John Horbury Hunt Radical Architect 1838-1904:

Between Duty and Design John J. Taylor, 2014 Annotation The architectural work of Joseph John Talbot Hobbs is impossible to overlook in Perth and Western Australia. It dominates public spaces as well as domestic and business streetscapes. A strong sense of duty determined that the diminutive fifty-year-old architect-soldier J. J. Talbot Hobbs would, in 1914, voyage to the First World War where he survived the horrors of Gallipoli and the Western Front. Hobbs' powerful organisational skills positioned him as Australia's highest-ranking soldier in Europe after the Great War. Organiser of Australian war memorials in France and Belgium, his stellar designs both there and throughout Western Australia are now largely forgotten. Who was J. J. Talbot Hobbs that he was considered to be of such importance at the time of his death that a memorial was built in one of the most prominent places in the state's capital city of Perth? Between Duty and Design is a meticulous biography of the man-soldier and architect, highlighting his place as a citizen of national importance. John Oxley Rob Tickle, 2020-02-01 This immaculately and painstakingly researched book, through its biographies of Oxley, Evans, Fraser, and Harris, explains the impulses that drove these men to explore and map the colony to collect, identify, and categorise its flora. But it succeeds in doing more than that because it also elucidates the motivations that drove them to become colonial entrepreneurs, farmers, and businessmen who, in the pursuit of individual wealth, advanced colonial prosperity. This important book makes an invaluable contribution to our understanding of Australia's European origins. Emeritus Professor Richard Waterhouse. Australia Harry Margalit, 2019-11-15 This book tells the story of the architects and buildings that have defined Australia's architectural culture since the founding of the modern nation through Federation in 1901. That year marked the beginning of a search for better city forms and buildings to accommodate the changing realities of Australian life and to express an emerging, distinctive and eventually confident Australian identity. While Sydney and Melbourne were the settings for many of the major buildings, all states and territories developed architectural traditions based on distinctive histories and climates. Harry Margalit explores the flowering of these many architectural variants from the bid to create a model city in Canberra through the stylistic battles that opened a space for modernism to the idealism of postwar reconstruction and beyond to the new millennium. Australia reveals a vibrant and influential culture of the built environment at its best when it matches civic idealism with the sensuality of a country of stunning light and landscapes. British Art for Australia, 1860-1953 Matthew C. Potter, 2018-12-21 Traditional postcolonial scholarship on art and imperialism emphasises tensions between colonising cores and subjugated peripheries. The ties between London and British white settler colonies have been comparatively neglected. Artworks not only reveal the controlling intentions of imperialist artists in their creation but also the uses to which they were put by others in their afterlives. In many cases, they were used to fuel contests over cultural identity which expose a mixture of rifts and consensus within the British ranks which were frequently assumed to be homogeneous. British Art for Australia, 1860-1953: The Acquisition of Artworks from the United Kingdom by Australian National Galleries represents the first systematic and comparative study of collecting British art in Australia between 1860 and 1953 using the archives of the Australian national galleries and other key Australian and UK institutions Multiple audiences in the disciplines of art history cultural history and museology are addressed by analysing how Australians used British art to carve a distinct identity which artworks were desirable economically attainable and why and how the acquisition of British art fits into a broader cultural context of the British world It considers the often competing roles of the British Old Masters e g Romney and Constable Victorian e g Madox Brown and Millais and modern artists e g Nash and Spencer alongside political and economic factors including the developing global art market imperial commerce Australian Federation the First World War and the coming of age of the Commonwealth High Lean Country Iain Davidson, Andrew Piper, JS Ryan, 2020-07-22 High Lean Country captures the rich history and haunting character of the New England region of northern New South Wales The authors explore how memory of land of family of patterns of life on the other side of the world has influenced the identity of New England They also consider how the high country itself has shaped its people and their sense of regional uniqueness In doing so this book sets a new direction for understanding Australia as a whole Weaving together the histories of human settlement economic social and cultural development as well as interactions with the environment High Lean Country shows how colonial settlers strived for decades to literally create