Granada En Color English:

Anthropological Filmmaking J.R Rollwagen, 2014-06-03 First Published in 1988 Visual Anthropology is a book series devoted to the illumination of the human condition through a systematic examination of all that is made to be seen It is our intention to demonstrate the value of an anthropological approach to the study of the visual and pictorial world The anthropological filmmaker just like the ethnographer must be content to present something about a dynamic process at a particular moment in time regardless of the fact that all of the variables are constantly in flux The purpose of this work is to make available a collection of articles by individuals who are both anthropologists and filmmakers Colour and colour naming: crosslinguistic approaches João Paulo Silvestre, Esperança Cardeira, Alina Villalva, 2016-09-01 The Colour and Colour Naming conference held in 2015 at the University of Lisbon offered a chance to explore colour naming processes from a cross linguistic approach The conference was an initiative of the working group Lexicography And Lexicology from a Pan European Perspective itself part of the COST action European Network of Lexicography The working group investigates the various ways by which vocabularies of European languages can be represented in dictionaries and how existing information from single language dictionaries can be displayed and interlinked to better communicate their common European heritage The proceedings gather together a selection of studies originally presented at the conference The first section of the volume outlines a Pan European perspective of colour names the second section is devoted to the categorisation and lexicographic description of colour terms Alphabetic Catalogue of the English Books in the Circulating Department of the Cleveland Public Library. Authors, Titles and Subjects Cleveland Public Library, 1889 Dracula in Visual Media John Edgar Browning, Caroline Joan (Kay) Picart, 2014-01-10 This is a comprehensive sourcebook on the world's most famous vampire with more than 700 citations of domestic and international Dracula films television programs documentaries adult features animated works and video games as well as nearly a thousand comic books and stage adaptations While they vary in length significance quality genre moral character country and format each of the cited works adopts some form of Bram Stoker's original creation and Dracula himself or a recognizable vampiric semblance of Dracula appears in each The book includes contributions from Dacre Stoker David J Skal Laura Helen Marks Dodd Alley Mitch Frye Ian Holt Robert Eighteen Bisang and J Gordon Melton The English Cyclopaedia: Geography Charles Knight, 1867 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbot Onions, 1901 Un-Dead TV Brad Middleton, 2015-02-05 Vampires are ubiquitous in our popular culture from movies to television in fiction and art and even within the hallowed halls of academia But in the not so distant past these undead creatures held more fear than fascination they lived in the shadows and were the stuff of nightmares In 1897 Bram Stoker introduced Dracula to the Western world and our concept of vampires was changed forever For over sixty years the undead have bled the television airwaves appearing in every type of programming imaginable Un Dead TV catalogues over one thousand unique vampire appearances and is the first book of its kind to explore this phenomenon to the extent that it truly deserves Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: part 1. F (1901) James Augustus Henry Murray, 1901 Selected Readings in the Anthropology of Religion Stephen D. Glazier, Charles A. Flowerday, 2003-12-30 Brings together in one volume a number of key theoretical and methodological advances in the anthropological study of religion Chapters cover important topics not ordinarily included in books dealing with the anthropology of religion e.g. bipedalism the study of alcohol film and video images notions of religious agency In addition this collection is intended to build bridges between anthropologists of religion and religious studies scholars Over the last four decades anthropologists have grappled with the dialectical relationship between the examination of cultures from the emic or insider perspective and the etic or outsider perspective Nowhere is this creative tension more evident than in the anthropological study of religion In this volume anthropologists and religious studies scholars come to terms not only with a landscape that has shifted fundamentally but a landscape that is still shifting Essays in this collection raise new and important issues for the anthropological study of religion in new and important ways In intensely personal essays a number of contributors address two fundamental concerns in the study of religion 1 how should anthropologists deal with the beliefs and practices of others and 2 how should anthropologists deal with their own religious backgrounds and beliefs as these may affect their understanding of the beliefs and practices of others A partial resolution to both questions is necessary before the anthropological study of religion can advance to a higher level

Ruiz this volume presents original and innovative research on the critical and uneasy relationship between authority and spectacle in the period from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries focusing on Spain the Mediterranean and Latin America Cultural scholars such as Professor Ruiz and his colleagues have challenged the notion that authority is elided with high politics an approach that tends to be monolithic and disregards the uneven application and experience of power by elite and non-elite groups in society by highlighting the significance of spectacle Taking such forms as ceremonies rituals festivals and customs spectacle is a medium to project and render visible power yet it is also an ambiguous and contested setting where participants exercise the roles of both actor and audience Chapters in this collection
