Graceful Exit Life And Death On Your Own Terms:

Life and Death on Your Own Terms Lofty L. Basta, 2001-05 This insightful compassionate and lucidly written handbook by a world renowned cardiologist is also a personal testimonial by a surviving cancer patient and an informative guide to end of life issues Dr Basta relies on his medical expertise and first hand experience with a life threatening illness to critique our death denying technologically obsessed culture and gives patients the means to take control of their final days He underscores that physicians the public and society as a whole must come to terms with the unalterable truth that life is finite and that medical intervention beyond a certain point only prolongs suffering When a cure or hope of a better life ceases to be achievable he urges comprehensive palliative care which attends to the patient's physical comfort emotional reassurance and spiritual encouragement To ensure that patients are empowered to provide for their final needs he provides a revolutionary clear simple and medical scenario specific Advance Care Plan which gives each of us the opportunity to execute all important life and death decisions before we are afflicted with a serious health problem and before decisions are irrevocable In sum this book is a tribute to the highly treasured doctor patient relationship Readers who feel that doctors have lost touch with the patient's perspective will welcome Dr Basta's empathy and caring tone

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Psychology and Gender Kevin L. Nadal, 2017-04-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Psychology and Gender is an innovative exploration of the intersection of gender and psychology topics that resonate across disciplines and inform our everyday lives This encyclopedia looks at issues of gender identity and psychological processes at the individual as well as the societal level exploring topics such as how gender intersects with developmental processes both in infancy and childhood and throughout later life stages the evolution of feminism and the men's movement the ways in which gender can affect psychological outcomes and influence behavior and more With articles written by experts across a variety of disciplines this encyclopedia delivers insights on the psychology of gender through the lens of developmental science social science clinical and counseling psychology sociology and more This encyclopedia will provide librarians students and professionals with ready access to up to date information that informs some of today's key contemporary issues and debates These are the sorts of questions we plan for this encyclopedia to address What is gender nonconformity What are some of the evolutionary sex differences between men and women How does gender based workplace harassment affect health outcomes How are gender roles viewed in different cultures What is third wave feminism

Suicide Across Cultures Meryam Schouler-Ocak, Murad Moosa Khan, 2024-09-04 Over 700 000 people globally take their own lives every year which equates to one death by suicide every 40 seconds Among teenagers and young adults suicide is the second most common cause of death after road traffic accidents Overall almost three times as many men than women die by suicide There are however significant variations in the patterns of suicide across cultures gender age geographic locations and personal history due to the complex relationship of how these factors converge One thing that remains consistent is that every death is a tragedy for family friends and all colleagues Traditions of suicidal behaviour are deeply rooted in any given culture and so examining the cultural influences can be of paramount importance in the understanding and assessment of a suicidal crisis Suicide Across Cultures offers the opportunity to expand knowledge beyond majority groups and to look further than the dominant paradigm in suicide research treatment and prevention With the majority of global suicides taking place in non Western societies minority groups are an essential area in suicide research Written by experts from around the world this fascinating textbook includes topics and regions that are not usually covered in texts on suicide and self harm It provides a unique and important insight for academics and students in psychiatry as well as anyone from the wider public with an interest in the psychiatry of suicide across cultures The

Miller,1998-03-18 Drawing on the expertise of The National Hospice Organization the umbrella organization for the ever increasing number of hospice programs nationwide this definitive guidebook outlines the many different choices for care and help available to the terminally ill their families and their caretakers My Mother's Hip Luise Margolies,2004 Some 400

000 hip fractures occur every year the vast majority among the elderly all too often these fractures are associated with death or severe disability After her mother's double hip fracture Luisa Margolies immersed herself in identifying and coordinating the services and professionals needed to provide critical care for an elderly person She soon realized that the American medical system is ill prepared to deal with the long term care needs of our graying society The heart of My Mother's Hip is taken up with the author's day to day observations as her mother's condition worsened then improved only to worsen again while her father became increasingly anxious and disoriented As both a devoted daughter and a skilled anthropologist Margolies vividly renders her interactions with physicians nurses hospital workers nursing home administrators the Medicare bureaucracy home care providers and her parents In the Lessons chapter that follows each episode she discusses in a broader context the weighty decisions that adult children must make on their parents behalf and the emotional toll their responsibility takes Here she addresses the complex practical issues that commonly arise in such situations understanding the consequences of hip fracture and its treatment preparing health care proxies and advanced directives enabling elders to remain at home and the heartbreaking dilemma of prolonging life Like many adult children Margolies learned her lessons about eldercare in the midst of crises This book is intended to ease the information gathering and decision making processes for others involved in eldercare The American Book of Living and Dying Richard F. Groves,Henriette Anne

Klauser,2015-12-16 For most people the thought of dying or caring for a terminally ill friend or family member raises fears and questions as old as humanity What is a good death What appropriate preparations should be made How do we best support our loved ones as life draws to its close In this nondenominational handbook Richard F Groves and Henriette Anne Klauser provide comfort direction and hope to the dying and their caregivers through nine archetypal stories that illustrate the most common end of life concerns Drawing from personal experiences the authors offer invaluable guidance on easing emotional pain and navigating this difficult final passage With a compelling new preface this edition also features an overview of the hospice movement a survey of Celtic Tibetan Egyptian and other historic perspectives on the sacred art of dying as well as various therapies techniques and rituals to alleviate suffering stimulate reflection and strengthen interpersonal bonds The American Book of Living and Dying gives us courage to trust our deepest instincts and reminds us that by telling the stories of those who have passed we remember honor and continue to learn from them The Contribution of Natural Law Theory to Moral and Legal Debate Concerning Suicide, Assisted Suicide, and Euthanasia Craig Paterson,2010-05-13 End-of-Life Issues, Grief, and Bereavement Sara Honn Qualls,Julia E. Kasl-Godley,2010-11-23 A practical overview of clinical issues related to end of life care including grief and bereavement The needs of individuals with life limiting or terminal illness and those caring for them are well documented However meeting these needs can be challenging particularly in the absence of a well established evidence base about how best to help In this informative guide editors Sara Qualls and Julia Kasl Godley have brought together a notable team of international contributors to produce a clear structure offering mental health professionals a framework for developing the competencies needed to work with end of life care issues challenges concerns and opportunities Part of the Wiley Series in Clinical Geropsychology this thorough and up to date guide answers complex questions often asked by patients their families and caregivers and helping professionals as well including How does dying occur and how does it vary across illnesses What are the spiritual issues that are visible in end of life care How are families engaged in end of life care and what services and support can mental health clinicians provide them How should providers address mental disorders that appear at the end of life What are the tools and strategies involved in advanced care planning and how do they play out during end of life care Sensitively addressing the issues that arise in the clinical care of the actively dying this timely book is filled with clinical illustrations guidance tips for practice and encouragement Written to equip mental health professionals with the information they need to guide families and others caring for the needs of individuals with life threatening and terminal illnesses End of Life Issues Grief and Bereavement presents a rich resource for caregivers for the psychological sociocultural interpersonal and spiritual aspects of care at the end of life Geriatric Medicine Christine K.
