Understanding Media Theory Arjen Mulder, 2004 Among students at universities and colleges of higher education as well as in the written press one can ascertain a growing interest in media theory There is a conveyor belt of books about new media but what seems to be missing is knowledge and understanding of the classical media theories of Ernst Cassirer Susanne Langer Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan Claude Shannon Gregory Bateson Vil m Flusser Friedrich Kittler and many others In Understanding Media Theory the ideas of these theoreticians and philosophers are explained and applied in a clear and accessible way not by discussing the writers one by one but by using real examples and analyzing them on the basis of concepts developed in media theory Consequently this volume is accessible to a broad public though it is primarily intended for students and teachers of media studies The main thrust of media theory is the analysis of how a society is altered by the technical characteristics of the various media it encompasses Media theory therefore examines popular culture as well as the arts journalism as well as philosophy scientific as well as general insights mass media as well as individualized media Media theory claims to offer an explanation for all historic and social phenomena

The Kindest People Who Do Good Deeds: Volume 1 David Bruce, 2007-04-01 The doing of good deeds is important As a free person you can choose to live your life as a good person or as a bad person To be a good person do good deeds To be a bad person do bad deeds If you do good deeds you will become good If you do bad deeds you will become bad To become the person you want to be act as if you already are that kind of person Each of us chooses what kind of person we will become To become a hero do the things a hero does To become a coward do the things a coward does The opportunity to take action to become the kind of person you want to be is yours This book collects 250 stories of good deeds from the arts from religion and from life

Intimations of Immortality Gerald Leinwand, 2010 My grandfather died when he was sixty five my father died at seventy At eighty eight I am the eldest of three brothers all of us older than our father was at his death Given a reasonable degree of vitality however I would like to live to forever Wouldn't you I would like to be at my grandchildren and great grand children's weddings Wouldn't you I would like to see how it all comes out in the end of time for my family my country for the world Wouldn't you Wouldn't it be great if the intellectual giants of centuries past could be with us yet Many of them achieved their best work in literature art philosophy science or mathematics at advanced ages Wouldn't the world be a better place if the accumulated wisdom of these talented people could still be around to set us straight The poet William Wordsworth thought so when he eulogized John Milton Milton thou shouldst be living at this hour England hath need of thee she is a fen Of stagnant waters With England traumatized by Napoleon Wordsworth sought Milton's help Surely these greats of yesteryear could contribute to our own trauma of global terrorism It is asserted by some that the search for immortality is pornographic Yet it will be remembered of the twenty first century that a conscious effort was made to confront and perhaps conquer death Wasserman helped conquer sexually transmitted diseases Salk the anti polio vaccine Pornographers Nonsense Death be not proud wrote the poet John Donne He was right While searching for immortality we are baffled by age My first wife for forty three years died of rampaging breast cancer my second wife for six years died of virulent brain cancer How does one make sense as to why we are attacked by Parkinson's and Alzheimers by heart disease and cancer Why the Holocaust Why the terror of 9 11 Thus the young may see things as they are and ask Why while the old may still dream of things that never were and ask Why not
