuriana

Kevin J. Harty,2015-05-07 The legends of King Arthur have not only endured for centuries but also flourished in constant retellings and new stories built around the central themes With the coming of motion pictures Arthur was destined to hit the screen This edition of Cinema Arthuriana revised in 2002 presents 20 essays on the topic of the recurring presence of the legend in film and television from 1904 to 2001 They cover such films as Excalibur 1981 and Monty Python and the Holy Grail 1975 television productions such as The Mists of Avalon 2001 and French and German films about the quest for the Holy Grail and the other adventures of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table Fitzgerald and Hemingway on Film

Candace Ursula Grissom,2014-04-02 A comprehensive guide to all major film adaptations based on the novels of F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway this is essential for scholars of American modernism and film studies The author takes the approach that all visual and printed literature is born from a cycle of celebrity culture in which authors continually create new works and reconstruct their personal images based on audience reception The text includes two dozen reviews of individual films from the silent era to present day hits such as Baz Luhrman s The Great Gatsby as well as critical commentary from leading scholars of both modernist literature and film studies The Films of John Garfield (hardback)

James L. Neibaur,2021-11-19 John Garfield was and remains one of the most impactful actors of 20th century American cinema A towering influence on so many screen performers who came along afterward Garfield managed to create a lasting image despite living a life that was marked with tragedy including the loss of a child When he left the studios and began doing independent films his politics informed his projects and he was blacklisted by Hollywood leading to his early death of a heart attack at only 39 years of age This book is a film by film look at his work from the brash characters he played in his studio productions to the tormented antiheroes of film noir that he later portrayed His work continues to resonate into the 21st century

Life's That Way Jim Beaver, 2009-04-16 A remarkable memoir that shows the capacity of the human heart to heal after the challenge of having to say goodbye Even the hardest lessons contain great gifts Jim Beaver and his wife Cecily Adams appeared to have it all following years of fertility treatments they were finally parents and they were building their dream home and successful Hollywood careers Life was good But then their daughter Maddie was diagnosed as autistic Weeks later Cecily a non smoker was diagnosed with Stage IV lung cancer Sadly after 14 years of marriage Jim became a widower and a single dad Faced with overwhelming grief Jim reached out to family and friends by writing a nightly email a habit he established when Cecily was first diagnosed Initially a cathartic exercise for Jim the prose became an unforgettable journey for his readers Life's That Way is a compilation of those profound compelling emails

The Jew in American Cinema Patricia Erens, 1988-08-22 Placing cinematic representations of the Jew within their historical context Bartov demonstrates the powerful political social and cultural impact of these images on popular attitudes He argues that these representations generally fall into four categories the Jew as perpetrator as victim as hero and as anti hero Examples range from film's early days to the present from Europe Israel and the United States