a new England It traces the story of the graduates of Oxford and Cambridge who turned their hands to sheep husbandry and developed a squattocracy the establishment of schools and other institutions and the cultivation of traditional arts It also examines the early colonial bushranging period and a history of not always friendly relations between white settlers and the local Aboriginal population A project of the Heritage Futures Research Centre at the University of New England High Lean Country is a fascinating study of this distinctive Australian high country Daisy in Exile Daisy White, 2003 Fontainebleau outside Paris is almost as far from country Australia spiritually and geographically as a schoolgirl can get But that is where Margaret Isabel White known as Daisy found herself for the final years of her education This intensely personal account of her teenage life has been thoughtfully annotated by editor Riviere Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society, 2003 Includes the Society's Annual report and statement of accounts John Horbury Hunt Peter Reynolds, Lesley Muir, 2002 One of Australia's most eccentric and complex architects Hunt radically challenged the conservative architectural establishment of late 19th century Australia With contemporary and historical photographs and plans this scholarly book will confirm Hunt's place in history as an architect of enduring significance and originality Architectural Publications Index, 2002 Journal of Australian Colonial History, 2005 Script & Print, 2008 Pioneers of Modernism Harriet Edquist, 2008 Remedying a neglected part of architectural history this volume presents the work of four of Australia's most innovative arts and crafts architects Walter Butler Harold Desbrowe Annear Walter Liberty Vernon and Robin Dods The influence of the arts and crafts movement in Australia has long been lost between the far better known Gothic and classical revivals and the modernist movement and obscured by the chronological construction of federation architecture but this study along with the accompanying photographs and plans brings to life the simple lines of their design and illustrates why it is so deserving of further recognition Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1980 Landscape Australia, 2002 Architect Extraordinary John Maxwell Freeland, 1970 Australian Book Review, 2003 Heritage Law in Australia Ben Boer, Graeme Wiffen, 2006

Internationally Australia has the most developed heritage jurisprudence because of the use of the World Heritage Convention in Federal and State disputes and at the State and Territory level the laws have achieved a rare consistency across the jurisdictions Until now however there has been no comprehensive treatment of this subject Heritage Law in Australia fills this gap It is a clear and concise text that will be of use to anyone wanting a general overview of the development of heritage law in Australia The text offers a systematic analysis of the range of natural and cultural heritage law by discussing heritage law not only by reference to a limited sets of Acts of the Australian Parliaments the Heritage Acts but as illustrating what is happening more generally in environmental law and regulation The Commonwealth of Books Wallace Kirsop, 2007 Ian Willison whose professional life was spent in the British Museum Library later the British Library has played a leading part in the development of book history studies in the English speaking world In the two decades since his retirement from a post that gave him administrative and intellectual oversight of the library's rare book and English language programmes he has made an enormous contribution to the organization and encouragement of research and publications in a new and expanding field of historical endeavour Official and deserved recognition of his efforts came in 2005 with his appointment as a Commander in the Order of the British Empire The present volume brings together a selection of essays and studies by some of Willison's many friends colleagues and associates The topics covered on book history libraries archives and scholarship reflect the breadth of his interests and the scope of his curiosity From the inside story of the major edition of George Orwell's works to the investigation of New Zealand's print culture a surprising mix of subjects suggests the many ways in which the West's book heritage and desire to order knowledge can be explored and illuminated The contributors have been and are intimately involved in diverse aspects of the reshaping of our access to means of communication and civilization As a result the volume offers as well as precise studies of the history of textual transmission and of intellectual debates insights into an evolving discipline and into its attempts to understand our culture in depth Architects of Australia Howard Tanner, 1981 The Hutchinson Encyclopedia of Biography Christine Stephanie Nicholls, 1996 This biographical dictionary contains 10 000 biographies supplemented with 2 000 quotations chosen to reveal what major figures thought about themselves and what others thought about them It also contains 800 reading lists to guide readers through the biographies and memoirs
