Haikus To Fool With:

Haikus to Fool With Mark Schwartz, 1998-12-01 Walden by Haiku Ian Marshall, 2012-01-01 In this intriguing literary experiment Ian Marshall presents a collection of nearly three hundred haiku that he extracted from Henry David Thoreau's Walden and documents the underlying similarities between Thoreau's prose and the art of haiku. Although Thoreau would never have encountered the Japanese haiku tradition, the way in which the most important ideas in Walden find expression in the most haikulike language suggests that Thoreau at Walden Pond and the haiku master Basho at his old pond might have drunk at the same well. Walden and the tradition of haiku share an aesthetic that embodies ideas in natural images, dissolves boundaries between self and world, emphasizes simplicity, and honors both solitude and humble familiar objects. Marshall examines each of these aesthetic principles and offers a relevant collection of found haiku. In the second part of the book, he explains his process of finding the haiku in the text, breaking down each chapter of Walden to highlight the imagery and poetic language embedded in the most powerful passages. Marshall's exploration not only provides a fresh perspective on haiku but also sheds new light on Thoreau's much studied text and lays the foundation for a clearer understanding of the aesthetics of American nature writing.

Adventures of Perception Scott MacDonald, 2009-08-25 Over the past twenty-five years, Scott MacDonald's kaleidoscopic explorations of independent cinema have become the most important chronicle of avant-garde and experimental film in the United States. In this collection of thematically related personal essays and conversations with filmmakers, he takes us on a fascinating journey into many under-explored territories of cinema. MacDonald illuminates topics including race and avant-garde film, the political implications of the nature film, the inventive single-shot films of the late 1960s and early 1970s, why men use pornography, and what they are looking at when they do poetry, and the poetic in avant-garde film, the widespread failure of film studies academicians to honor those who keep film exhibition alive, and other topics. Several of the interviews: those with Korean filmmaker Gina Kim, French nature filmmakers Claude Nuridsany and Marie Perrenoud, Microcosmos Canadian media artist Clive Holden, formalist conceptualist David Gatten, and New York's Film Forum director Karen Cooper, are the first substantial conversations with these filmmakers available in English. Publisher's description: ruth weiss Estíbaliz Encarnación-Pinedo, Thomas Antonic, 2021-10-04 ruth weiss born in Berlin in 1928 to Austrian Jewish parents, arrived in San Francisco in 1952 after hitchhiking through the United States. Crowned years later as the Goddess of the Beat Generation by San Francisco Chronicle critic Herb Caen, weiss has worked for almost seven decades with a plurality of artistic forms Despite her extensive poetry career and very active participation in the West Coast buzzing artistic community since the early 1950s weiss has remained an essentially overlooked figure in poetry history This neglect might be representative of the overshadowing of female artists within the Beat Generation as a marginalized group within an always already marginalized bohemia Johnson The volume taps directly into this lacuna by proving the first close study on one of the most prolific members of the so called Beat Generation Offering diverse and comprehensive points of entrance into weiss s oeuvre the essays in this volume adopt a multidisciplinary approach that attests to the cross pollination between art forms in postwar counterculture In addition the volume also includes shorter non academic contributions and previously unpublished archival material Bringing together scholars academics and artists from around the world this volume represents a timely and much needed response to the increasing interest in weiss s work in the last decades The Penguin Book of Haiku
