May 1933 Margaret Leigh took over the tenancy of Achnabo farm in a beautiful corner of the West Highlands overlooking the isle of Skye In this unsentimental yet exquisitely written book she recounts a year of farming life there from the burning of the land and ploughing in March through planting and sowing in April to haymaking and harvesting in September Incidental details such as a visit to the smithy the arrival of some new bulls and the annual journey of the cows to the summer shielings provide fascinating insights into farming life Local characters and customs feature too adding another rich dimension to this reflective and poignant memoir of a world now vanished forever Paul's Large Letters Steve Reece,2016-12-15 At the end of several of his letters the apostle Paul claims to be penning a summary and farewell greeting in his own hand 1 Corinthians Galatians Philemon cf Colossians 2 Thessalonians Paul s claims raise some interesting questions about his letter writing practices Did he write any complete letters himself or did he always dictate to a scribe How much did his scribes contribute to the composition of his letters Did Paul make the effort to proofread and correct what he had dictated What was the purpose of Paul s autographic subscriptions What was Paul s purpose in calling attention to their autographic nature Why did Paul write in large letters in the subscription of his letter to the Galatians Why did he call attention to this peculiarity of his handwriting A good source of answers to these questions can be found among the primary documents that have survived from around the time of Paul a large number of which have been discovered over the past two centuries and in fact continue to be discovered to this day From around the time of Paul there are extant several dozen letters from the caves and refuges in the desert of eastern Judaea in Hebrew Aramaic Nabataean Greek and Latin several hundred from the remains of a Roman military camp in Vindolanda in northern England in Latin and several thousand from the sands of Middle and Upper Egypt in Greek Latin and Egyptian Demotic Reece has examined almost all these documents many of them unpublished and rarely read with special attention to their handwriting styles in order to shed some light on these technical aspects of Paul's letter writing conventions Letters from and to Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe Esq Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe,1888 A Picked
