Graceful Lie A Method For Making Fiction:

The Graceful Lie Michael Petracca, 1999 The Graceful Lie takes an entirely original approach to teaching fiction writing While some fiction writing books focus on the formal requirements of the story and others present a process centered Zen method The Graceful Lie combines the best of these strategies and adds a number of innovative features Where the Stories Come from Sibyl Johnston, 2002 Where the Stories Come From defines basic terms in creative writing and explains the fundamentals of character plot point of view verb tense narrative structure setting dialogue subtext and theme Thinking Things Through Ask Yourself Ask Readers Try This Exploration and Exercises Located at the end of every chapter this section applies and explores chapter material by suggesting questions for self and peer evaluation and suggests activities and exercises related to the chapter topic Devoted specifically to the writing process Chapters One Two and Ten guide readers through each phase of writing Chapter Eleven discusses how to elicit a helpful reading An Anthology of Professional and Student Fiction contains every story quoted from in the text Includes very simple definitions of fundamental terms used in creative writing courses Use of quotations marks end punctuation attribution and paragraphing is explained and illustrated simply and thoroughly Appendix Surviving on Your Own particularly useful for individual writers and writers groups offers ideas about writing outside the formal educational system For anyone interested in writing fiction Children's Writer's and Illustrator's Market 1999 Alice Pope, 1999-01-15 An annually published directory containing over 800 listings of publishers for authors and illustrators of children's books From the Heart Jeffrey L. Kosky, 2025-02-25 What does it mean to have a heart How does it feel when a heart fails and what does it take to recover In a world beset by never ending crises personal and collective local and global is heartlessness the only option From the Heart weaves together a personal narrative of a life threatening ailment with considerations of philosophy art and science to contemplate ultimate questions matters of life and death Jeffrey L Kosky recounts his brush with death the surgical repair of a congenital defect in his aortic valve his gradual recovery of everyday life and his struggle to find the heart to go on throughout it all To make sense of the experience he immerses himself in humanistic inquiry and medical science the histories of medicine cardiac surgery and knowledge of the human heart as well as the works of artists writers philosophers and theologians Writing about the experience of being human from the precarious position of his own woundedness Kosky shares hard earned perspectives on what matters most Combining moving memoir encounters with major authors and artists and heartfelt reflections on the big questions of existence this elegantly written book is at once erudite and powerful It shows us why the heart in physical emotional and metaphorical senses helps us come to terms with sickness and health dying and living The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock, 2022-08-01 In The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock offers an incisive exploration of narrative technique and the vital craft behind storytelling With remarkable clarity and precision Lubbock examines the intricacies of fiction focusing on point of view character development and the interplay between dialogue and action His eloquent prose and critical insight place this work within the broader context of early 20th century literary criticism where a surge of interest in the mechanics of narrative coincided with the rise of modernist literature Lubbock's discerning analyses elevate the reader's appreciation of both classic and contemporary novels elucidating how effectively crafted fiction resonates with its audience Percy Lubbock an influential critic and editor was steeped in literary tradition having been closely associated with prominent figures of the early twentieth century His experiences in the world of publishing and his academic pursuits at University College London imbued him with a unique perspective on narrative structure Lubbock's endeavors in criticism were both a reflection and a response to the evolving landscape of literature as he sought to articulate the principles that underpin great storytelling For both aspiring writers and passionate readers The Craft of Fiction is an indispensable guide that demystifies the art of storytelling Lubbock's keen observations and thoughtful dissection of narrative techniques serve not only as a manifesto for writers but also as a contemplative resource for any reader seeking a deeper engagement with the world of fiction

No Other Life Gary Young, 2002 No Other Life gathers in a single volume two earlier books by Gary Young Days and the award winning Braver Deeds with the final book in his trilogy If He Had Utilizing a radically brief prose poem that in its spare lucidity leaves after images burned into the reader's imagination Young weaves a pattern of compelling and often harrowing correspondences that Ethan Paquin described in Quarterly West as an exploration of thresholds of levels of human endurance Although every poem stands as an independent utterance each book suggests a discrete poetic unit and the entire trilogy can be read as a long poem in three parts

Graceful Reading Michael Davies, 2002-07-04 Graceful Reading offers a new way of understanding Bunyan's theology and his narrative art examining and reassessing the complex and interdependent relationship between them Michael Davies begins by proposing that Bunyan's theology is far from obsessed with the forbidding Calvinist doctrine of predestination and its corollary tendency towards painful introspection Bunyan's is rather a comfortable doctrine in which the believer is encouraged to accept salvation through the far more assuring terms of Bunyan's covenant theology those of faith and grace The book then reassesses how Bunyan's narrative style is informed by this theology Works such as Grace Abounding and The Pilgrim's Progress reveal a profound sensitivity to narrative forms and reading practices as they aim to inculcate in their readers a self-consciousness about reading itself which is instrumental in the very process of spiritual instruction in seeing things unseen This is a study therefore which asserts a radically different way of reading of Bunyan's writings both through the terms of seventeenth century covenant theology and through some distinctly postmodernist ideas about narrative practice
