Food Education and Gastronomic Tradition in Japan and France Haruka Ueda, 2022-11-24 Drawing on ethical and sociological theories of food this book presents a new approach to food education that moves beyond nutrition centred education Food education has gained increasing scientific and political importance in many countries as a promising way to change contemporary eating However many practices fail to address two epistemological obstacles regarding its very components food and education Food has largely been thought of from a nutritionistic viewpoint alone and the ethical issues over children s freedom of choice and well being have been absent This book resolves these problems by applying ethical and sociological theories of food and analysing food education in two pioneering countries Japan and France The book focuses on taste education and gastronomy as two key concepts which have great potential to positively impact food education Taste education is a promising alternative to nutrition centred pedagogy which foregrounds the experience and pleasure of eating food creating an environment for taste sensibility and food curiosity From taste education the picture can be broadened to examine the role and impact of gastronomy in food education Examining the cultural traditions of France and Japan reveals how gastronomy can impact eating habits and food cultures and how these criteria should be an intrinsic part of food education The book concludes by constructing an integrative theory for food education that moves beyond nutrition centred education for the benefit of one s well being This book will greatly interest students scholars policymakers and educators working on food education food related issues at the intersection between nutritional and social sciences and gastronomes searching for a pedagogical guide for developing their capabilities to eat in a more humanistic way French Gastronomy Jean-Robert Pitte, 2002-05-06 Divided into two volumes The Teachings of Modern Christianity on Law Politics and Human Nature offers a landmark collection of writings from twenty Christian thinkers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and analyses of their work by leading contemporary religious scholars With selections from the works of Jacques Maritain Gustavo Guti rrez Dorothy Day Pope John Paul II Susan B Anthony Karl Barth Dietrich Bonhoeffer Reinhold Niebuhr Martin Luther King Jr Nikolai Berdyaev Vladimir Lossky and others Volume 2 illustrates the different venues vectors and sometimes conflicting visions of what a Christian understanding of law politics and society entails The collection includes works by popes pastors nuns activists and theologians writing from within the Catholic Protestant and Orthodox Christian traditions Addressing racism totalitarianism sexism and other issues many of the figures in this volume were the victims of church censure exile imprisonment assassination and death in Nazi concentration camps These writings amplify the long and diverse tradition of modern Christian social thought and its continuing relevance to contemporary pluralistic societies The volume speaks to questions regarding the nature and purpose of law and authority the limits of rule and obedience the care and nurture of the needy and innocent the rights and wrongs of war and violence and the separation of church and state The historical focus and ecumenical breadth of this collection fills an important scholarly gap and revives the role of Christian social thought in legal and political theory The first volume of The Teachings of Modern Christianity on Law Politics and Human Nature includes essays by leading contemporary religious scholars exploring the ideas influences and intellectual and cultural contexts of the figures from this volume
